Antiquity of Gloves.

How early did mankind think of the convenience of the fingerless glove? Little was said of gloves in aucient times, but in most cases it is obvious that they had fingers. Those worn by the secretary of the younger Pliny. used when he visited Vesuvius, so that he might keep on jotting down notes in spite of the cold, must have been fingered, no less than those of the glutton in Anthenaeus, who wore gloves at table so that he might handle the ment while hot and get in advance of his bare handed fellow diners. Not Right at All.

"Have you anything to say before sentence is pronounced against you?" asked the judge. "The only thing I'm objecting to," answered the convicted barglar, "Is bein' identified by a man that kept his head under the bedclothes the whole time. That's not right at all."

Worse Still. Bangs-How did old Heavysole treat you when you asked him for his daughter? Acted like a pirate, didn't he? Butts-Pirate! He acted like a free booter!-Judge.
