

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl and have been going with a boy for a year and a few months and now we are mad. Can you tell me something to do to gain his love again?

Next time you see him you might smile at him pleasantly. That will show him you are willing to make up. Don't let him think you are too anxious, though.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it proper for two boys to fight about one girl? We are boys about twenty years old.

(2) How long should a man be engaged before he gets married?

(3) I had a girl and I sent her a bad valentine just for fun; now she is mad about it. How can I cheer her up again?

(4) What is good for stubbornness? I have a girl that is very stubborn.

(5) Is it proper for a boy to smoke when he takes his girl out?

(2) What will make the hair stay curly?
(3) Is there anything that will remove ink stains on a white linen table cover?

Apply the following mixture every day, rubbing it well into the scalp: 2 oz. alcohol, 2 oz. witch hazel, 14 gr. resorcin.

Hair Curling Lotion 120 gr. potassium carbonate, 1 fl. dr. ammonia water, 12 fl. dr. alcohol, rosewater enough to make 16 fluid ounces.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Do you think a young man can love a young lady when he isn't considerate of her? Have been engaged to him a year and he doesn't average calling once a week, nor does he make regular engagements.

Usually, when a young man loves a girl he can't see too much of her. He wants to be with her every possible chance he can get.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Can you tell me something I can do for my hair? My hair is blonde, but is excessively oily.

The year books issued by the club are gotten up in a very attractive style. The 48 pages are bound in olive green and the name of the club and date in raised gold-letting.

The credit for the excellent appearance of the pamphlet is due to the work of the printing committee composed of Mrs. F. O. VanGelder, Mrs. D. W. Dahlsten, and Miss Clara Hampton with the cooperation of the executive committee.

The civic department program of the club has been announced as follows for the season's meetings: October 10—"City Beautiful," Mrs. L. Simon and Mrs. C. E. Sharpe.
