Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 14.—A warrant charging Thomas McCoy, right end of the Bethany college football team, with murder in connection with the death of Captain Rudolph Munk, of the West Virginia university team, was issued yesterday by Magistrate R. G. Hobbs. The action followed the inquest.

Munk sustained injuries in the game between the two teams Saturday from which he died without regaining consciousness. The testimony upon which the warrant was issued was furnished by Homer N. Young, who umpired the game. Young testified that Munk was making interference and was a few yards in front of the scrimmage line when McCoy came up to the West Virginia captain, striking him in the head. Munk fell unconscious and Young ordered McCoy from the game.

The autopsy disclosed the fact Munk's death was caused by a blood clot at the base of his brain and could not have been the result of a former injury.

LEADS WESTERN UNION

Postal Claims Full Credit for Reduction in the Rates.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 14.—George Clapperton, vice president of the Commercial Cable company being asked in regard to the interview with Colonel Clowry, president of the Western Union Telegraph company relative to the announcement of the Commercial Cable company of reduced rates on plain letter messages, said: "Our five-letter cable reduction plan is entirely new and different from the other plan mentioned by Colonel Clowry and his insinuation as to the Commercial Cable company's attitude is incorrect. The whole history of the Commercial Cable company is to the contrary. We are to be the ones who reduced cable rates from 50 cents to 25 cents a word, and after two years and a half fight the Western Union was obliged to do the same."

"Colonel Clowry omitted to state that the chief object of the trip to London of Mr. Hall of the Western Union Telegraph company, and also vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, is not the question of rates, but to combine all the English companies with the Western Union in opposition to the Commercial Cable company, and he might have added that Mr. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, made a trip to London last summer for the same purpose."

PINCHOT IN APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Ex-Forester Asks Leave to File Brief in Alaska Lands.

SLAPS AT BALLINGER

Latter Issues Statement Saying He Desires Courts to Take Responsibility.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Expressing the fear that the interior department will recommend the patenting of the Cunningham Alaskan coal land claims, which he believes to be fraudulent, Gifford Pinchot, former forester of the United States, has appealed to the president to allow him to submit a brief before any such action is given executive approval.

Mr. Pinchot has written to the president under date of Nov. 7. He says, in part:

Wants Unbiased Judgment.
"It is unfortunately impossible to look with confidence to the officials of the interior department for an unbiased judgment in this matter, and it is clear the protection of the public interest in these Alaskan coal lands must depend directly on the president himself."

Secretary Ballinger's connection with these claims, which have been before the interior department since he was commissioner of the land office, precipitated the so-called Ballinger-Pinchot controversy and the congressional investigation of the forestry service.

Ballinger Issues Statement.
Secretary Ballinger issued a statement Saturday night in which he declared that "wholly unfounded charges have been spread broadcast involving the attitude of department officials toward these cases," and that in view of the highest importance that all these cases be transferred from the jurisdiction of the general land office directly to the court of appeals of the District of Columbia for consideration and adjustment."

CAUSE FOR GRATITUDE

U. S. Congressman—Thanks, Germany! Your tariff war agitation will furnish me with material for speeches for at least six months.

Colonel Weaver, chief of the division of militia.

State Laws Futile.

The officers say it is almost hopeless to expect any relief from present conditions by the enactment of state laws or through any national law that would restrain unions from their unfriendly attitude. The preachings of patriotism are of no effect, even where it is shown the sole purpose of the militia is the maintenance of law and order, and in Weaver's opinion the only real, practical solution of the problem lies in the creation by the other states of a state constabulary on the line of the highly trained and disciplined constabulary of Pennsylvania to supplement the effort of the local police or constabulary in the repression of disorder. It is believed labor union would then come to look upon the militia as a force for national defense rather than as state police, and in the course of time their opposition would disappear.

Shows Small Growth.

Perhaps, for the reason indicated, Weaver suggests, the increase in the strength of the national guard was only trifling during the past year. According to latest returns this strength was 9,155 officers and 110,505 men, which is a net increase of only 734 over the preceding year. It is a curious fact Hawaii shows the greatest percentage of militiamen to the population, the number being 71.8 per thousand, while Nevada has not a single militiaman in the organized ranks, and the average of the whole country was very low, being only 7.7 militiamen to every thousand of population.

Wants National Reserve.

Forecasting a diminution in the functions of the present militia, the report makes a strong plea for the creation of an efficient national reserve of about 100,000 men, practically on the lines of the Swiss army, which would permit the retention of the services of the best of the citizen soldiery under federal control, without demanding of officers and men more time from their civilian employments than is now required for instruction in the best state militia organizations. This would be part of the regular army, constituting with the regular army and militia the first line of defense in case of war. It is asserted that under the law and constitution a citizen soldiery can only be provided along these lines.

night, but the conference Saturday cleared the way for an agreement.

Mayor Gaynor as Peacemaker.

Mayor Gaynor was largely instrumental in inducing the companies to name terms acceptable to the strikers. The agreement provides the men shall be taken back without discrimination, except for acts of violence. Each company will take up with its employees adjustment of wages and hours. Recognition of their union, the chief issue for which the strikers held out, was not granted.

Chauffeurs' Strike to Continue.

The agreement decision affects the strike of chauffeurs, cab drivers and drivers for the department stores, who at first quit work in sympathy with the express employees and later presented demands in their own behalf. The fight of the chauffeurs and cab drivers will continue until recognition of the union is won, it is announced.

Senator Clay was 57 years old and was serving his third term in the United States senate. He is survived by a widow, five sons and a daughter, besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clay of Cobb county.

Senator Clay was born Sept. 25, 1853, on a farm in Cobb county, Georgia, and received his primary and preparatory education in the country schools.
