

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Hog Cholera Prevalent.—The dreaded hog cholera has visited the farm of Bruce T. Seaman. He stated yesterday that out of a herd of 80 hogs, he had already lost 40. They are dying by the hour and Mr. Seaman states he has stopped counting the dead. Mr. Seaman is philosophic over his loss. Like the western Iowa farmer he sees considerable satisfaction in having an epidemic in his barn and not in his house. He states this is the first time in 20 years that his hogs have been affected with cholera.

Youthful Vagrant.—A little four-year-old, barefooted boy, who lisped the name of Frank Young, and whose parents reside in the 400 block on West Second street, was picked up by the police at a late hour Wednesday night soundly sleeping on a park bench at Lafayette square. The little fellow was taken to the station but could not tell where he lived. Yesterday morning his brother, Tommy, eight years old, was seen by an officer in an attempt to board a moving street car on West Third street. The lads were taken to the juvenile home and the authorities are investigating the case.

Fractures Arm.—While cranking his automobile Wednesday afternoon at the intersection of Third and Brady streets, John A. Little, a contractor, suffered the fracture of his right arm when the engine backfired. He was taken to his home, 223 West Thirtieth street, in the city ambulance and attended by Dr. L. W. Little. This is the second time that Mr. Little's arm has been broken in this manner during the past eight months.

War on Autos.—Woe to the auto driver who has the habit of turning his machine loose, so to speak, as soon as he leaves the city paving and strikes the outer edge of the town. Residents on the outskirts of the city are complaining and have notified the police to arrest the guilty culprits. The residents state they will be on hand, an army of them, to prosecute. The strongest complaint comes from Northwest Davenport. The speed limit in the outer districts of the city, paving or no paving, is 15 miles an hour. In the downtown district it is 10 miles an hour and outside the corporate limits it is 20 miles an hour. Many drivers, according to the complaints made, evidently are impressed with the idea that as soon as they leave the paving, all speed regulations end. This is in error. A few arrests will convince them of this fact.

Lectures to Begin.—Lectures in Ethical hall will begin next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock and continue throughout the winter season. The first of the addresses will be given by Dr. Paul Radenhausen. Various chemical experiments will be displayed. Other lectures of the season will be given by Prof. J. H. Baermann, Miss Frieda Plath, Miss Alvinna Pohlmann, Mrs. Martin Silberstein will have charge of the musical program at all of the meetings.

In District Court.—An answer and cross bill was filed by Fred Holmes, defendant in a suit for divorce brought by his wife, Anna Holmes, yesterday by Attorney Waldo Becker. The defendant denies the allegations set forth in his wife's petition and accuses her of misconduct.

The will of Sarah A. Clark was filed for probate by Attorneys Lane & Waterman. Letters were issued to Charles W. Clark as executor of the will.

Joint Meeting.—At the suggestion of City Attorney Henry Vollmer the city council Wednesday at the committee of the whole meeting asked the mayor to call a joint meeting of all public bodies, such as the levee commission, park board, library board, board of supervisors, city council, etc., in Davenport and Scott county for the purpose of discussing topics of interest to the community at large. The meeting will be arranged in the near future and will probably be held in the city council chamber. The city attorney said there were many things which come before one of the public bodies in Davenport of interest to the others and a joint meeting would greatly benefit all concerned.

Races Postponed.—The automobile races of the Davenport Automobile club have been postponed from Sept. 21 till some time during the first half of October. It is believed that the October weather will be more favorable to outside events than September days. The officials of the club feel that the races will appeal to a large number of tri-city people as the entries will be practically entirely local. There will be no events against time. The entrants in the various events will race only against each other. This fact, the officers feel, will add greatly to the interest in the races, as it will develop some good rivalry. Stock equipment is to be used in all the races.

Hunting Licenses.—During the month of August 239 hunting licenses were issued by County Auditor Edward Collins. This is 25 less than were issued during the same month last year. During July 75 permits were issued against $9 the same month in 1912.

Licensed to Wed.—The following licenses to wed were issued yesterday by Clerk of District Court Henry J. McFarland: Ernest Otto and Elsie Thode, McCasland; Charles D. Mohr and Helen Hartkop, Davenport; Charles Twigg, Blue Grass, and Annie Thomas, Jamestown, Iowa. A marriage license was issued in Chicago

YOUNG WM. ZIEGLER GATHERS BEAUTIES

Estelle Richmond.

Young William Ziegler, 22-year-old basking powder king, who has an income of a million and a half a year, and doesn't know how to spend it, has decided to go into the show business and has been combing the country for pretty girls. "Adele," a musical comedy now running in New York, has Ziegler's backing. Estelle Richmond, a member of the show girl contingent in "Adele," has just been voted the chorus beauty of the season.

yesterday to Otto Lidke and Mrs. Anabel Gibson, both of Davenport.

Increase in Earnings.—The gross freight and passenger receipts of the Rock Island Southern railway company for August amounted to $36,564, an increase of $4,506 over the receipts during August, 1912. The road operates at a cost of about 50 per cent of the gross receipts.

Obituary Record.—While a physician was speeding toward the home, 514 Front street, in an effort to get there in time to save the woman's life, Mrs. Mattie Dudzinski, 59 years old, died yesterday within a few minutes after being taken ill. Heart failure was the cause. The aged woman complained of feeling ill about 4:20 o'clock yesterday morning. Although the family were unaware of the seriousness of her condition, a physician was notified. The doctor made a rush run for the home, but before his arrival the woman had succumbed. Mrs. Dudzinski was born Sept. 5, 1854, in Platteville, Wis. She resided there for many years and her husband came to Davenport. Since that time the couple have resided in this city. Surviving are the husband, Stephen Dudzinski, two sons, Frank and George Caskett, and two daughters, Mrs. Estella Hildes and Mrs. Mary Newell, besides two grandchildren, Leo Hildes and Dewey Newell. Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock today from the family home with interment in Oakdale cemetery.

Mary Purcell, the one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Purcell, died at 1:45 o'clock yesterday morning at the home, 427 East Seventh street, following a brief illness. The child was born in Carbondale, Pa., and is survived by the parents, one brother, Frank, and a sister, Helen. Funeral services were held at 8 o'clock yesterday from the home and the body taken to the receiving vault at Oakdale cemetery. Later the body will be sent to Carbondale for interment.

Elizabeth Wilson, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wilson of Kewanee, Ill., died at a local hospital yesterday morning after a long illness. The parents were visiting friends in Davenport. Before the family left their home the baby was very ill, but the parents wished to visit here, so the child was brought with them. The baby became so ill that it was necessary to remove her to a hospital and after a few days illness she died. The body was sent to Kewanee, Ill., yesterday afternoon. The parents are the only survivors.

Herman Evans, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans, died at 8 o'clock Wednesday night at the family home, 125 East Eleventh street, after a brief illness. Interment was made in Oakdale cemetery yesterday afternoon immediately following funeral services. The parents are the only survivors.

The death of William A. Marsh, Sr., one of Aledo's most respected citizens, occurred at his residence in Aledo, Monday morning, Sept. 1, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Marsh was born in New York city Sept. 12, 1833, and has been a resident of Mercer county for many years.

Mr. Marsh was a member of the National Conchological society and was a specialist of national reputation and authority, and had one of the finest collections in the United States in the lines of work he has made his specialty—the helices and unionidae.

He had also the finest private collection of geological, mineralogical, botanical and conchological specimens in the state.

A few years ago he divided this collection and presented a part known as the "Marsh Collection," to the Columbian club of Aledo, which last year gave it to William and Vashli college, where it will ever be cherished as a memorial of this most generous and scientific citizen of Mercer county.

Funeral services were held in the First Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Elder F. J. Harris. Burial was in the Aledo cemetery.
