SKIDDING AUTO DROPS 25 FEET FROM A BRIDGE

Eight Rock Island Tourists Narrowly Escape Death Near Batavia.

MACHINE A TOTAL WRECK

Plunges Through Space Landing in Creek—Occupants Escape Serious Injury.

Eight Rock Island people, traveling in an automobile, narrowly escaped death yesterday morning when the machine skidded on a narrow bridge near Batavia, jumping down an embankment a distance of 25 feet and landing in a creek.

Those in the machine were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McInnis, 1502 Twenty-fifth street, and three children, Mabel, aged 10, Edna, aged 13, and Earl, aged 2; also Mrs. L. S. Rasmussen, a sister of Mrs. McInnis, together with two children, Marie, aged 8, and Grace, aged 6 months.

LEFT THURSDAY. The Rock Island tourists left for Ottumwa Thursday morning, but owing to heavy rains were detained at Winfield. Yesterday morning just outside Batavia, the machine started across a bridge.

That the city will get busy at once and put in the public improvements this fall which were voted at the special bond election yesterday is the promise of the city commission.

Mayor H. M. Schriver is especially anxious that the work be undertaken. The new fire station, the police alarm system, the elevated tank, and new water mains, are all seriously needed.

Mr. Burton was born in Cumberland, Md., in 1845, and came to this city with his parents when he was just a small child, and resided in this city ever since that time.

He is survived by his wife, and two brothers and two sisters: Albert Burton of this city and Isaac Burton of Lewistown, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Toney and Mrs. Josephine Murdoch of Jackson, Mich. Mr. Burton was a member of Camp 369, M. W. A. The funeral will be held from the late home at 2:30 Monday afternoon and burial will be in Chipplanoek cemetery.

Friends in the city have received word of the death of Allen Cameron, an engineer for the Rock Island, at his home in Joliet Thursday.

The funeral of the late Gerhart Staassen was held yesterday afternoon from the home at 2:30 and from the German Lutheran church. The carpenters' union and Court of Honor were in attendance in a body.

The funeral of Mrs. Ralph Iglehar was held at the late home at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial at Chipplanoek.

Bemidji, Minn.—Miss Aileen Kuschner, aged 18, returned after a visit at Sauk Center and learned she was heirless to $50,000.

Colorado Springs—Statistics showing that mortality from cancer has increased from 67.9 per 100,000 population for the average of the five years ending with 1905 to 74.3 in 1911 were cited by Dr. F. L. Hoffman of New York in an address before the American Public Health association.

FAMOUS BARITONE ON A 400-MILE CANOE TRIP

A broadshouldered man with the build of a college gridiron hero, accompanied by an athletic young woman—the kind that does not scream "Merciful Heavens" when a mouse trips across the dining room floor—both of them with sleeves rolled up revealing muscular arms tanned to the color of walnut stain, strode into the New Harper lobby yesterday afternoon, and stepping up to the desk asked the clerk for a room.

The ever-watchful guardian of the hostelry critically inspected the rough looking attire of the couple, gazed at a small bundle which comprised their luggage and then cogitated.

Observing the general air of suspicion which seemed to surround the clerk, the man ventured, "We are married and we have not cracked the safe at the Libertyville bank. We are not mendicants, neither are we stranded sheep people. To the contrary, we are highly respected citizens of Madison, Wis. and have the necessary government engraved certificates to safeguard you against loss.

Had the clerk been a follower of the society page in lieu of the sporting news and the police court columns he would have immediately recalled that a Mr. A. H. Bassett of Madison, Wis. was a famous baritone singer, and also that he gave a recital for the Chamberlaine club of Davenport a few months ago.

He would also have recalled that the selfsame Bassett entertained a select audience at Moline some years ago, the occasion being a musicale given by the Moline Woman's club.

Mr. Bassett is known the country over and every winter makes an extended concert tour, embracing the leading cities of the United States. He has a vocal studio at Madison, at which municipality he and his wife are members of the "Four Hundred."

Mr. and Mrs. Bassett are making a 400-mile water voyage in a canoe. They left Madison on September 2, launching their frail craft on Lake Monona, thence proceeding into Lake Kewonsa, thence on the Yahara river to Rock river.

They abandoned the canoe at the Milan lock of the Hennepin canal yesterday afternoon and boarded a street car for Rock Island to spend the night. This morning they paddled into the Mississippi and proceeded on their journey, which will ultimately land them at St. Louis. There they will board a train and ship the canoe back to Madison.

"Is this a honeymoon trip," queried an Argus reporter in conversation with the devotees of the simple life at the New Harper last night.

"No, it is our honeymoon anniversary jaunt," chorused Mr. and Mrs. Bassett. "You see," explained Mr. Bassett, "we were married one year ago, and made a similar canoe trip for our honeymoon. We have decided to take this outing every year at this particular time. The long concert grid of the winter is wearing, and I find that the best way to recuperate is to get out, in the fresh air and get close to nature."

Both of the voyagers are so tanned that their complexions are almost of a mahogany tint. Both of them paddle the canoe, and thus far they have averaged four miles an hour. They carry with them a tent, just what clothing is necessary, two days provisions, and some cooking paraphernalia. They "row-row" a pair of slugs, two "slickers" being a part of the equipment.

As the interview was about to close, Mrs. Bassett nudged her husband, who said, "Oh yes, and where are the movies here? We are both 'film bugs' and never miss a chance to take them in when we stop in a town. Of course when we camp out on the river bank, we have to absorb the 'scenery'." The requisite information being tendered, a good bye was spoken. "And don't forget to send us a paper," cried Mrs. Bassett as the reporter was making his retreat, thus proving the theory that but very few women are averse to newspaper publicity of a certain kind.

SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 22d Chapter—1st to 7th verses. A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

The rich and poor meet together: the Lord is the maker of them all. A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life. Thorns and snares are in the way of the forward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.
