

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two chumps of 16 years. There are two boys one year our senior with whom we are deeply in love, but they lately seem to pay no attention whatever to us. They seem to be very nice boys.

- (1) If you were us, would you drop them entirely or make up if they apologize, as they have already done once?
(2) Are they going to be worn this winter?
(3) One of us had a red birthmark on her face. Is there anything that will remove it?
(4) What kind of hats are being worn this fall?
(5) I am going to get a new fall jacket and suit. What color would you advise?
(6) What causes pimples and blackheads? What will cure them?
(7) Should I accept a birthday present from a boy I have gone with for two months?

MUTT AND JEFF

- (1) Not at all. They cause one to walk more gracefully.
(2) Yes.
(3) I am sorry that I do not know of anything that will remove it.
(4) Velvet hats and hats trimmed with lace and ribbon are very much worn. The small bonnet-like hat with a chin strap will be very popular for girls.
(5) Dark blue, red or brown.
(6) Pimples and blackheads are caused mostly by uncleanness, poor digestion, bad blood. Eat plenty of fruit and vegetables, drink at least three pints of pure water daily and keep your bowels open with a dose of Epsom salts when needed. Bathe often with plenty of water and soap. Exercise outdoors. Use a good cold cream to clean the face at night. Prick pimples and blackheads with a sterilized needle, when soft, and press out gently, then anoint spot with peroxide. In a couple of months you will notice a decided improvement.
(7) Yes, if it does not place you under obligations to him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two little of 16.
(1) Do low heels make you look flat footed?

favors were in the same colors. The Misses Herlitka will entertain Thursday of this week at a bridge party in honor of Miss Streckfus.

Materials—Cold boiled ham (chopped), two cups; heavy cream, one-half cup; hot water, one-half cup; granulated gelatin, one tablespoonful; mixed mustard, one teaspoonful; paprika and cayenne.

- Directions—Chop the ham very fine and pound in a mortar. Dissolve the gelatin in a little cold water and then in the hot water and add to the prepared ham with the cream beaten stiff. Directions—Beat the given amount of cream stiff and add the remaining ingredients. Serve with the ham mousse.

ALLEGRETTA FRUIT CAKES. Materials—Pastry flour, one cup; boiling water, one cup; butter, four tablespoonfuls; eggs, four. Directions—Put the water and butter into a sauce pan over the fire and when actively boiling, add flour all at once, stirring rapidly all the time until the dough leaves the sides of the pan and forms a large ball. Cover and set to one side to cool. Now add one egg at a time, beating well each time. The dough should look fine, velvety and glossy. Dip by teaspoonfuls onto greased baking pans and bake in a moderately quick oven about 45 minutes, or until very light. Fill the space inside with sliced peaches, or any desired filling. A very small opening is required on the side of the puff for filling. Cover well with allegretta frosting.

ALLEGRETTA FROSTING. Material—Whites of eggs; powdered sugar; vanilla, one teaspoonful; lemon juice, one teaspoonful; unsweetened chocolate, three squares.

Directions—Break the whites of the eggs on a cold platter; beat well, lifting the egg beater high. When very frothy, commence adding the sugar, doing so, beating hard until it will stand alone. Add the lemon juice and beat until stiff and shiny, then the vanilla. Spread this on each puff and let stand until dry. Have the chocolate in the bowl over the tea kettle of hot water. When the icing is not soft on top of the puff, take your spatula and dip plenty of the chocolate on the broad blade and with a quick sweeping motion cover every bit of the icing with it. This will have to be repeated several times to cover all the icing. This is a delicious frosting or filling and can easily be done with a little practice. Any good cake recipe is nice baked in one sheet, iced, spread with chocolate and decorated with nuts; cut in squares.

The Argus Daily Pattern

Here a One-Sided Tunic Makes for Novelty.

Straight lined frocks are charmingly suited to either the decorative materials now modish or the plain fabrics. The oddly patterned crepes, silks and novelty stuffs need little trimming, none unless it be a collar and cuffs of plain material to offset the too decorative appearance or for contrast. The plain materials may be collared and cuffed most effectively with the bra-cades and figured silks.

Although we have draperies and overdraperies, the plain, straight skirt with its accompanying plain blouse is still popular and in good style. A well-cut one-piece dress is shown in 7999. One of the clinging silks in a large Oriental pattern, richly colored, would be appropriate for this model, as well as the plaid trimmed ratine in which it is here developed.

An afternoon frock after this design requires for size 36, 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material with 3/4 of a yard of contrasting silk. A half-tunic and a clever blouse arrangement make 7656 distinctive. The smart effect of a plain duvety in a soft dark purple relieved by touches of vividly colored embroidery may readily be perceived. Bits of bright green, cerise and gold make the embroidery striking. A figured silk girdle showing the same coloring as the embroidery adds further chic to the frock.

This dress may be copied in size 36 with 5 1/2 yards of 36 inch material and 3/4 of a yard of contrasting material. No. 7999—size 34 to 44. No. 7656—size 34 to 42. Each pattern 15 cents.

EX-KING MANUEL AND HIS BRIDE WILL OCCUPY THIS HOME

Ex-King Manuel's residence at Twickenham, Eng.

Ex-King Manuel of Portugal has announced that he and his bride will occupy a mansion at Twickenham, England, the coming winter. Princess Augusta Victoria left the hospital a few days ago, where she had been confined for several weeks.

King Manuel has an income from the Portuguese government which makes it possible for him to maintain a palatial residence. He has decided to furnish his home with all modern furniture. As a result of this decision all the furniture now in the house, including an old horse hair sofa which was once the property of Sir Walter Scott, will be sold at auction.
