

NO UNION WHISKY MADE IN COUNTRY

So Declares John Cunneen in Address at Dry Meeting at the Rink.

APPEALS TO LABOR VOTE

George H. Wilson Pictures the Saloon
as Enemy of the Laboring Classes.

About 500 people, nearly half of them women, assembled at the rink last evening to hear John Cunneen, union man from Chicago and George H. Wilson, state representative, talk. Both speakers were forceful and interesting talkers, and the liquor interests were flayed from all angles.

"Why should a union man take sides with the saloon when every drop of liquor that goes over the bar is made by non-union labor?" asked Cunneen. "There is not a drop of union made whisky in the whole country, and even the label that goes around the bottle is printed by 'scab' labor. The average wage paid to brewery employees as a whole is $9.61 a week and yet the labor unions line up with the liquor interests, who take more out of the pockets of the laboring people in one year than any king or emperor in Europe."

"As the consumption of alcohol in-

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush
Kidneys if Bladder Bothers
You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease. (Adv.)

creases, the wages of the laboring man decrease. Statistics show that the average wage of labor in this country is far higher than in England, Germany or France, in the order named. The consumption of alcohol per capita in this country is only 2.7 gallons, in England 3.42, in Germany 4.19 and in France it is 9.69. In the countries where the consumption of alcohol per capita is greater more female labor is employed.

"Enemies of the Roman Catholic church have attempted to defame her by picturing her as the mother of the saloon. When the enemies of the Catholic church link 'Rum and Romanism' the 'wet' Catholic flies into a rage. He denounces them as slanderers and calumniators. There is positive proof that the 'wet' Catholic deep down in his heart loathes the liquor traffic. He knows well that it is a disgrace for the church to be linked with this damnable institution. The 'dry' Catholic is the only Catholic who stands between his church and her enemies who brand the church the ally of the saloon and the liquor traffic."

"There should be no 'wet' Catholics. There should be no Catholic to join with the blackest enemies of the church in efforts to defame her and cover her with ignominy by getting people to believe that the Catholic church goes hand in hand with the liquor traffic."

"No Argument," Says Wilson.

George H. Wilson, state representative, declared the liquor interests had no arguments whatever in their favor that would hold water, either moral or economic. "The liquor interests admit," he said, "that their business is a bad one, but attempt to get around that by claiming that it is a necessary evil. Back in October, 1911, when the high license issue was before the people of Rock Island, the liquor interests themselves ran advertisements in the papers here to the effect that more drunkenness would prevail with a higher saloon license. You can take the words out of their own mouths."

"The wet element is using the old time adage to their advantage. 'If we don't hang together, we'll hang separately.' For that reason they hang together and hang hard. It is not a moral question with them, but a matter of dollars and cents. If more good people would only get together and fight as hard as they do, we could easily drive the saloonkeeper out of existence with ease."

"The liquor interests are making a sullen and dogged fight with what few weak arguments they have, one of them being to use the time worn saying that 'prohibition does not prohibit.' We have no statute law that prohibits. There is a law against murder, but does it prohibit? Are not murders committed every day throughout the country. Should we repeal this law because it does not prohibit? The average consumption of intoxicating liquors in prohibition territory is 1.25 gallons per capita while in the U. S. at large it is 17.25 gallons per capita. The revenue for liquor in wet North Carolina in 1908 was over $748,000, while the revenue for liquor in dry North Carolina in 1911 was less than $5,000. Every saloon in Chicago must sell over $20,000 worth of liquor each year to exist, and the average saloon in Rock Island must sell over $5,500 worth a year.

"Why should we risk our young manhood because the taxes will be increased 30 cents a year per $1,000 or even $1 a year, because of the loss of license money through these dangers, out institutions? The environment of the American youth is insecure and unsafe at the present time and it is the duty of both the old and new voters to do their duty on election day."

AMERICAN GIRL FAVORITE OF QUEEN

Hon. Mrs. John Ward.

This is the most recent portrait of Hon. Mrs. John Ward, the only daughter of the late Whitelaw Reid, formerly American ambassador in London. She was married June 23, 1908, to Hon. John Ward, the eldest of Lord Dudley's four brothers. She is a great favorite of Queen Mary of England.

Washington—Another revival of the senate lobby investigation was ordered. Clarence W. do Knight, a Washington lawyer, was summoned by order of Chairman Overman to appear Thursday and testify concerning reports of activity as to army and navy pay bills and contracts.

OFFERS CLAIM TO ZEIGLER ESTATE

Davenport Girl, Adopted With Brother, Sues for Share of $15,000,000.

New York, March 11.—Testimony on which Miss Florence Louise Brandt, a kindergarten teacher of Davenport, Iowa, and sister of William Zeigler, Jr., relies to recover half the $15,000,000 estate left by the late William Zeigler, the baking powder manufacturer, has been received here from Chicago, where it was taken by a commission under an order of the supreme court.

Patton & Patton, Miss Brandt's attorneys, who appeared before Commissioner Hugh O'Neill in Chicago when the witnesses were examined there, believe that the testimony proves their contention that William Zeigler repeatedly promised to make Miss Brandt a joint heir with her brother, William Conrad Brandt, who changed his name to William Zeigler, Jr., after he had been adopted.

The plaintiff's attorneys also are satisfied with the testimony as supporting their contention that Miss Brandt's rights were not protected when she consented to have her adoption by her uncle abrogated. The testimony shows that she consented as the result of continued pleading by her father, George W. Brandt, who died Dec. 17 last, less than two weeks before he was to have appeared before Commissioner O'Neill to testify in her behalf.

Her mother, Mrs. Anna Huttig Brandt, who had been divorced from her father shortly before she and her brother William were adopted by the baking powder manufacturer, did not consent to the abrogation of the adoption, and this is one of the grounds on which Miss Brandt claims she is entitled to half the estate which went to her brother under the Zeigler will.

The witnesses examined in Chicago were the late William Zeigler's two half sisters, Emma C. and Clara L. Brandt, both of Davenport, Iowa, and Dr. Vincent J. Price, whose baking powder recipes made Mr. Zeigler rich. The testimony of the two sisters especially reveals many interesting side lights on the life of Mr. Zeigler.

Emma C. Brandt testified that she heard Mr. Zeigler say on a number of occasions that he was going to make the children his heirs.

Dr. Price, who is now 81 years old, testified that for about 10 years after 1890 he lunched with Mr. Zeigler frequently and on one occasion, when he was telling about the money he was making, Dr. Price said, "Why haven't you any heirs? What are you going to do with all your money?"

"Mr. Zeigler replied that he had selected a couple of youngsters whom he was going to make his heirs. Then I was told that these were Mr. Brandt's children. Mr. Zeigler told me he was very fond of the young lady, Florence, but I never heard him speak of the young man at all. He told me he was going to adopt them both and make them his heirs."

STATE MEETINGS HERE DISCUSSED

Arrangements Made for Humane Society Convention
Which Comes May 7.

Sessions of the Illinois Humane society which meets in Rock Island May 7 will be held in the Y. M. C. A. There will be sessions there both morning and afternoon and some sort of entertainment in the evening.

These arrangements were reported at the regular meeting of the Rock Island County Humane society at the Association house yesterday by the committee which was named recently to make plans for the state meeting.

Speakers from all over the state will read papers dealing with their particular problems. The Ladies' auxiliary plans having a mass meeting for the children of the seventh and eighth grades, who belong to the Bands of Mercy. Delegates will speak to them, and there will also be some special feature to interest them. The delegates, with members, will have dinner together at the Y. M. C. A. In the evening there will be a program of a more popular kind. The main number will be some speaker, probably from Chicago.

The new humane officers' report yesterday showed plainly that Rock Island needs a humane officer, who can give all his time to the work. The itemized report hardly shows the amount of work done by such an officer, nor does it show the public variety of circumstances which he must be ready to meet. He asks the public to cooperate with him. People should not hesitate about reporting cases, as he cannot be everywhere. In nearly all cases an amicable settlement can be reached, but if necessary cases are prosecuted.

The following is the report of H. H. Robb for the month of February: Complaints received, 14. Reprimands, 20. Examinations made, 2.

much talked of comedy and for themselves' ruling of its merits. "Bunty" is still running at the Haymarket theatre in London to enormous business, and also played in New York for over 15 months. "Bunty" is a Scotch lassie whose title as manageress should be written out in capital letters. She manages everybody and everything in the play without their knowing it, and to their utmost advantage. "Bunty" saves her father from an over-civilized, acid-faced spinster who intends to "hook" him, and marries him to an old love of his early youth. She also marries herself to the young man of her choice; saves her brother Rab from a hard lot, and arranges his love affairs. In fact, "Bunty Pulls the Strings" so gently and satisfactorily that all the characters in the play are overwhelmed with delight at her successful efforts.

A return engagement of "Peg o' My Heart," by J. Hartley Manners, will be the attraction at the Illinois Sunday, matinee and night, with Florence Martin in the leading role of the Irish lassie whose wit and charm is so enthralling. The story of the play, which has been running continuously in New York for considerably over a year, has to do with the girl's introduction into a snobbish and aristocratic English family, and the ensuing complications furnish the material for the laughter and tears. Oliver Morosco has provided a lavish production, including Isabel Vernon, Colin Campbell, Maude Allen, Fred L. Tilden, Nella Horen, Pell Trenton, John Lyons, Reginald Carrington, and the cast is a brilliant one.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Europe's reputed greatest acrobatic absurdity will be featured at the Empire the last half of the week. The world famous Florenz trio will present "Fun in a Restaurant," a sensational comedy stunt which has made the theatre-goers of two continents laugh. Originality is the first consideration in this act and it is safe to say that more performers have patterned comedy acrobatics after this skit than any other. While the trio is undoubtedly great, there is another act announced which looks as though it would give the Florenz trio a hard run for honors. It is "A Dream of Baby Days," presented by Hayes and Johnson, two women whose weight is said to aggregate considerably over 400 pounds. This sketch proved a sensational success at the Columbia in Davenport several weeks ago. O'Neil and Dixon will sing the latest songs and tell the very newest stories. The Tom Fletcher duo, colored entertainers, are accounted among the best on the road and will make a hit with their new selections. McConnell and Austin will open with a bicycle novelty.
