

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have known a young man six months. He is grand. I like him very much—so much that I would do anything in this world for him if I knew he would benefit by it. When he is with me he seems to care a great deal for me. He is very good to me.

The trouble is this: He never makes a definite engagement with me. He says "he will see me again," or something to that effect. I never know when to expect him; sometimes it is two weeks before he will call. He seems to take for granted he may call at any time.

If he fleets me in town he always comes home with me. I am always so glad to see him that I have not the heart to reproach him, but I feel very much embarrassed when he comes and I am not prepared for him, but he generally passes it off as a joke and seems very much pleased to think he surprised me so.

What do you think of him? Do you think he cares for me?

(2) I was invited to my girl friend's home to meet her beau. When I was ready to go home he said he would see me home. I objected and told him so, but he insisted. Do you think he did the proper thing? I had quite a distance to go. Do you think it will cause hard feelings? He has gone with her about six months.

(3) I am 19 and my friend 23. Is he about the right age for me?

whom I adore. He used to ask me to go places, but my folks thought me too young. They do not care now. How can I let him know, as he still wants to go, but thinks my folks oppose it?

(4) There are two brothers. I like them both, but the one I like best never has asked me to go with him, but tells other boys I am very dear to him. The other boy is the one spoken of in the first question. Tell me what to do.

(5) There is a boy working at one of our neighbors. He seems to think lots of me. I do not care much for him, but I do not like to turn a cold shoulder to anyone. He wrote to me, but I told him I could not go with him, as he was a stranger. Did I do right?

(6) I have a friend who loves a boy who she thinks loves her, but when he is talking to me I do not think he does. Should I tell her so?

(7) Do you think it right for a girl of 16 to go with a boy if her parents do not care?

(8) If he sees you going out with other boys he will come around and ask you why you don't go with him.

(9) If he wants to take you out, he'll ask you quick enough.

(10) If you want her to stay your friend, don't say anything at all about it to her.

(11) I think my dear little girl, that you are thinking altogether too much about boys. It is a good thing for a girl to have boy friends, but when she thinks of every boy as a lover it is time she gets busy thinking about something else. However, if there is any particular boy whom your parents think fit company for you, there can hardly be any objection to your going about with him. But don't be foolish.

Winnie.

LUCIA.

(1) The young man undoubtedly has a very friendly feeling toward you, but I hardly think he is in love with you—yet. Let him come as he feels like it, and do not say anything about it. Many men call in this way and enjoy their visits, but would not come if the girl expected them to call regularly.

(2) Your friend's beau simply wished to be polite to his sweetheart's girl friend. You did right to hesitate about accepting his escort. If there is a next time, refuse it absolutely as a matter of loyalty to your girl friend.

(3) Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 16.

(1) I have a gentleman friend

SALE AND SUPPER CLEARS $125.

The sale of utility articles and supper given by the ladies of the Central Presbyterian church yesterday at the church cleared approximately $125. The church dining room was trimmed in green and white in honor of St. Patrick's day. The ready made articles were sold at a booth in charge of Mrs. J. H. Stapp and Mrs. O. Leonard. Mrs. H. D. Polson was in charge of the pantry booth and Mrs. E. J. Van Etten had the booth where were sold articles for the baby. During the hours that a supper was served 150 people took supper and practically all the articles placed on sale were disposed of.

GRADUATE NURSES MEET.

The district meeting of the Graduate Nurses' association was held yesterday afternoon at the new home for nurses at the Moline City hospital. Following the transaction of routine business papers along lines of interest to the nurses were read and Mrs. Josephine Barnhardt, visiting nurse of Moline, gave a very interesting account of her visit to the Chicago court of domestic relations and the Northwestern settlement. She also attend the state board of nurses' meeting. Announcement was made of the national convention of nurses which will be held at St. Louis April 22 to continue a number of days.

They were accompanied by Miss Ogden, a sister of the bride, and Guy Bradford of Aledo. Mr. Mueller is in the restaurant business in Sherrard and that place will be the new home.

BUSY BEE SEWING SOCIETY.

Members of the Busy Bee Sewing society spent the afternoon yesterday sewing at the home of Mrs. E. E. Lamp, 1513 Tenth avenue. There was a large attendance of the members and much work was accomplished. Refreshments were served before the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Thomas McLean will entertain the society in two weeks.

KIESEY-ANDERSON.

Miss Maud I. Anderson, a teacher in

Argus Feature For Children

The Argus has secured an exclusive feature for its children readers in the form of Clara Ingram Judson's "Bed Time Tales," which will be printed daily, beginning next Monday, on page 4. Miss Judson has few peers in America as a writer of stories for the little folks. The series that she will furnish The Argus include some of her best work, and doubtless she will interest the children in the homes where The Argus is a visitor from the start. It would not do the older folks any harm to read these stories, either.

the schools at Alpha, and David R. Klesey of Reynolds were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist church, Rev. T. E. Newland performing the ceremony. They were accompanied by a company of young people from Alpha and Reynolds. Mr. Klesey is a carpenter at Reynolds and that place will be their residence.

BIDDER TRUMP IT CLUB.

Mrs. Delmar Dooley was the hostess to the Bidder Trump It club yesterday afternoon, all the members attending and enjoying the afternoon. The house was attractively decorated in the colors of St. Patrick and the lunch that followed the games carried out the St. Patrick's day features, the ices, candies, etc., being in the shape of sham-rock. In the 500 games the prizes were won by Miss Stella Wilson and Mrs. Lillian Walker. Miss Hazel Lundahl will be the hostess to the club in two weeks.

STUDY MISSIONS IN CHINA.

The Mission Study class of Trinity Episcopal church held a meeting at the parish house yesterday afternoon following a meeting of Trinity guild. Mrs. Cora Eastman is the leader of the study class and the subject yesterday was on the pioneer work of the church in China. Papers on the subject were given by Mrs. Farrar, Mrs. P. G. Linter, Miss Amy Lyford and Miss Harriet Johnson.

COURT OF HONOR PARTY.

Sylvan Court of Honor No. 391 held an entertainment and dancing party at Odd Fellows' hall last evening which was attended by a large number of the members and their friends. During the forepart of the evening a program was given followed by dancing and the serving of refreshments. The music for the evening was given by the Rock Island Ladies' trio.

STARKEY-WERTZ.

Rev. M. E. Chatley, pastor of the Memorial Christian church, at noon today officiated at the marriage of Miss Lillian Wertz of Burlington and Harry E. Starkey of Stronchurst. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. Mr. Chatley, 900 Seventeenth street, and the bridal couple was unattended. Mr. Starkey is a barber employed in this city and the new home will be at 2110 Fifth avenue.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.
To keep the silver teapot sweet when not in use put a lump of sugar in it.
When an article is scorched in ironing wet the spot with cold water and put it in the sun.
Kerosene oil is better than soap for removing finger marks from white paint.
If the feet are tender and become swollen, bathe them in alum water and wear loose shoes.

THE TABLE.
Orange Pie—Work one-fourth cupful of butter until creamy and add one cupful of fine granulated sugar gradually, while beating constantly. Add two eggs, well beaten, and one-half cupful of milk; then add one and two-thirds cupfuls of flour, mixed and sifted with two and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat thoroughly and turn into two pie tins. Bake in a moderate oven for 25 minutes. Put together with orange filling and spread the top with orange frosting.

Fig Souffle—To one-half pound of figs cut fine and stewed until tender and pulpy, add the beaten yolks of two eggs. Place in a pudding dish and bake in the oven until the yolks are set sufficiently, then cover with a meringue made of the whites of the eggs and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Let this brown, then remove to cool.

Fig Pie—Take one-half pound of figs and stew thoroughly, adding when nearly done sugar to taste. When cool add the well-beaten yolks of two eggs. Fill this into the crust of pastry dough in a deep pie pan, and bake in a moderate oven until the yolks are set. Cover with a meringue, brown and serve.

Stuffed Eggs—Cut four hard-boiled eggs in halves crosswise; remove the yolks, mash and add two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, and one teaspoonful of vinegar, one-fourth teaspoonful of mustard and salt and cayenne to taste. Add enough melted butter to make the mixture of the right consistency to shape. Make in balls the size of the original yolks and refill the whites. Arrange on a serving dish and pour around one cup of white sauce, cover and reheat.
