

MEETING HOLDS FOR EXTRA DAY

Banquet Attended by 250 Feature of Knights of Joseph Convention.

PRESENT TO J. H. MARKS

Supreme Vice Commander Recipient of Cut Glass Water Set—May Abolish Office of Counsellor.

The banquet held last evening at the New Harper in connection with the convention of the Order of Knights of Joseph was attended by 250 persons, including delegates and members of the local lodge.

Rabbi W. H. Fineshriber of Davenport presided as toastmaster. Talks were made by the newly elected officers, including Judge J. C. Block, J. N. Kantor, S. Wilner and J. J. Taxman, and by Mayor G. W. McCaskrin of Rock Island and Mayor Andrew Olson of Moline.

Reelect Supreme Secretary. The convention was continued this morning after a recess from yesterday afternoon. Reports were received from the retiring officers. When D. J. Zinner, supreme secretary of the order, submitted his report, some question was raised by one of the delegates on a number of items in the report.

May Abolish Counsellor's Office. The next office to be filled is that of supreme counsellor. Judge J. C. Block, newly elected supreme commander, is retiring supreme counsellor. The office formerly carried a salary of $500 a year. A motion was made to abolish the salary and to pay the supreme counsellor a fee according to the case which he handles.

Condemn Cook County Leaders. The following was adopted at a meeting of the Cook county delegates in attendance at the convention: "Whereas, the leaders of the republican party in Cook county have seen fit to refuse renomination of Hon. Abram J. Harris, clerk of the criminal court, and a member of the Jewish faith, a man who during his term of office as clerk of the criminal court has served the public of Cook county to their entire satisfaction; and,

"Whereas, the said leaders of the republican party of Cook county, in making a slate of candidates, have totally ignored the representation of any member of the Jewish faith, considering the large number of voters of that faith in the city of Chicago. Be it Resolved, That we, the delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Order of Knights of Joseph, assembled this 29th day of August, in the city of Rock Island, herewith express our displeasure and condemnation over such action, and heartily suggest that the republican voters at the primary election, Sept. 15, renominate Hon. Abram J. Harris to the office which he has so faithfully and earnestly conducted during the past two years."

Convention Notes. This evening, at the Watch Tower, the local members of the order will be the hosts at dinner for the entire visiting delegation.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies who are attending the sessions of the convention with their husbands were taken around the three cities in five touring cars.

The delegates like Rock Island so well that they have decided to hold the convention over till tomorrow, instead of closing this evening, as was the intention. They will hear the reports of committees tomorrow and will adopt resolutions.

Judge J. C. Block, newly elected supreme commander, was formerly judge of the solvency court at Cleveland. John Martin Kantor of Chicago has served as representative in the Illinois legislature for the Second senatorial district. He is now a candidate for election for the same office. Mr. Kantor is a democrat.

HOUSE IS DAMAGED BY AN EXPLOSION

Fire Department Called to Residence of Charles Goldberg on Fourth Avenue.

An explosion of a gasoline stove in the kitchen at the residence of Charles Goldberg, 2620 Fourth avenue, ignited the woodwork and wall paper at 1:55 this afternoon and caused $75 damage. The fire companies responded immediately and with the use of chemicals soon had the flames extinguished.

PEORIA NOW REALIZING THE HORRORS OF WAR

Citizens Will Ask State to Pay for Damage Done by Soldiers During Sham Battle.

Peoria will likely present a pretty bill to the state as a result of the sham battle that wound up the encampment of the national guardsmen in that city last week. Citizens and park boards are getting together and comparing notes, and they find that the troops did a prodigious amount of damage by charging over lawns, breaking down young trees and shrubbery and using the hedges and flower beds to hide behind while firing on the foe.

Colonel Fred Smith, chairman of the Peoria arrangements committee, was the leading sufferer, having had a fine suburban place which the troops took delight in overrunning and which was badly cut up by the hoofs of the cavalrymen's horses.

TO HOLD ANOTHER CONTEST

Christian Endeavorers Planning a Second Membership Race.

The business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the Memorial Christian church was well attended last evening. At this meeting it was decided to start another contest in the society immediately. The membership will be mixed and redivided for this new contest and there will be new captains and officers. The same colors, red and white, will be used for the sides. It was decided to give the same points as in the last contest with the addition of one point for attendance at business meeting and one point for attendance at the mid-week prayer meeting.

A committee of three, Rev. E. A. McFarland, chairman, Miss Mollie Mayers and Mrs. Mary Dewey, were appointed by the president to name captains, and to report at the prayer meeting of this week. They will then pick their sides and notify their members so that the contest can start next Sunday. It was not decided definitely just when the social and entertainment to the victorious Reds would be given by the Whites but it will be soon. The treasurer's report shows that there is still a surplus of $33.22 in the treasury and all bills paid.

ARE FINED IN POLICE COURT

Mike Rooses and John Pole Each Assessed $5 and Costs.

Mike Rooses and John Pole were arrested last night on charges of disorderly conduct and this morning they were arraigned before the police magistrate, who assessed each of them $5 and costs. It seems that they are bachelors who have been harboring women in their quarters in the lower end of the city. One was found with them yesterday and the arrest followed. The neighbors had made complaints about the men previous to yesterday and the police were keeping a quiet watch on them.

John Murphy, whom the police accused of being a "moocher" or beggar, was sent down to the county jail for 20 days this morning by the police magistrate. He has used his ill gotten money to acquire a jag and as it was not his first offense no pity was wasted on him.

American Bar Association Meets. Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 30.—The American Bar association met here today and addresses of welcome and responses were made. President Libby read his annual address. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were also read.

ON WILD JOURNEY

Roy Morrell and Pearl Gardner of Marseilles Located After Three Weeks.

PARENTS ARE NOTIFIED

Boy is 18 and Girl 17—Have Traveled Over Illinois and Iowa Since Leaving Their Homes.

After being away from home for three weeks, during which time they traveled over the western part of Illinois and over the eastern portion of Iowa, as man and wife, Roy Morrell, aged 18 years, and Pearl Gardner, aged 17 years, both claiming Marseilles, Ill., as their home, were halted in their wild flight by the police at a Davenport hotel. They were placed under arrest and after appearing in police court to answer to a charge of leading an immoral life, they were held over for 15 days. In the meantime their parents at Marseilles have been notified of their detention and it is expected that they will arrive to return with their wayward children.

Works in Restaurants.

Both the youthful wanderers told a straight story in court. The girl, who is a comely miss, attired in somewhat shabby clothing and with the characteristic extreme style of hair ornamentation of the flighty miss of immature years, said she had no mother and had not been living with her father for some time. She said she had worked in a restaurant in Marseilles and in other towns in which they had stopped since their flight from home and had come to Davenport only last Saturday night. Morrell had but little to say concerning his past except that he had always resided at home. The boy has been sent to jail, while Matron Hill has charge of the girl and both will be held until arrangements for their disposition are made by their respective parents.

City Chat

O mellow month and merry month Let me make love to you, And follow you around the world As knights their ladies do. I thought your sisters beautiful, Both May and April, too, But April she has rainy eyes, And May had eyes of blue.

And June—I liked the singing Of her lips and liked her smile— But all her songs were promises Of something, after while; And July's face—the lights and shades That may not long beguile, With alternations o'er the wheat The dreamer at the stile.

But you! Ah, you are tropical! Your beauty is so rare! Your eyes are clearer, deeper eyes Than any, anywhere; Mysterious, imperious, Deliriously fair, O, listless Andalusian maid, With bangles in your hair! —James Whitcomb Riley.

CURRAN BELIEVED A VICTIM OF ROBBERS

Theory Is He Was Waylaid on Railroad Track—Not Yet Able to Talk.

There was very little improvement noted today in the condition of Thomas Curran, who is lying at St. Anthony's hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the skull, except that he had regained consciousness. He is still unable to talk, however, and little further than that related yesterday is known. The train crew which brought him in from Carbon Cliff where he was found Sunday morning lying unconscious beside the track, cannot tell how the accident happened. It is the opinion of Dr. S. B. Hall, who is attending the injured man, that the fractured skull is not the result of being hit by a train, but rather by some heavy, blunt instrument in the hands of robbers. The doctor's theory is that Curran was waylaid and struck from behind with an iron bar. The wound in the front of the head looks as though it might have been made with a hammer. The affair is considerable of a mystery and it is hoped that Curran will recover enough to be able to give the police some 'clew, provided the theory of the doctor is correct.

Mr. Stewart expects to have the office force of the department located at the new quarters tomorrow. The commissary department, which furnishes supplies for the dining cars, is in the east wing of the building. The commissary and laundry buildings are connected by a platform, and are really two distinct buildings.
