

MOVIES OF M.W.A. SANATORIUM HERE

Officials of Society See Pictures of "The Man Who Came Back."

At the Empire theatre last evening visiting Woodmen officers here for the meeting of the executive council at which appointments for the coming three-year term are to be made, had an opportunity to see moving pictures taken at the society's tuberculosis sanatorium at Colorado Springs entitled "The Man Who Came Back." About fifty were present. This was the first time they had been shown here.

The films portray with all realism the experiences of an average tuberculosis patient whose case is taken in the early stages and who receives treatment at the sanatorium. He is shown when leaving home and bidding farewell to his family, on arrival at the Springs and the sanatorium, and then appears among other patients in the routine of life in the sanatorium. Finally, at the end of nine months, he is seen a much changed man, leaving for home and finally arriving at his destination and reunited with his family.

Next thing to a visit to the sanatorium the pictures furnish the best and most vivid idea of that institution and the work done there. It is the intention to show these pictures throughout the jurisdiction during the next couple of years.

In connection with the showing of the pictures, cards were last evening distributed to the spectators bearing the following, prepared by Dr. J. A. Rutledge, medical director and superintendent, who is now in the city and is understood to have no opposition for reappointment to his present position.

"My speech has already been given, having been thrown upon the screen. The most eloquent sermon that could be delivered—the most touching story that could be told—the one that reaches the hearts of men and carries them closer to the throne of God comes set from the lips of the man who came back, but is the one that is born in the hearts and flows through the lips of the woman and babes whom you saw waiting at the gate.

"Thirty-eight times each month by 25 different gates throughout the jurisdiction of Woodcraft there stand wives and mothers and children, looking through tear-dimmed eyes of loving expectancy, longingly down the road, for a form to appear which, they know, had it not been for the generous bounty of this society, would be but a memory tonight. If you and I were called to plead our case before the Final Judge of us all, we could enter 1,136 of these scenes as exhibit for the contest, for hath He not caused it to be said that 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, so have ye also done it unto Me?'"

EXPENSIVE WATCH GIVEN BOB SMITH

Woodman Director Remembered by Some of His Missouri Friends.

Director R. R. Smith of Brookfield, Mo., last evening was the happiest Woodman official in the city, with the possible exception of the few appointive officers who are sure of their jobs. It was all on account of a concrete expression of confidence and esteem from his Missouri friends in the form of an expensive gold watch, chain and Woodman charm.

The presentation took place quite informally at the New Harper while Mr. Smith was at dinner. The Missourians were seated at the same table by design on the part of the conspirators. State Senator F. M. McDavid of Springfield was the one who had been chosen to do the honors and he accomplished his task with such skill that the director was not sure till he had almost finished that it was not an appeal for more patronage for Missouri. When the watch was flashed upon him, however, Mr. Smith "tumbled" and made a heartfelt acknowledgment.

The gift was arranged for by Dr. W. P. Sparrow of Moberly, who gave perhaps half a hundred of Mr. Smith's friends a chance to contribute. Nearly all of them were friends of the disinterested sort who were glad of the opportunity to show their appreciation of a good fellow and a staunch and loyal Woodman.

The watch is engraved with Mr. Smith's initials and the Woodman motto "Fur autem vic." and bears also the legend "From your friends in Missouri."

MAN FINED FOR BEATING MULES

Nick Arion Pays $19.10 After Court Hears Stories of His Cruelty to Animals.

Stories of cruelty to mules were told in police court this morning and resulted in the assessment of a fine of $15 and costs upon Nick Arion, 1515 Fifth avenue.

T. B. Poole, a neighbor, swore out the complaint and testified that when he came home last evening he was told by neighbors that Arion was beating his mules cruelly. He stated that he went to Arion's barn and there saw him striking the animals with a heavy chain.

William Bloom, also a neighbor, stated that Arion did not take the harness from the animals for two days and two nights and that he beat them with a neck yoke.

Arion offered but a little denial of the charges. He paid $19.10.
