Cleveland, O., April 27.—Fighting desperately against big odds and their own blunders, the White Sox went down to a third straight defeat at the hands of the crippled Naps yesterday. The score was 4 to 2, and that was more creditable to the Callahan tribe than the game was. Score:

Harden Lead. Metallic sodium hardens lead without changing its color. Two per cent of sodium will harden lead so that it will ring when struck; a larger amount causes it to become brittle. The lead sodium alloy is sometimes used as a bearing metal.—London Express.

LINCOLN SCHOOL TAKES THE MEET

Captures 34 Points in First Grammar School Track and Field Contest.

UNDER Y. M. C. A. AUSPICES

Low Time in the 100-Yard Dash and Spirited Competition in High Jump Features.

Grammar schools in Rock Island for the first time held a track and field meet Saturday afternoon at Exposition grounds under the auspices of the athletic department of the Y. M. C. A.

The meet was open to seniors and juniors only. M. A. Clevert, physical director at the institution, conducted the contest. Lincoln school with 34 points pulled down first honors. There were 125 contestants and 400 saw the meet.

Long previous to the time to call the contest at 2 o'clock the athletic field was swarmed with youthful athletes, yelling and eager to jump into the contest. The first contest of such a character naturally was characterized by some confusion, but all contestants were given a chance to show their athletic prowess.

In the scoring Horace Mann school with 14 points was second, Longfellow school with 13 third, Irving with 11 fourth, Grant 8 1/2 fifth, Hawthorne 2 1/2 sixth, and Kemble 1 seventh. Ribbons were awarded the schools. The grammar school meet will probably become an annual event.

Uncovers a Sprinter. The sprinting of young Stratton in the 100-yard dash and the stiff competition in the running high jump were easily features of the meet. Stratton, entered from Horace Mann, was caught in 11 4/5 in the dash. In the running high jump Dopp of Lincoln school and McMullin of Longfellow jumped to a draw. The athletes flipped a coin for placement. Dopp was placed first, although McMullin equaled his record of 4 feet 6 inches.

A full house marked the 50-yard dash event, it being necessarily run off in eight heats to allow all entrants a chance at the bacon. For a time it was thought the event would run into semi-finals. This contest took considerable time, as the number of contestants complicated matters. Harding of Horace Mann took first in 6 2/5. The point winners were:

Seniors. 100 yard dash—Stratton of Horace Mann, first; Dopp, Lincoln, second; Brown, Grant, third; Cooper, Lincoln, fourth. Time—11 4/5 seconds. Running high jump—Dopp, Lincoln, first; McMullin, Longfellow, second; H. Wilson, Lincoln, third; J. Dice, Lincoln, fourth. Height—4 feet, 6 inches. Running broad jump—McMullin, Longfellow, first; Dopp, Lincoln, second; Stratton, Horace Mann, third; Day, Lincoln, fourth. Distance—14 feet, 4 inches. Shotput—Dopp, Lincoln, first, 29 feet 7 inches; Cooper, Lincoln, second; McMullin, Longfellow, third; Hendrickson, Lincoln, fourth.

Juniors. 50 yard dash—Harding, Horace Mann, first; time 6 2/5; Ellinwood, Irving, second; H. Carlson, Horace Mann, third; D Connors, Irving, fourth. Running broad jump—Paddock, Lincoln, first, 12 feet 9 inches; Kona, Grant, second; Ellinwood, Irving, third; Seiter, Hawthorne, fourth.

Junior relay, quarter-mile—Irving school, first; Grant school, second; Hawthorne, third; Kemble, fourth. Senior relay, half mile—Lincoln, first; Horace Mann, second; Longfellow, third. Officials—Cornell, starter. Judges, Laidig, Craig, Starr.

SERVANTS OF OTHER DAYS.

A Uniform Scheme That Failed and Ugliness as an Asset. In 1808 the formation was attempted in London of a league of housewives pledged to engage only servants who would undertake to wear a uniform in the preliminary manifesto it was also proposed to prohibit servants from wearing "superfluities, such as flowers, feathers, brooches, buckles or clasps, earrings, lockets, neck ribbons and velvets, kid gloves, sashes, jackets, Garibaldi's trimmings on dresses, crinolines or steel of any kind." On her Sunday out a servant was to assume "a neat alpaca dress, linen collars and cuffs, black apron, black shawl, straw bonnet bound round with ribbons, thread or cotton gloves, small cotton umbrella to keep off the sun and rain." The costume was to be diversified in cold weather by a linsey dress and a shepherd's plaid shawl. This extraordinary scheme found very few supporters and had to be abandoned.

Some bygone housewives appear to have regarded ugliness as a quality to be desired in their servants. When Eliza Coke, daughter of Coke of Norfolk, was about to marry she wrote to her prospective mother-in-law: "Pray have the goodness to decide as you think best about the pretty housemaid. I wish she were less pretty and less fond of dress, but if her conduct and principles are good neither are really objectionable faults. I think our establishment will be a pattern of morality, particularly if Mr. Stanhope engages the squinting butler and the terrible housemaid he mentioned to me."—Chicago News.

CLOVE APPLES.

Spicy Odored Ornaments That Were Once Quite Common. The manufacture of clove apples, common in the days of our grandmothers, is very simple. You can take an apple, the rounder and sounder and bigger the better, and into it stick cloves as thickly as possible, with only the heads showing and forming a close continuous surface all over. Put it in a drawer or on a mantelpiece or whatnot, and time will do the rest. The clove apple becomes dry and curiously hard, maintains its form perfectly and acquires an approximation of immortality—if carefully protected, of course, from accidents and children. The latter, if memory serves, were wont to annoy the grandmothers of clove apple days by decapitating the cloves or, if especially mischievous, by working at one of them till it came out whole. Either achievement, when discovered, as it always was soon, caused indignation grater always and "wrong stories" not infrequently.

The exact purpose of the clove apple, or as the source of a pleasant, spicy odor, the present commentator does not remember, if he ever knew. In value, however, it ranked well up with the shells brought from foreign strands by seafaring husbands and sons, and both were about equally durable.—New York Times.

Memory. If it should be asked what possession I most valued I would say some beautiful memory. Memory is possession. It is the only thing on earth that is absolutely ours, which no one can take from us. We can produce and enjoy it in a crowd of uncongenial people as easily as if we were alone. No noise can drown its voice; no distance can dim its clearness. Strength, hope, beauty, everything else, may pass. Memory will stay.—Selected.

ISLANDERS OPEN SEASON WITH WIN

Harder, in Mid-Season Form, Allows Davenport Brunswicks but Three Hits.

HAS GILT EDGED SUPPORT

Two Errors on Hard Chances the Only Bobbles in Baseball Contest at Bettendorf.

The Islanders opened their 1914 season yesterday at Bettendorf with an easy win over the fast Brunswicks of Davenport. Pop Harder, the big pitcher of the winners, was in mid-season form, allowing the opposing team only three hits, at the same time striking out seven men. He had them eating out of his hand, at no time being in any danger.

The support was very good, only two errors being made, these being charged to MacManus, who let a high peg escape, and one to McGinnis, who let a hot one sizzle between his feet. With the exception of these miscues the boys put up a good exhibition, and it is evident that the teams they buck up against this season will have to play a good grade of ball to win.

The first real match for the challenge cup, to be played for all season by golfers of the Rock Island Arsenal club, took place Saturday afternoon, when Dr. A. H. The former, however, had a handicap of 13, while the latter had but 5, which made the actual count 80 to 89.

Under the rules Mr. Skinner cannot again challenge the present holder, but any other member of the club may and he must play within 48 hours or yield the trophy. The member of the club winning the cup oftener during the season secures permanent possession.
