DAVENPORT

Confesses to Robbery.—Lloyd Longley has been placed under arrest by the police, accused of having slugged and robbed Hans Hannecke, the saloon man at 1616 West Fourth street, last Saturday night. He confessed to the robbery yesterday.

Iowa City Crook Caught.—Charged with the theft of a large quantity of clothing and $40 in cash, Henry Betecama was placed under arrest Tuesday evening by Detective Quinn at the corner of Third and Rock Island streets. After lying in jail all night pending word from Iowa City, he was taken there yesterday morning by an official.

Evidence Is Stolen.—While the federal court was waiting for a certain case to open in which three boxes of cigars had been secured as exhibits, the cigars were stolen from the court room in the postoffice. When a thief will steal from the federal court, the question naturally arises as to when and where they would not steal.

To Get a Reception.—Eugene B. Ely, son of N. D. Ely, and one of the most daring of the present day aviators, is to be given a reception when he arrives here for the aviation meet Saturday and Sunday on Suburban island. Ely is to be met at the train by a band and delegation of Davenporters and is to be given a big reception while here.

Sues for Divorce.—Alleging excessive cruelty on the part of her husband, Mrs. Etta King has started suit in the district court against Edmond King. The petition was filed yesterday by Attorneys Beatty & Beatty. The plaintiff claims they were married in Rock Island Dec. 26, 1900, and lived together until Aug. 15, 1911. Permanent alimony in the sum of $10 per week is asked.

Obituary Record.—Mrs. Anna Gimar, nee Carstens, passed away at her home, 1610 West Third street, yesterday morning at 9:25 o'clock, after an illness of two months' duration, at the age of 49 years. She was born Dec. 23, 1861, in Davenport, and had spent her entire life in this city. She was married April 2, 1889, to Abraham O. Gimar, who survives her. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, Mrs. T. A. Atkinson and Archie Gimar of Davenport, two grandchildren, and three brothers, P. J. Carstens of Davenport, H. Carstens of Chicago

SIMPLE FROCK FOR HOME EVENINGS

Innumerable are the mousselines with colored borderings which can be run up into a straight little skirt, a becomingly draped kimono bodice and a half-low neck, which may be worn with or without a tulle tucker.

Any of the orchid shades make a pretty bordering for a white mousseline or marquisette frock and if one prefers to purchase the plain materials, the touch of color may be given by trimming the underdress or slip of taffeta or china silk with bands of colored satin.

MOLINE

Bank Increases Stock.—At a meeting of directors, held late Tuesday afternoon, the capital stock of the Moline Trust and Savings bank was increased from $200,000 to $225,000. The additional $25,000 in capitalization will all be in new stock.

Elks Open Season.—The Moline lodge of Elks will open the winter season this evening with a big social session. At the second meeting of the month, a large class of candidates will be initiated.

Wood Gets Coal Contract.—Beder Wood Tuesday evening was awarded the contract by the library board to furnish coal for the Carnegie building and the old library building on Library avenue and Fifteenth street. The amount is not made public, but he bid in competition with three other dealers.

Name of School Is "McKinley."—At the regular meeting of the school board Tuesday evening, the board named the new building in the east end of the city the McKinley building after the martyred president. Another matter of importance which came before the board for action was the awarding of the $75,000 school bonds issued so that the new building could be erected. The bonds were awarded to the N. W. Halsey company of Chicago.

Becomes a Teacher.—East Moline board of education Tuesday evening elected Miss Hedwig E. Roemer of this city to the position of high school teacher. She will act as assistant to Principal Hoffman. Her salary was fixed at $65 per month.

Will Not Close Schools.—Teachers in Moline public schools are to be allowed the privilege of attending the convention of the Military Tract Teachers' association in Dixon, Oct. 26 to 28, though it is not thought the board of education will allow a school holiday on those dates.

Obituary Record.—Mrs. Anna A. Conwell died Tuesday afternoon at 4:45 at the family home, 702 Fifth avenue. She is survived by her husband, M. T. Conwell, three sons, James, Lawrence and Linus, and a daughter, Anna. Deceased was a native of Toronto, Ontario, her birth having occurred Jan. 28, 1855. 'Time's Flight Turned Backward' SAGE AND SULPHUR Made Her Look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl, I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the envy of my schoolmates, and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers. As I grew older, my hair commenced to come out, just a little at first, but gradually more and more, and then began to turn gray. I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy to try a bottle. My hair was quite thin and gray when I began using Sage and Sulphur, and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found that it was fast coming back to its natural condition, being thicker, darker and more glossy than it had been for a long time. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is now as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I commenced using Sage and Sulphur, and my hair is still in splendid condition.

Sworn to before me this 1st day of July, 1911.

Notary Public.
