

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What is love? (2) I am a girl 18 years old and think I am in love with a boy 20. When I am with him I am always criticizing what he says or does, but when I am away from him I only think of his good traits. Do you think this is love? (3) What do you think of girls who meet fellows on the street? Do you think I am too young to marry? (4) What do you think of a fellow who takes in vain the name of the Lord quite often? (5) What do fellows mean when they call girls chickens? (6) What do you think of a girl who tries to take another girl's fellow when the fellow loves the other girl?

A LITTLE COUNTRY GIRL

(1) It is difficult to describe love, my dear. As a rule, however, one loves when one is anxious to please the loved one, when you consider him above all others, when you are willing to do everything in your power to make him happy, always remembering, however, that what disgraces either of you will never make him happy in the long run. True love never considers self first, and is always happy in the company of the beloved and usually miserable when parted. (2) If you really love him you will not be too critical.

(3) I think they are not very modest or womanly. (4) You are legally old enough to marry. It depends upon your fitness, mentally and physically, whether you should marry now. (5) He falls in showing due reverence to his Creator. One cannot respect a man who swears; he cannot be a true gentleman.

(6) Some ill-bred fellows call young girls by that name. They think it sounds smart.

(7) I think very ill of her. A boy who will let such a girl lead him away has a lot of unhappiness cut out for him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What simple decorations could you suggest for a February wedding?

(2) Please give a menu for a wedding breakfast and dinner. I do not wish for anything, but a common, simple wedding in all ways.

(3) What would you suggest for a dress?

LYDIA.

(1) I presume you are talking about a home wedding. Flowers are very expensive in February, so rent potted plants from a florist. Make a little altar of ferns and palms where the ceremony will be performed, and where the couple stand hang from the ceiling a large white wedding bell, which can be made of white immortelles or of white tissue paper flowers.

(2) A menu for a home wedding breakfast would be:

Fruit Cocktail
Cold Sliced Chicken
Cold Sliced Tongue
Creamed Potato
Hot Biscuit
Olives
Jelly
Shrimp Salad
Salted Nuts
Wedding Cake
Coffee

(3) For a simple, inexpensive and very pretty dress you might try the new voile in white or the new tulle silk with pander effect in lace.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 22 years old. Seven years ago I met a friend and kept company for four years. He loved me dearly. I didn't know I loved him; thought him as a friend only at that time.

Now, Mrs. Thompson, would it be wrong to find his address and write to him, for he is the only man I love? Three years ago he went away to the city and just at that time I was away. That is how we separated without my knowing his address.

Do you think he cares for me if he didn't write to me for three years?

BROWN EYES

If he did not care to write to you I am afraid he was quite willing to drop you. He may be married now, or at least have found another girl he cares for. It would do no harm to write to him, as an old friend. However, if you do write, make up your mind not to be disappointed if your should not get an answer. He has known your address right along, hasn't he?

Games and contests were the evening diversion.

PHI DELTA PSI PARTY.

CHURCHES OPPOSE VOTING PLAN.

Rock Island, Feb. 10.—Editor The Argus: Inasmuch as the Young & McCombs department store has inaugurated an advertising plan in which a list of churches figure as possible beneficiaries, we the undersigned persons representing the churches indicated below feel the necessity of publishing to the community the fact that we have unitedly requested the above business firm to discontinue the use of the names of our churches in the advertisement referred to and we hereby also request the public to cease voting for our churches in such contest. This is the official attitude of the churches concerned. And we take this position because we do not consent to have our churches treated as charitable institutions.

M'NAMARA IS ENDORSED

Members Wish Him to Be Next Clerk—Committee to Congratulate

Major C. W. Hawes.

At its regular meeting last night, Independence camp No. 26, M. W. A., a camp of over two thousand members, by unanimous vote adopted resolutions endorsing the candidacy of James McNamara for head clerk of the society, and elected 90 delegates to the county camp. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, Advancing years and impaired health have led our esteemed head clerk, Major C. W. Hawes, to decline to be a candidate for reelection at the hands of the 1914 head camp; and

Whereas, Neighbor James McNamara, a member of this camp and at the present time assistant head clerk, has announced his candidacy for the above office; and

Whereas, We believe Neighbor McNamara to be fully qualified by long experience and natural talent to successfully perform the duties of the important office to which he aspires—a neighbor of unusual mental ability, business capacity and moral rectitude;

Resolved, That the delegates and their alternates, elected to represent Independence camp No. 26, M. W. A., in Rock Island county camp, to be held April 1, 1914, be and they are hereby instructed to employ all honorable means in accomplishing the endorsement and election of Neighbor James McNamara as head clerk of the Modern Woodmen of America; and, be it further

Resolved, That said delegation act as a unit in said Rock Island county camp in the furtherance of Neighbor McNamara's interests in these premises.

C. G. TAYLOR,
W. A. FREWERT,
A. D. SPERRY,
H. J. OLIMSTEDT,
W. A. LOVETT.

To Congratulate Hawes.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. W. A. Frewert, Rev. H. W. Reed and A. D. Sperry, was appointed, with instructions to draft resolutions to be presented at the next regular meeting of the camp, congratulating the present head clerk, Major C. W. Hawes, upon his long, honorable and successful administration of the affairs of the society. Major Hawes has been head clerk for more than 23 years, and, for reasons set forth in the above resolution, has decided to retire and will not be a candidate at the head camp at Toledo, Ohio, in June, 1914.

As the county now stands, there are 97 county camp delegates instructed for the administration and 10 county camp delegates instructed for the insurgents. A number of the smaller camps in the county have selected delegates and will send them to the county camp instructed. The administration holds the view that a majority of the uninstructed delegates will line up with its forces when the county camp convenes.
