

SOCIAL EVENTS

STAAK-STONEKING.
Mrs. Ada Stoneking and John P. Stank of Sioux Rapids, Iowa, were united in marriage yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Allen, 3909 Fifteenth street, Moline. The Rev. W. B. Slater, of the First Christian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of relatives. They were attended by the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall of Rock Island. The bride wore a brown cloth traveling suit with a tailored hat to match and her attendant also wore brown. A profusion of American Beauty roses adorned the home. These roses, in a huge crystal basket, trimmed the table where a wedding dinner was served with places laid for 12. Following this Mr. and Mrs. Stank with Mrs. Stank's small daughter, Evelyn Stoneking, left for their new home in Sioux Rapids, where the bridegroom is a general merchant and prominent business man. The bride has been well known here as a nurse for the last seven years.

PUPILS IN RECITAL.
Pupils of the Auditory Art school appeared in recital last evening in the school auditorium, the following program being given:

Piano, "Der Freischutz" (Von Weber)—Margaret Chalk.
Piano, "La Traviata" (Verdi)—Charlotte Kuschmann.
Violin, "Intermezzo" (Carl Bohm)—Leo Deering, Ralph Coryn at the piano.
Violin, "Morning Prayer" (Tschalkowsky)—Carl Seida, Jr., Ralph Coryn at the piano.

W. R. C. HAS MEETING.
Women's Relief corp No. 66 held a meeting yesterday afternoon in Memorial hall in the court house and at this time accepted an invitation to attend a Lincoln anniversary celebration to be held Feb. 12 at the court house. All the patriotic organizations of the city have been asked to be the guests of the Daughters of Veterans at this time and special plans will be made for the event.

WEST END EMBROIDERY CLUB.
Mrs. Louis Grothe at her home, 795 Thirtieth avenue, acted as the hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the West End Embroidery club. The ladies passed a delightful afternoon together with their fancy work and chatting and the hostess served a nice lunch before the afternoon's close. The club ladies will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. T. E. Lenhart, 512 Sixth avenue.

OLIVE CINCH CLUB.
Members of the Olive Cinch club gathered yesterday at the home of Mrs. A. Garriga in Moline for the fortnightly meeting. The usual three tables of cinch were played and prizes went to Mrs. J. E. Kelley, first, a bronze statue; Mrs. Frank Mancker, Jr., a hand painted tray; Mrs. M. L. Sullivan, consolation, a hand painted plate, and Mrs. Frank Sperling, a hair receiver. Mrs. F. A. Potter was given the guest favor, an apron. A lunch was served in the dining room after the games. The ladies were invited to meet next time with Mrs. J. E. Kelley.

MRS. LINDORFF PUPILS IN RECITAL.
A number of the piano pupils of Mrs. Murrel Rose Lindorff entertained their parents and friends at a recital last evening at her home, 319 Twentieth street, the following participating in the program: Gertrude Carpenter, Ruth Karns, Edgar Hanna, Claire Hanna, Dorothy Pollock, Dorothy Fitch, Angela Searle, Ernest Lindorff, George Murray, Arvilla Shinski, Milton Johnson, Sarah Levinstein, Athel Lindorff, Beulah Fleugel, Lora Mogler, Blanche Reid, Henrietta Hanshaw and Cecelia Vogele. The pupils acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner. This evening other pupils of Mrs. Lindorff will give a recital also at her home.

SOCIETY CELEBRATES 11TH ANNIVERSARY.
The eleventh anniversary of the organization of the Ladies' Aid society of Alken street chapel was observed last evening when supper was served to members and their families in the chapel. A large number of people attended the affair and enjoyed a pleasant social time. The next regular meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Sophia Liedtke, 2455 Twentieth avenue, Jan. 27.

IVY CARD CLUB.
Ivy Card club members were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. W. Beck at her home in Moline. Three tables of 500 were played and to Mrs. Mass Voss, Mrs. Axel Christopher, Mrs. Henry Tappendorf and Mrs. Henry Gelder went the prizes in the games. A lunch was served at the conclusion of the games in the dining room. Mrs. Hegy Tappendorf will entertain in two weeks at her home in this city.

ROYAL CINCH CLUB.
Mrs. Albert Schrieber, 527 Sixteenth street, Davenport, acted as the hostess to the Royal Cinch club members yesterday afternoon, the time being devoted to games of cards in which Mrs. George Cardall, Mrs. Jessie Green and Mrs. Amelia Grotgeat took the prizes. A course dinner was served in the dining room after the games and the afternoon passed very pleasantly. Mrs. S. A. LaVany will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks at her home in this city.

JOLLY 500 CLUB.
Members of the Jolly 500 club were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Emory Mayfield at her home in Moline. In the games of 500 the prizes went to Miss Cora Claussen, Mrs. Peter Langbehn, Mrs. Fred Reusing and Mrs. Carl Wellnitz. A lunch was served in the dining room after the games had been played and the two ladies were invited to meet in two weeks with Mrs. D. W. Houslog in Moline.

D. O. V. CARD PARTY.
Dolly Madison tent Daughters of Veterans held a very successful card party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. R. Bramble, 522 Thirty-first street. Four tables of cinch were played and the prize winners were Mrs. John Tobin, Mrs. Gertrude Neiswender, and Mrs. Prichett. Refreshments were served after the games and a pleasant social time was enjoyed. The next regular meeting of the tent will be held Wednesday, Jan. 27 in Moline.

MEN AND BOYS' BANQUET TOMORROW.
Under the auspices of the Broadway Presbyterian church a men and boys banquet will be served tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. banquet hall. Rev. Dr. Silas E. Persons of New York will be the principal speaker of the evening and Rev. David A. Johnson will entertain with humorous readings. The affair is for all men and boys and they are invited to attend and participate in the pleasure of the evening.

HOWLETT-WALKER.
Miss Alta Walker, daughter of Mrs. Lucinda Walker of Moline and William Ellis Howlett, son of Mrs. Julia Howlett also of Moline were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock at a beautiful simple ceremony performed at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Walker, Sr., by Rev. P. C. Ladd of the First Congregational church. A company of 159 relatives and other friends, guests of the evening, were received by the grandparents, the mothers of the bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Christy of Des Moines. At the hour of the ceremony a trio composed of Mrs. Florence Friestat-Lee, violin; Miss Bessie Freistat, cello, and Miss Frances Desauiniers, harp, played the wedding march No. 2 by Sodermann. Six young people acted as ribbon bearers. Charlotte Walker, Robert Howlett, Louise, John, Elizabeth and Joseph Walker, the little girls being dressed alike in white frocks with pink sashes and hair ribbons. The groom and his best man, John Clark of Ann Arbor, came next and then came the bride's maid, Miss Esther Dunn, who wore a beautiful gown of gold satin with ruffles of gold lace made in the style of 1830 and trimmed with satin roses. She carried pink roses tied with tulle. The bride came last and she wore a lovely gown of ivory white satin trimmed in Venetian and rose point lace. She wore the full length veil that fell to the hem of the court train and was formed into a cap that was held at the hair with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

A wedding supper was served in the dining room after the ceremony, the bride's table having as its centerpiece a basket covered with southern smilax holding suburban roses. Festoons of smilax extended from the dome above to the corners of the table and at either end were crystal holders containing pink candles. The place cards were in pretty hand painted designs and the favors were lace baskets filled with pink candies. The other rooms of the house were decorated in suburban roses, candles alternating with pink and yellow shades and with a profusion of southern smilax and palms.

Mr. and Mrs. Howlett left last evening for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue broadcloth suit trimmed in fur. Her hat was dark blue velvet with flower trimmings. They will be at home after March 1 at 607 Twenty-third street, Moline. The bride attended the local schools, graduated from the Moline high school and from the Domestic Art school at Washington, D. C. Mr. Howlett is a graduate of the Michigan university and is connected with the Howlett Construction company of Moline. Guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Christy of Des Moines, Mrs. Davis and daughter Miss Marguerite of Reynolds, Mrs. Haefele, daughter Pluma and son Fred, Mrs. Wells, Frank Walte, Miss Pearl Waite and Cyrus Waite of Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Glasgow of Jonesville, Mich. and Mrs. Louis Howlett of Bay City, Mich., and Mrs. Allen Tyler of DeKalb, Ill.

TONN-MEES.
Miss Rose Mees of this city and Fred Tonn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tonn of 1315 West Seventh street, Davenport, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the parsonage of the German Lutheran church, Rev. Oscar Horn officiating at the ring ceremony. The bride's gown was made by Mrs. J. C. Willette of this city, the latter a sister of the bride. A wedding supper was served at the Willette home after the ceremony. The bride wore a white silk and lace dress, the full length veil and carried roses. Her attendant was dressed in blue messaline. Mr. and Mrs. Tonn will make their home at 1628 Twenty-fourth-and-a-half street in this city. Mr. Tonn is employed at the Sllvis shops.

MASKELL-OLSON.
Last evening at 8 o'clock took place the marriage of Miss Bessie Foster Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson, 4503 Eighth avenue, to George Maskell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Maskell of Seventh street, East Moline. The service was performed at Spencer Memorial Methodist church by the pastor Rev. W. H. Tope, who used the ring service, and it was witnessed by a company of friends who filled the edifice. The altar was beautifully trimmed to carry out the wedding colors, green and white, chosen by the bride. Bouquets of white roses, carnations, narcissus and festoons of smilax and banks of palms and ferns were used about the pulpit and altar and made a very attractive setting for the simple ceremony. At the hour of the wedding Everett Howes at the piano and the bride's brother, Chester Olson, violin, played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bridal party took places for the ceremony. During the service they played softly "Sweet Memories" and as a recession again played the march from Lohengrin. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Mabel Olson and the groom's best man was Louis Krauser of East Moline. The bride wore a lovely gown of light blue messaline made with trimmings of crepe de chine, lace and pearl ornaments. She wore the full length veil which was held at the hair with a wreath of lilies of the valley and smilax. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her attendant was dressed in white messaline with trimmings of lace and pearl ornaments and she carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held and a four course dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents where 48 friends were the guests. The house was profusely decorated in green and white, ferns, roses, carnations and narcissus being used. In the dining room the bride's table had as its centerpiece a big basket filled with white flowers and extending from the chandelier to the table were ropes of smilax, the smilax also being used on the cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Maskell left last evening for a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a grey suit with a black hat trimmed in pink feathers. They will be at home after Feb. 1 on Forty-eighth street, Moline, where a home is furnished ready for their occupancy. The bride attended the local school and graduated from the high school in the class of 1908. She taught at Briar Bluff for a short time and for the last four years has been a teacher of the fifth-second grade at Longfellow school. Mr. Maskell is an inspector at the Deere Harvester plant in East Moline.

Guests from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maskell of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jones and son Daniel of Green River, Ill., and the Messrs. Robertson of Alexis, uncles of the groom.

PARTY TO HONOR MISS DOOLEY.
Mrs. Delmar Dooley at her home, 4420 Eighth avenue, entertained at a party last evening to honor Miss Minerva Dooley of Bloomington, Ill. The evening diversion was 500 played at three tables with prizes going to Miss Hazel Lundahl, Adrian McBride and to the guest of honor. A buffet lunch was served after the games and closed a delightful evening.

SOCIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
The annual election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church parlors. This is also the annual dues day.
A hard times dancing party will be given by the South Rock Island Social club at Woodmen hall, South Rock Island, Saturday evening, Jan. 23. Bleuer's orchestra will give the dance program.

GENESEO
William Holden Tomlinson, a resident of Osco township for a great many years and for a year past a resident of this city, passed away at his home Sunday after an illness extending over a number of months from cancer of the stomach. He was born Nov. 25, 1846, in Holly, Oakland county, Mich., and came with his parents to Illinois in March, 1856, and in 1857 to Osco, where he resided until last February, when with his family he came to Geneseo. He was united in marriage March 4, 1873, to Miss Ellen Gibbs who survives with three children, Clinton W., Anawa, Iowa; Bessie E. and Mira E., at home; also one brother, D. C. Tomlinson of Osco. Funeral services were held from the late home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. F. E. Shull officiating. Burial was at Oakwood cemetery.

REYNOLDS ESTATE PROVES VALUABLE

Stories That It Was Insolvent Found Untrue as Will of Woman Is Probated.

$15,000 PERSONAL GOODS

Other Property, Including Homestead and Forty Acres of Farm Land, is Left.

Although there were stories current that the estate of the late Mrs. Amanda O. Reynolds, this city, was insolvent, according to the will admitted to probate today by Judge R. S. Bell, personal property to the value of $15,000 was left, as was the homestead at 2329 Fifth avenue, and 40 acres of land, both being valuable.

The principal bequest, it will be recalled, was that of giving the homestead over for a home for aged and helpless women in this city, the residence to be known as the "Amanda O. Reynolds Home." A board of trustees is named in the will to look after this bequest. The board is composed of H. D. Mack, H. H. Cleveland, H. E. Curtis, Mrs. J. F. Robinson, Mrs. E. W. Hurst, Mrs. H. S. Cable, Morris Heagy, H. S. Cable, and Mrs. H. D. Mack.

Son Remembered.

Twenty-one per cent of the estate is left to a son, Ben Reynolds, and Marcus Young and William Young. Three per cent is left to a number of nephews and nieces.

The library and some other furniture is bequeathed to Augustana college. The will is dated Feb. 6, 1913, and H. D. Mack and H. H. Cleveland are named administrators. John K. Scott and H. D. Mack were the witnesses.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am having a great deal of trouble with my hair. It is falling out dreadfully and there seems to be a little dandruff. I would be very thankful if you would tell me either of something inexpensive I could buy or of some home remedy.

(2) My hair is rather fine; do you think curling it on kid curlers is injurious?

(3) Do you think twisting the hair tight and trimming off the short hairs would benefit it any? Or would it be better to comb it down the back and cut it off even?

(4) How often should the hair be washed?

THANK YOU.
(1) Falling hair can be treated by the individual, but the services of a member of the family are a help. Try massaging every night. Go over the whole scalp with the tips of the fingers in a rotary motion, and put the following tonic on at the same time that it may be well rubbed in: Alcoholic tincture of cantharides, 1 dr.; tincture of capsicum, 1/2 dr.; nux vomica, 2 dr.; cocoa oil, 3/4 oz.; cologne, 2 1/2 oz.

(2) Not unless you wind it so tight as to break it.

(3) If hair is split at the ends it is a good plan to trim it off.

(4) Not oftener than once in three weeks.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it all right for a girl of 16 to go with a boy of 18 if her mother and brother don't care? I bring him to the house.

(2) When I go any place with him he always wants me to go and have something to eat, but I say no.

(3) How would you make two boys be good friends? One doesn't like the other and always talks to me about him.

(4) Would you keep steady company or go with a boy just once in a while?

THANK YOU.
(1) A girl of 16 is too young to go with a boy except to an occasional party or some such thing.

(2) You do right. You are too young to be going out to dinner with boys.

(3) You can refuse to listen to any unkind talk and can have a gathering of young people at your house and try to get them better acquainted.

(4) Answered in first question.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have worked hard with music five or six years, especially piano, thinking I could better myself. I tried to get a position playing in a theatre, was promised a job and then afterward positively refused. Would you give up and go to work in the shops?

DISCOURAGED.

No discouraged person can succeed. I know that sounds hard, but by taking yourself in hand and using your will power you can keep from "slumping." As you have been disappointed in getting a position in a musical line, take whatever offers. Do it cheerfully, believing always that before long a position more to your liking will come. Keep up your practice and attract success by a bright, hopeful attitude. You can do it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My evenings are very hard to while away because I never have anything to do and would be glad if you would name four or five card games and tell how to play 'em.

ISAAC F.

Why do you not go to the library and become interested in some good reading or take up a correspondence course to improve yourself and your prospects?

At the library you can get a copy of Hoyle's rules for all card games, with instructions for playing.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

UP-TO-DATE RECIPES.
Pig's Foot Scrapple—Very good, nice for lunches. Singe and scrape the pig's feet perfectly clean, and boil very tender in salted water. Use a generous portion of tenderloin; when boiled very tender, remove all bones and put through a food chopper; strain liquid you boiled the meat in, add vinegar, salt and pepper to taste. Ready for use when cold.

Carp, Jewish Style—Clean, salt and pepper carp, cut into two-inch pieces and let stand. Have one carrot, one parsley root and a little cabbage; all this cut fine like noodles. Chop fine six or seven onions. Put quart of butter in kettle, add spoonful of water, simmer vegetables and onions first; when tender, add carp and simmer half hour. When done, form fish nicely on platter, garnish all around with vegetables, pour over sauce and serve.

Carp in Jelly, Jewish Style—Simmer carp, following instructions given above, adding two or three leaves of gelatine soaked first in a little cold water. Boil gelatine with fish for 15 minutes. Strain vegetables, pour clear sauce over fish and set in cold place to thicken. Serve with olive oil and vinegar. Both of these dishes are cheap and delicious.

Apple Potpie—Peel, core and slice tart apples as you would for pies, until you have about three pints of sliced apples. Then take one quart flour sifted with two teaspoons baking powder. Add one heaping table-two teaspoons salt.

spoon lard and one teaspoon soft Mix well, add water to make soft dough, roll out dough about one-fourth inch thick, then cut in squares about three inches wide. Now place in a large granite or aluminum kettle one pint of boiling water and a lump of butter. Cover bottom of kettle with layer of apples, add layer of dough, and so on until all is used, having a layer of dough on top. Add just a little water on each layer of apples as you fill kettle. Now cover and boil 25 or 30 minutes. Serve with rich milk and sugar. When there is any left over put a little butter and lard in a skillet, turn potpie in this and fry brown, adding a little sweet cream just before serving.

Devil's Food Cake—One cup granulated sugar, two tablespoons cocoa, one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon lard, one cup sour or buttermilk, one teaspoon soda, 1 1/2 cups flour (sifted); flavor with vanilla. Beat one cup pulverized sugar, two tablespoons cocoa, enough hot coffee so it will spread easily (about two tablespoons); vanilla flavoring.

BUTTER ECONOMY.
By using the following recipe one pound of butter will double its weight and cut your butter bill almost in half:
One pound butter, two pint bottles milk, one heaping teaspoon gelatine.
