

DAZIE IS DEAD IN 34th YEAR

Dazie, a black mare driven by Dr. Mark H. Patten many years over the streets of Rock Island, is dead. Dazie passed away Sept. 6 on the farm of Mrs. William Cannam, near Milan, at the age of 34 years. A year ago Dr. Patten gave Dazie into the keeping of Mrs. Cannam, presenting her with phaeton and harness, with the understanding that Dazie would be treated well in her declining years. Dazie was buried on the Cannam farm. She was sired by Joe Stouer at Lincoln, Ill., and was purchased by Dr. Patten 28 years ago. Mapy a man who has attained prominence has either ridden on her back or behind her. Chief among them are Major Generals John A. Logan and John A. McClellan, John McKuta, J. N. Reese, Jim Martin McCartney, Governors Richard Oglesby, Joseph E. Fifer, John R. Tanner, John M. Hamilton and Richard Yates. Some later aspirants for the governorship of the state, namely, Caldwell, Alschuler and Murphy, and many of the older officers of the Illinois National Guard remember Dazie, for in the years of 1885, 1886 and 1887 Dr. Patten was on the military tariff of General J. N. Reese.

AT THE ILLINOIS.

Sunday's offering at the Illinois will be "The Rosary," the play by Edward E. Rose, which has won tremendous success. "The Rosary" takes one into the heart of a typical American family. It shows the peace and happiness there, then suddenly unmasks the cancer spot—lack of faith in the husband. Slowly, little by little, is seen this devastating power of atheism; how it saps the strength and melts the will, so that when doubt and suspicion creep in they find the soil fertile for their direct descendants, hatred and revenge, and the home goes down to ruin with a crash. Then comes the spiritual power of a great man, a priest, whose life is given to mankind. Slowly by sheer faith he analyzes the situation and leads the two forth, the husband and wife whom he loves out of the darkness of their despair to happiness and peace.

AT THE EMPIRE.

An unusually attractive variety bill is on view at the Empire the last half of the week. Not an acrobat, a juggler or a sketch—yet a bill some portion of which will appeal to you. While the Road to John, appearing in colonial pastimes, is not in the featured position, it is by far the classiest bit on the program. There are two women and a man, all musical artists of the first class. They dress in the costumes of colonial days, adding a touch of distinction and impressiveness to their act. Several different instruments are played but you will probably like best the number wherein the violin, French horn and piano are blended with the voice of the lady at the latter instrument. Phil Adams and six girls cavort in a scene in a telephone exchange that allows opportunity for much good dialogue and some neat singing and dancing numbers. The Halkings are comedy electric shadowgraphists, who keep
