

CAMP 29 ATTACKS 26 FOR POSITION

Criticized for Supporting James McNamara for Woodmen Head Clerk.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Denied That There is Any Real Danger of Removing Head Offices From Rock Island.

Following resolutions were adopted last evening at a meeting of Camp No. 29, M. W. A.:

"Whereas, The selection of delegates to our county camp has been made by every camp in the county and 24 of the 26 camps have refused to endorse the candidacy of James McNamara for head clerk:

"Whereas, The 24 camps had from 49 to 90 per cent of their members present at the meeting at which resolutions were chosen:

"Whereas, Independence camp No. 24 had less than five per cent of their members present when they endorsed James McNamara for head clerk, and selected 90 delegates and 90 alterations and have up to date refused to publish who they are:

"Whereas, Independence camp No. 24 at their meeting, March 9 with less than one per cent of their membership present, appealed to the public through the Rock Island club, the Business Men's association, all Boosters clubs, the Try Rock Island First club and any other club, to hold a public mass meeting to boost for McNamara for head clerk:

Would Mean New Charter.

"Whereas, The removal of the head office will require a two-thirds vote of the head camp and the surrender of our charter to the state of Illinois, which has been the home of our order since birth and would affect the contracts of a million members:

"Resolved, That camp No. 29, M. W. A. in regular meeting assembled, protest against the said action of Independence camp No. 24 as unnecessary, inasmuch as there is no immediate danger of the head office being removed from the city—much less the artesian well.

"Resolved, We believe the administration would be in favor of the removal of the office to another state in order to organize under the Mobile law and we further believe that the action of Independence camp No. 24 and all the noise emanating from the head office are merely subterfuges to try and induce some unwary delegates to support the administration;

"Resolved, That we are opposed to the general public deciding any difficulties we may have as Woodmen; "Resolved, That we deeply deplore the probability of the artesian well going dry and request the neighbors in this county to vote 'no' on the removal of the well."

REGISTER ONLY ON SECOND DAY

R. C. Clarke, Deputy County Clerk, Says Judges Can Only Revise Books March 17.

Election officials have no right under the law to make March 17 a day of general registration, according to R. C. Clarke, deputy county clerk, whose fiat is accepted as final in such matters.

"Election boards meet on the first day, which in this case is March 17," said he. "For the purpose of revising the poll books and for that purpose alone. Voters whose names are known by the judges to belong on the books may be placed there, and the names of those known to have left the precinct or to have died may be removed. That is all the judges have authority to do.

"The second day of registration will be the one on which women can see that their names are entered."

INSURGENTS LIKE NEW ICE MACHINE

Van Galder Says Woodmen Faction Leaders "Blow Hot and Cold at Same Time."

DENISON CHANGES FRONT

Dubuque Man Held Up as Example of Inconsistency in Advocating Principles.

In an interview this morning, F. O. Van Galder, editor of the Modern Woodmen, said some of the leaders of the insurgents are coming out from behind the brush heap and are declaring for an increase in rates of 50 per cent on the older members and 25 per cent on the younger members of the society.

"These insurgent leaders," Mr. Van Galder went on to say, "would remind one of the machine that has recently been invented for the manufacture of ice. It blows both hot and cold at the same time. This machine can be used for cooling in the summer time and for heating in the winter time. In this respect, it resembles the insurgent leaders, who, when they think it will please the members of a certain camp, advocate an increase in rates, but when they feel that the audience does not favor an increase in rates, denounce and condemn and vociferously declare against any increase in rates. The ice machine above referred to has not been named, I understand, and I am going to write the inventor and suggest that he name it 'insurgent leader.'"

Denison Accused as Turncoat.

The Manchester Press of Manchester, Iowa, reports that at a meeting of Modern Woodmen camp No. 89 in that city, John D. Denison, insurgent leader of Dubuque, in answer to interrogations as to his position on the rate question, said that "if it were left with him, he would raise the rates now paid by the younger members of the order 25 per cent and those paid by the older members 50 per cent."

"The rank and file of the insurgents," Mr. Van Galder comments, "are justified in feeling surprised at the position taken by Neighbor Denison in the camp at Manchester, because they do not know him as we do. Mr. Denison lectured in many camps in Iowa in 1902 and 1903, urging the adoption of adequate rates at that time, and he was paid for his services by the society. At this time he is one of the leaders of the insurgents and that faction has declared against any increase in rates whatever. Mr. Denison seems to be out to win, and judging from his past record, he will do or say anything, just so he gets there. In this respect, he is no different from other insurgent leaders."

WANTS DIVORCE; WIFE WON'T COOK

Suit for divorce has been started in circuit court by R. H. Meister vs. Mrs. Zaida Meister. Fred H. Rallsback is the attorney. The couple were married January 20, 1909, and lived together until January 15, this year.

Extreme and repeated cruelty is alleged, it being claimed that on several occasions the defendant struck her husband with her fists and attempted to choke him with a towel. Mr. Meister also charges that she refused to "perform her household duties" and he also alleges statutory offenses.

POULTRY INTERESTS MAY COMBINE ON SHOW

The poultry interests of the three cities will hold a meeting Thursday night at the office of Dr. W. C. Volland in Davenport. An effort will be made to combine three associations, the Iowa State Fanciers' association, the Mississippi Valley Fanciers' association and the Tri-City Fanciers' association, to cooperate in the state show to be held in Davenport next January.

A committee of three has been appointed from each organization, and these three committees will attempt the proposed affiliation at this session. O. F. Freeman of Moline, W. H. Kewley of Rock Island and E. C. Boniger of Davenport will represent the Mississippi Valley association.

BIG R. N. A. DELEGATION WILL GO TO BLOOMINGTON

Dr. Hada Burkhardt, supreme recorder of the Royal Neighbors of America, today predicted that a delegation of 40 from Rock Island and vicinity would attend the state convention for the selection of delegates to the supreme camp, which is to be held at Bloomington March 17 and 18. The arrangements committee for the local delegation held a meeting last night at the home of the doctor.
