

DROP DECIDING GAME OF SERIES

Islanders Crippled by Injuries, Fall Again Before Quincy, 2 to 1.

LAST ONE WITH THE VETS

Donahue's Error Was Responsible for Locals' Only Run, Which Came in the Ninth.

GAMES TOMORROW.

Decatur at Rock Island.
Waterloo at Danville.
Quincy at Dubuque.
Davenport at Peoria.

Playing with several men, who are eligible for the hospital list, the Islanders went down in defeat again before the Quincy Veterans, 2 to 1, yesterday afternoon and thereby lost the deciding game in the last series with the Veterans this year. But for F. Donahue's error in the ninth inning, Vyskocil, pitching for the visitors, would have scored a shutout, but as it was, the second baseman's miff of a high fly ball, resulted in a run. Throughout the game, chances to score were lost by the Islanders because of inability to hit the ball into safe territory. Cook pitched a steady game, which under ordinary circumstances would have gone for a victory.

The Islanders started out much the same as they did Sunday when Snyder threw wide to first on the first play. Slattery's failure to field Donahue's bunt put men on first and second. Kerwin hit a hot one to Goding at first and beat it out. W. Donahue hit a high fly to left and the wind carried it out of the reach of Bechtold. Kerwin scored from first on the play and Donahue went to second. Myers skied out to right, ending the run getting for the Veterans.

ONE IN SECOND.
Hill first man up in the second, clouted out a two sack drive to left and went to third on Clark's sacrifice. Vyskocil hit to center, scoring the first run. The next two men up were easy victims. Run number two came in the fifth stanza after two were down. Kerwin hit a hot one to Goding at first and beat it out. W. Donahue hit a high fly to left and the wind carried it out of the reach of Bechtold. Kerwin scored from first on the play and Donahue went to second. Myers skied out to right, ending the run getting for the Veterans.

COOK IS STARTER.
In the ninth, Cook hit to left for a base and the next two men up were out. Wooley hit a high one to second and the result was much the same as when Bill Donahue scored a run on his high hit. F. Donahue dropped it after he had his mitt on it and Cook scored from first. Wooley was caught in an attempt to steal second. The score:

HARRY SWACINA

Next spring when the Pittsburgh Pirates go south for the annual training trip, Swacina, who a few years ago wore an Islander uniform, will be one of the members of the party. His work at Mobile, both in the field and with the stick, has again attracted the attention of the Pittsburghers and he will be given another trial for the position. A few years ago, Harry was with the Pirates but he persisted in trying to run the aggregation and so had to be cut loose. He then came to Rock Island and then went to Mobile in the Southern league. Vincent Campbell, who played with Decatur when "Swats" was with the team, will be another candidate for the initial sack position and he and Harry will have a tussle to see who wins. Both are good players and good hitters and one of the pair will probably fill the weak spot in the Pirate lineup.

2. Passed ball—Jacobson. Time of game—1:30. Umpire—Bannon.

DAVENPORT DOWNS DANVILLE.

Danville, Aug. 28—Nelson had Danville eating out of his hand all the way, while the visitors bunched hits with errors in the fourth and seventh, taking the game, making two out of three. Score:

NOTES OF THE GAME

Goding had to fill the gap at first base after the first inning and he played a good game.

Jacobson was there with the willow wand again, cracking out two hits in three attempts.

Two fast double plays kept the Islanders back from the home plate. Vyskocil, Hill and Myers were the star performers.

Goding appeared a line drive off F. Donahue's bat in the ninth. He was barely able to reach it with his big catcher's mitt.

Kelly made a pretty stop of Kahl's hit in the fourth and recovered in time to retire the runner at first.

Bechtold is scarcely able to walk, but he digs after the high ones just the same.

BATTLE ARRAY FOR BIG GAME APPEARS

Accused of Stealing.
E. E. Chamberlin, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucken's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles, "It robs cuts, burns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal doesn't exist." Only 25c at all druggists.

100-Block Has Two Hard Games.
The 100-Block team has two hard games scheduled for the coming Sunday and Labor Day but because of their showing against the Arsenal team last Sunday when they won by a score of 7 to 1, their backers expect them to win at least one of the two games. Sunday they play the Illinois team in Moline. The Plow City aggregation has been taking most of its opponents into camp thus far this year and they expect to repeat on the locals. On the following day, Labor Day, the 100-Block team plays the Smokehouse team of Davenport. This ought to be a hard contest for the Davenporters have an excellent record. With Pitcher Larson going right, however, the local boys believe they have an equal show of winning. Last Sunday, Larson whiffed 12 of the opposing players.

CALLED THIEF, SILK SAYS HE ENJOYS IT

SILK O'LOUGHLIN.
Silk O'Loughlin, veteran American League umpire, has been called a robber, a thief and a crook by baseball audiences for fifteen years, and he likes it.
"If the fans quit getting after me," he says, "I'd know I had become a home umpire. There's nothing an umpire hates worse than to be called a home."

BILL COUGHLIN, OLD TIGER STAR, FIRST MANAGER TO CINCH PENNANT THIS YEAR

Bill Coughlin, former Detroit third baseman, is about the first manager in the country to be assured of a pennant. His Reading Tri-state league club has the flag cinched.
