

STEWARDS MEET AT BIG BANQUET

About 30 men sat down to an elaborate banquet at the Kimball hotel, Davenport, last night, the occasion being the regular meeting of the Tri-City Stewards' association, at which the international officers were the guests of honor. It had been expected that Dr. Harvey Wiley would be present to give an address, but a change in his plans prevented this. Various officers of the organization gave talks, emphasizing the work which is being accomplished in the training and education of stewards. A school has been founded at Muncie, Ind., for this purpose and there are taught the practical problems which the steward must face from day to day. Great stress was laid upon the operation of the kitchen on an economic basis. It was brought out that the move of the men towards self-betterment was a direct benefit to their employers as well, and a plea was made for the cooperation and harmony of both.
