

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married woman and am considered to be very nice looking. We have been married two years and have a fine baby.

When we were first married my husband was desperately in love with me, but now he does not seem to care for me. We live near his parents and he is with them lots of the time and seems to prefer his mother to me in every way.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am seventeen years of age, and do not know how to dance. Do you think I ought to learn?

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please print a recipe to clean white fur? A READER.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I dislike gray hair and I have used this colored it only in places, and now it is worse than ever.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Things Worth Knowing. Tarnished gold embroidery may be cleaned by dipping a brush in pulverized burnt alum, then brushing the embroidery thoroughly. Clean chair seats that have sagged may be tightened by washing in hot soap suds and leaning to dry in the open air. To clean hair brushes, put a tablespoonful of ammonia into a basin of tepid water and dip the brushes up and down in it until they are clean. Dry with the bristles down and they will be like new. Cold water, ammonia and soap will take out machine grease where other things would fail on account of making the colors run. The Table. Rice With Cheese—Steam one cup of rice, allowing one tablespoonful of salt; cover the bottom of a buttered pudding dish with rice, dot over with three-fourths tablespoonful of butter, sprinkle with thin shavings of mild cheese and a few grains of cayenne; repeat until the rice and one-fourth pound of cheese are used. Add the milk to half the depth of the contents of the dish, cover with buttered cracker crumbs and bake until the cheese melts. Planked Eggs—Finely chop cold cooked corned beef or corned tongue; there should be two-thirds cup. Add crumbs, moisten with cream and season with salt and pepper. Spread the mixture on a plank and make nests and border of duchess potatoes, using rose tulle. Put a buttered or poached egg in each nest and put in the oven to brown potato. Garnish with tomatoes cut in halves and broiled, and parsley. Eggs may be sprinkled with buttered cracker crumbs just before sending to oven if desired. Russian Salad—Mix one cup each of cold cooked carrot cubes and potato cubes, one cup of cold cooked beans, and marinate with French dressing. Arrange on lettuce leaves in four sections and cover each section with mayonnaise dressing. Garnish two sections with small pieces of smoked salmon, one section with eggs and one section with the yolks of hard boiled eggs forced through a strainer. Put small sprigs of parsley or shrimps in the lines dividing sections. Cream of Cauliflower Soup—Four cups of hot white stock, one cauliflower, one-quarter cup of butter, one slice of onion, one stalk of celery, one-half bay leaf, one-quarter cup of flour, two cups of milk, salt, pepper. Soak the cauliflower, head down, one hour in cold water to cover; cook in boiling salted water twenty minutes. Reserve one-half flowerets and rub the remaining cauliflower through the sieve. Cook the onion, celery and bay leaf in butter five minutes. Remove the bay leaf, then add the flour and stir into hot stock; add the cauliflower and the milk. Season with salt and pepper; then strain, add the flowerets and reheat. Devilled Oysters—One pint of oysters, one-quarter cup of butter, one of milk, yolk of one egg, one-half teaspoonful of finely chopped parsley, one-half teaspoonful of salt, few grains of cayenne, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, buttered cracker crumbs. Clean, drain and slightly chop the oyster. Make a sauce of the butter, flour and milk; add the egg yolk, seasonings and oysters. Arrange buttered scallop shells in a dripping pan, half fill with the mixture, cover with buttered crumbs, and bake twelve to fifteen minutes in a hot oven. Deep water shells may be used in place of the scallop shells.

The Argus Daily Pattern

Simple but distinctive is the One-Piece Blouse of Brocade. Whereas skirts just now are trimmed quite considerably, blouses depend for effect upon cleverness of cut and simplicity of lines. Many are cut in one piece, and this renders the figured materials, brocades, silks etc., still more attractive, as the pattern is not disturbed. For afternoon affairs these figured blouses with skirts repeating the predominating shade are most practical as well as pleasing. Several blouses may be worn with the same skirt, each combination giving the appearance of a new frock. No. 8109 is an attractive example of brocade combined with a taffetas skirt; there is a small self figure in the taffetas, but this does not clash with the figure of the blouse. The skirt ($164) is a per-top with the

D. D. D. in Hospitals; Standard Skin Remedy. How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands? That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema. The supervising nurse of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institution on application) writes regarding a patient: "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away, swollen nose and lips had become distorted. Since the use of D. D. D. her nose and face have assumed their natural expression. How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid? Dr. Geo. T. Richardson frankly writes: "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent. To do the work D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see! And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled. All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap. They are authorized by the D. D. D. Laboratories to refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.—(Adv.)"
