

ABINGDON FIVE IS DEFEATED HERE

Local High School Basketball Team Wins by Score of 38 to 28.

GAME IS A FAST ONE

Visiting Quintet Is Outplayed—Forward Neussili Is Star of the Contest.

In the fastest game played on the school floor thus far this season, the local high school five defeated the speedy Abingdon quintet last evening, 38 to 28. The high boys showed good fighting spirit and kept the visitors on the run all the time. From start to finish the game was fiercely fought and not until the last few minutes of play was there a difference of more than five points in the score. Both teams fouled frequently but the Abingdon boys were the worst offenders, the local five scoring 11 of their points on foul throws.

Neussili, the high school's brilliant forward, was easily the star of the game. He scored four field baskets and 10 foul throws, which netted 15 of the total 38 points registered by his team. Captain Behnemann and Reeves both played splendid games, getting nine and ten points respectively. Pratt and McNeil played their first high school games and despite their lack of experience, showed up well. McNeil held his man down to two baskets while Pratt's opponent managed to roll in only three field goals. For the visitors Right Forward Case played the best game, registering half of the points scored by the Abingdon boys. Like Neussili, he threw fouls with great regularity. The lineup of the teams and summary follows:

ACTOR TY IS BEAU BRUMMEL OF GAME

TY COBB

Ty Cobb, actor, is a very nobby person. The Tiger star has established quite a reputation by the immaculateness of his attire since he took to the road as star in "The College Widow." If he has earned the title of the Beau Brummel of baseball, the picture shows why.

ACCUSED PASTOR SAYS HE STANDS ON RECORD

Greenville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—"As to my innocence or guilt, my friends will have to judge for themselves from my past record," said Rev. Dr. W. D. McFarland yesterday before the arrival of an officer who was to take him to Pittsburgh to answer a coroner's charge that he was responsible for the death of his former secretary, Elsie Dodds Coe. "I am expecting an officer to reach here from Pittsburgh," he continued. "I will tell my story to the grand jury. So far as I know, Miss Coe was a good girl. She was like a child to me. I loved her as my own daughter." McFarland declined to say whether he had been in Pittsburgh this month, declaring it was "nobody's business but my own." McFarland admitted to know Rollin McConell, said to have been mentioned in Miss Coe's dying statement as having been responsible for her condition. McFarland is held in jail here. The confinement seems to have affected him considerably, according to the jailer, who says the minister is nervous and sleeps little. Dr. McFarland's wife is in a hotel here and probably will accompany him to Pittsburgh.

CUBS CLIMB OFF THE BOTTOM RUNG

That Is They Pull Another Team Down to Same Level in Bowling Race.

WIN TWO OUT OF THREE

Stockleaders With Old Lineup Drubbed Twice—Bachelors Defeat the Plow City.

SEMI-PRO LEAGUE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Plow City	20	21	.588
Bachelors	25	26	.490
Cubs	24	26	.480
Stock Leaders	24	26	.480

By defeating the Stock Leaders in two out of three games last night, the Cubs managed to bring a team down to the same standing as theirs, and for the first time since the Semi-Pro Bowling league was organized, they are better than a bottom rung team. The Cubs have won 13 out of the last 15 games that they have rolled, a record that is just as enviable as that which they made at the first of the season was poor. The "Kitty" and Joseph Wich won the last game for the Stock Leaders.

The colors of the Plow City team were hauled down again last night, the Bachelors winning two out of three. Gradually the four teams are bunching together in the league race and the difference between top and bottom is but five and a half games. The scores:

BOWLING NOTES.
The Cubs are just old enough to climb that tree without danger of slipping now.
And note that they have scared one team out of its many branches down onto the ground with them.
It's the first opportunity to make the percentage column look like something other than a Cub cellar. And then, too, Clemann's team has set a record with 13 victories in 15 games.
Did you know that Wilson, the latest Cub, topped high total and single game scores last night?
Frank Wich, as captain, was the only change in the Stock Leaders last night. He set the pace and he set it high.
Former Captain "Skip" Blauer showed that the cares of leading a team no longer weighed him down by rolling 510, better than he has rolled in a con's age.
From the dope at the alleys last night, Winkler and Woltman will fill the gaps in the Stock Leaders team next week. Raines and Blauer drop out, Raines going to the Bachelors and Blauer to the coaching line.
Cline was a most welcome recruit to the Plow City team. That is, he was most welcome to the Bachelors, for he showed little class. His second game cost him two bits.
The Plow City team is meeting with a reversal in form and soon somebody else will be waving down to the team on the bottom. Some race.
H. Potter, brother of the famous E. Potter of the Bachelors, has been signed up. He rolled two games last night and averaged a little more than the usual new recruit.
Hildebrandt must have been a little too anxious last night. He is not a phenomenal bowler, but he is usually there with the steady game. Wonder who was trying to kid him.
Haven't seen Bud Meenan's name cropping into the Cub lineup lately. It is rumored that he is breaking into society and has no time for athletics now.
Four of the Stock Leaders had games that were over 200, including "Kitty," who behaved nicely in the last game.
