Boston, May 22.—Timely wallops brought home the third straight for Callahan's White Sox yesterday, the Boston Red Legs being tumbled in the opener of the series by 5 to 2. This proved to be one case where a new pitcher couldn't dazzle the Chicagoans, the person involved being Rankin Johnson, who recently won fame by virtue of a victory over his namesake on the Washington club.

Baltimore, May 22.—The taming of the Terrapins is a considerable job. Off with a two-run lead in the opener here yesterday, Tinker's crack hurler looked an easy winner. Then he withered before a terrific assault which knotted the count and bowed in defeat when bunched errors and swats in the eighth put Knabe's league peacemakers in front, 3 to 2.

Chicago, Ill., May 22.—Boston's Braves, with their Johnny Evers, "Rabbit" Maranville and George Stallings, won their fifth game in 23 straight yesterday. The victims happened to be the Cubs, just started on a three-game winning streak only to fall before the lowly tall-enders, 3 to 1, because George Tyler, a left-hander, was invincible in the pinches, while Larry Cheney had an "off day."
