

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it all right for girls of 13 who have a nice home, to think of boys? (2) My hair is very short and thin; I have tried in every way to make it grow. Would it be all right to wear false hair? (3) I was invited by a boy to his home to spend the evening, it being his 15th birthday. There were no girls in the home and his mother is dead. He had a step-mother. My parents objected so I could not go. Some other classmates went. I felt angry. Who was right? (4) Which are worn the most for Sunday, white shoes or tan slippers? (5) How old should a girl be before thinking of fellows?

A READER.

(1) If the boys are your friends it is natural that you should think of them once in a while. However, it wouldn't be best, dear, to think of them all the time. There are lots more important things to think about, at your age.

(2) If you wear false hair you will lose the rest of your natural hair. If you will massage your scalp every night with yellow vaseline, it will help the hair to grow. Every morning give it at least 100 strokes with a good clean brush. You must do these things every day if you want good results. Once a week dip your brush in kerosene (coal oil), shake it out, then brush your hair well with that. If the hair seems too greasy after the brush, wipe it with a clean towel. The hair will look rather greasy under this treatment, but you must persevere if you want more hair. Once in three or four weeks beat up a couple of eggs, rub this well into the hair, let dry, then rinse out with lukewarm water in which you have put a little baking soda. Rinse again in several clear waters, then brush the hair dry. Let it hang loose as much as possible.

(3) If other classmates went, it seems that you might also have gone. Your mother or father could have taken you there and called for you when ready to go home. However, it's always best for a girl of your age to abide by what your parents think is best and to be cheerful as possible about it. (4) Both white and tan are much worn. (5) I suppose a girl thinks of boys at almost any age, but she should never make them the most important things in her life unless she meets the one whom she really loves and who wishes to marry her. A girl's courting time is from 17 years on.

My Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If a boy is on the car with a girl, is it right for him to give a lady his seat and leave his girl?

(2) Where can a girl and boy spend Sunday? We do not go to shows.

(3) I am 14 years old and have been going with a boy of 18 years. My mother said she thought it was all right. I go to his home and talk to his mother. I do not go with any girls, as they all want to run after the boys, and mamma does not think it is right.

(4) Is it best to go with him all alone—that is, not go with a girl?

(1) A boy should always be courteous to other women as well as to the girl he is escorting. Some girls think that it is wrong for a boy who is with them to be decently polite to any other girl or woman. But if he isn't he is not gentlemanly. It is always correct for a boy or young man to give his seat to a woman or an elderly person in a street car, whether he is escorting a girl or not.

(2) Why, my dear, isn't home a nice place to spend Sunday afternoon with a boy friend? You can play all kinds of games at home, or read, or have music and chat with the rest of the family. You might take walks, too, in nice weather—only be sure to tell your parents where you are going and when you will be back, so they won't worry about you.

(3) If mother approves, it is all right, dearie. I am glad you do not go with girls who are boy-crazy.

(4) Better find some nice girl friends, too. There are a lot of them, you know.

MARTHA WASHINGTON'S WILL

Washington, April 27.—Correspondence between Governor Stuart of Virginia and J. P. Morgan concerning the will of Martha Washington which is in Mr. Morgan's possession, was read to the Daughters of the American Revolution by Mrs. William Cummings Storey. The letters show that the matter was opened by Governor Stuart through W. L. McCorkle, president of the New York Southern society, in March last. In reply, Mr. Morgan said his only desire was that the document should be preserved and of most use to the people of the United States. Not considering the court house building of Fairfax county, Virginia, to which Governor Stuart desired the document returned, and where the will of George Washington now is, as fireproof or accessible to any large number of people, Mr. Morgan made two propositions.

One was that the state of Virginia or Fairfax county should place the original will of George Washington on exhibition at Mount Vernon for an indefinite period, and that if this were done he would present the will of Martha Washington to the Mount Vernon association for permanent exhibition there. The other was that should the Virginia authorities not be willing to do this, the will of George Washington should be presented to the library of congress and that he would in turn present the will of Martha Washington to the nation for the same disposition.

Neither of these proposals met with the approval of Governor Stuart, who stated the people of Virginia held that the legitimate records of Fairfax county. Governor Stuart then renewed his request that some agreement could be arrived at, and there apparently the matter rests as far as disclosed by correspondence given out by Mrs. Storey, which follows:

"Executive Chamber, Governor's Office, Richmond, March 16, 1914.—My Dear Sir: Realizing that you are fully informed as to the recent agitation in Virginia on the question of the Martha Washington will, and the various proceedings in relation thereto, I feel that it is unnecessary to present to you any detailed statement on the subject. "Coming into the governorship of the state on Feb. 1 of this year, and looking carefully into the whole situation of affairs as then presented, it occurred to me that it would be proper to take the matter up with you through a representative Virginian living in New York.

"Acting on this idea, I requested Walter L. McCorkle, president of the New York Southern society, to call on you and state my desire that some line of action might be taken which would be deemed mutually agreeable. This he has done as my friend and representative.

"In accordance with his suggestion, I now write to you personally on the subject to express the hope that some happy adjustment of the matter may have occurred to you, which will be satisfactory to all parties concerned.

"Awaiting your suggestions, which I trust will be responsive at least in spirit to the respectful and courteous consideration which controls my own action, I am,

"Very truly yours, (Signed) 'H. C. STUART, Governor.

"J. P. Morgan, New York." "Hon. H. C. Stuart, Governor of Virginia, Richmond, Va., March 17, 1914.—My Dear Sir: I am very pleased indeed to receive your letter of March 16 in regard to the will of Martha Washington, which is now in my possession. I may mention that the visit of Walter L. McCorkle, to which you refer, and your very agreeable letter, constitute the only official word I have had upon this subject.

"In regard to the will, I have only one desire, which is that the document should be where it can be best preserved and of most use to the people of the United States. I am sure that this is also the desire of yourself and of the commonwealth of Virginia. I therefore venture to make the following suggestions:

"The Fairfax county court house, from what I am informed, is not fireproof, nor are documents there kept in such a way as to make them available to a large number of people. I also understand that the original will of George Washington is at present stored in that court house. I suggest, therefore, that the commonwealth of Virginia, or Fairfax county, should direct the keeper of the documents in the court house to place the original will of George Washington on exhibition at Mount Vernon, for an indefinite period, where it would be available for the instruction of a large number of people, and where it would have the benefit of the great care and protection against fire now given at Mount Vernon. If this were done, I should be glad to present the will of Martha Washington to the Mount Vernon Ladies' association for permanent exhibition there. By this arrangement the two documents would be together at the place where they were made and where a great number of people will have the satisfaction of seeing them.

"Should the commonwealth of Virginia not be willing to do this, because of the well known fact that Mount Vernon itself is not fireproof, though such excellent care is taken to prevent accidents, then I propose that the commonwealth should present the will of George Washington to the library of congress, to be forever kept with the documents there, and I should present the will of Martha Washington to the nation for the same disposition. It seems to me that the bringing together of the two documents is of interest and importance. If they are placed at Mount Vernon, they remain in Fairfax county and would be given as good care as possible there; if they are placed in the library of congress, they would be in the custody of one of the great libraries of the world and in a place which belongs to the whole nation. It seems to me that either arrangement would be quite appropriate, and I shall be pleased indeed to do my part in carrying out whichever of the two would be most satisfactory to the commonwealth of Virginia. I am, dear sir, with great respect,

"Yours very truly, (Signed) 'J. P. MORGAN."

"Commonwealth of Virginia, Governor's Office, Richmond, April 8, 1914.—J. P. Morgan, Esq., 23 Wall Street, New York City.—My Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your very courteous letter of March 17, which would have been acknowledged earlier but for the necessity of some correspondence in connection with the subject in hand, and consequent delay incident thereto. "After getting the facts fully before me, I regret to have to say that your letter does not meet the views of the people whom I represent and for whom I speak. The objection you urge against the delivery of the Martha Washington will to Fairfax county is, I fear, unfounded, since it is stated by prominent persons of that county that the clerk's office, in which this will would be kept, and in which the George Washington will is now on exhibition, is a brick building, with fireproof vaults, in which all the county records are preserved. It is thought by capable and observant people that the will would be absolutely safe in this building.

"I will suggest, therefore, though I will not urge upon your attention at this juncture, that the people of Virginia hold that the Martha Washington will is a part of the records of Fairfax county, and that it belongs there, if anywhere in Virginia. "We had hoped, and indeed expected, that some agreement could be arrived at with respect to this matter which would be mutually satisfactory. Not wishing to drop the negotiations at this stage, I now venture to renew the request made through my friend and representative, Walter L. McCorkle.

"Awaiting your further advice, I am, very truly yours, (Signed) 'H. C. STUART, Governor."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

If eggs are placed in hot water a few minutes before breaking the whites will separate from the yolks very easily. They must be cooled before whipping up the whites. To prevent moths from invading drawers and boxes where woolen goods are stored, sprinkle a little turpentine in the drawers or boxes every three months. To clean coral soak it in soda and water for some hours, then make a lather of soap and scrub with a soft-haired brush, rinsing finally in clear water and drying.

THE TABLE.

Cecils With Tomato Sauce—One cup of cold roast beef or raw steak finely chopped, salt, pepper, onion juice, Worcestershire sauce, two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, one tablespoonful of melted butter, yolk of one egg slightly beaten. Season the beef with salt, pepper, onion juice and Worcestershire sauce; add the remaining ingredients, shape after the form of small croquettes, pointed at the ends. Roll in flour, egg and the crumbs and fry in deep hot fat, drain and serve with tomato sauce.

Veal Loaf—Take three pounds of lean veal and remove the skin and the membrane. Chop finely or force through a meat chopper, then add one-half pound of fat salt pork, (also finely chopped); six common crackers (rolled), four tablespoonfuls of cream, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, one tablespoonful of salt, one-half tablespoonful of pepper and few drops of onion juice. Pack in a small bread pan, smooth evenly on the top, brush with the white of an egg and bake slowly three hours, basting with one-fourth cup of pork fat. Prick frequently while baking, that the pork fat may be absorbed by the meat. Cool, remove from the pan and cut in thin slices for serving.

Sweet Potatoes, Georgian Style—Season mashed boiled sweet potatoes with butter, salt, pepper an dashery wine. Moisten with cream and beat five minutes. Put in a buttered baking dish, leaving a rough surface. Pour over a syrup made by boiling two tablespoonfuls of molasses and one teaspoonful of butter five minutes. Bake in the oven until delicately browned.

Wine Jelly—One-half box of gelatine or two tablespoonfuls of granulated gelatine, one-half cup of cold water, one and two-thirds cups of boiling water, one cup of sugar, one cup of sherry or madeira wine, one-third cup of orange juice, three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. Soak the gelatine 20 minutes in cold water, dissolve in boiling water; add the sugar, wine, orange juice and lemon juice; strain, mould and chill. If a stronger jelly is desired use more wine in place of the orange juice.

Frozen Orange Souffle—One and one-half cups of orange juice, one and one-half cups of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, yolks of five eggs, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of granulated gelatine, three tablespoonfuls of boiling water, two and one-half cups of cream, candied orange peel, pistachio nuts. Mix the fruit juice, sugar and the yolks of the eggs, cook over boiling water until the mixture thickens; then add the gelatine dissolved in boiling water. Cool, freeze to a mush, add whip from cream and continue freezing. Mould and serve garnished with candied orange peel and pistachio nuts.

Scalloped Apples—One small stale loaf bread, one-quarter cup of butter, one quart of sliced apples, one-quarter cup of sugar, one-quarter teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, grated rind and juice of one-half lemon. Cut the loaf in halves, remove the soft part and crumb by rubbing through a colander; melt the butter and stir in lightly with a fork; cover the bottom of a buttered pudding dish with crumbs and sprinkle with one-half the sugar, nutmeg, lemon juice and the rind mixed together; repeat, cover with the remaining crumbs and bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven. Cover at first to prevent the crumbs from browning too rapidly. Serve with sugar and cream.

Baked Green Peppers Stuffed With Crab Meat—Cut the peppers in halves, remove the seeds and membrane, and soak in salted water for half an hour; then drain and cook in fresh cold water for fifteen minutes. While the peppers are cooking prepare the crab meat, which can now be purchased ready flaked at almost any fish shop. Chop the meat season lightly with salt and pepper, add a few wdrops of lemon juice, a tablespoonful of minced parsley and sufficient cream sauce to moisten. Pack this into the prepared peppers, stand them in a baking dish and after sprinkling the tops with grated bread crumbs, browned, bake for 20 minutes in a hot oven.

Forsberg, the pastor, presenting it in behalf of the parents and friends of the school pupils. The gift is a beautiful one engraved with this inscription: "From thankful parents and friends of Zion Lutheran church." AFTERNOON RECEPTION.

One of the delightful social affairs of the week was the afternoon reception of Saturday which was given by Mrs. E. Lee Hayward of Davenport, for her daughter, Mrs. Laurence Calkins of San Domez, Calif., who with her husband is visiting in the tri-cities. About 100 tri-city friends were entertained at the Hayward home on College avenue from 4 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Calkins recollected in the drawing room, Mrs. Hayward being in a gown of blue brocade trimmed in real Arabian lace. Mrs. Calkins was in a gown of blue over American Beauty satin trimmed with embroidery. Assisting in entertaining and pouring were Mrs. W. H. Kimball, Mrs. A. A. Miller, Mrs. W. M. Radcliffe, Mrs. Edward Bower of Eagle Mills, Ark., Mrs. M. N. Richardson, Mrs. C. V. Dart, Mrs. Charles Pierce and Miss Nellie Pierce.

There were elaborate and very artistic decorations of flowers of the season in all the rooms; Richmond roses were in tall vases in the parlor, and pink and white sweet peas and giant snapdragons were in bouquets in the living room, where the fireplace was filled in and banked with ferns, palms and smilax; the walls and draperies in all the rooms were festooned with garlands of southern smilax, the tendrils forming a delicate, leafy tracery about the dining room, where a suggestion of color was given the frize-like decoration in clusters of Aaron Ward roses which were caught at intervals amid the foliage. The same creamy-pink roses were gathered into magnificent bouquet for the centerpiece of the serving table.
