

SOCIAL EVENTS

EXHIBIT WILL BE INTERESTING.

What promises to be a most interesting exhibit will be shown tomorrow afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. C. Carter, 2969 Sixteenth avenue, when articles contributed to the Needlework guild will be displayed. A committee, composed of Mrs. F. S. Brough, chairman; Mrs. I. S. White, Mrs. Mary D. Montgomery, Mrs. C. L. Walker and Mrs. F. H. First, was appointed early last spring by the Helpers' circle of King's Daughters to have in charge the organization of the Needlework guild, which is peculiar in the fact that there are neither officers, fees nor meetings and the only requirement for membership is the donation of three articles of a kind to be used for some charity which the giver may signify. Many people in the city have expressed their desire to contribute to the guild, with the result that a great variety of articles has been handed in. These will be shown at Mrs. Carter's home tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock and continuing throughout the afternoon. The public has been issued an invitation to attend and view the array of articles. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon and there is no charge for admission to the home. The giver of each article may express a preference where it is to go, either to the Associated Charities, the Visiting Nurse association, Bethany home, West End Settlement, or certain individuals. A number of ladies have decided upon a certain sum of money to be expended and with this money have been able to procure a large number of useful and suitable articles, and the exhibit will undoubtedly show a great variety of articles as there are people to contribute.

C. Danlap on Ninth street, South Rock Island. They were in addition to the members a large number of visitors present to enjoy the day. The ladies occupied themselves with their sewing and they were served with a nice lunch. The society will meet in two weeks at the chapel when a coffee will be held.

WARM PRAISE FOR MRS. PENNY-BACKER.

Mrs. Perry V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs has received high praise in all sections of the country where she has appeared in the promotion of women's club work. Local women are looking forward with great pleasure to her visit to the city Saturday afternoon when she will be the guest of the Rock Island Woman's club at the Illinois theatre, and to which meeting all the clubs of the tri-city and community have been invited. Admission however, will be made upon presentation of the club membership ticket. Of Mrs. Pennybacker the Women's Club magazine says:

"She is a notable orator, yet without she is not a vocal woman, but rather given to listening—both in public and in private—to weighing her words and to withholding them till the predetermined moment for utterance arrives. The people of her own south-west have set her forward as one of their chosen leaders since her earliest womanhood. Her service to them has been along educational lines, which, in a new country, are always among the most pressing and the most vital.

"Her work as a promoter of the woman's club movement is also in line with her life-long efforts to further the intellectual development of her section. Very early in the history of that movement she realized what it meant and what it promised to become; and side by side with the pioneer work which she was doing for the development of the public school system, went her pioneer work of establishing and encouraging women's clubs in Texas, and giving them a trend toward solid and earnest study.

"By her husband's death in 1899, she was brought face to face with the duty of learning the ways of the business world in order to administer her own and children's financial interest intelligently, and the experience, heavy and distracting though it must have been, ended by developing in her that practical business sense which has made her services as a member of the board of the general federation of such special value.

"Her career exemplifies the best in the new woman's movement, and is a reassuring answer to those who still ask whether it is tending. Here is one of its most brilliant leaders helping to carry it forward by the force of those womanly qualities dearest to the world. Her successes and distinctions are as much the logical outcome of the faithful and intelligent discharge of the duty nearest at hand, day by day, and hour by hour, as they are of her brilliant gifts and widely extended knowledge. There is a big mother-heart in her little body which has been the prompting force behind her efforts to make life better, sweeter and more beautiful for all of the world about her, and has impressed upon all that she has done, a character splendidly maternal.

"Probably no General Federation president has received more pleasant letters of commendation concerning the work she has done. The newspapers have been particularly generous with their space and their words of praise, and a number of the leading magazines have recognized the importance of the work being done and the prominence of the leading personality in its accomplishment. Mrs. Pennybacker has won for herself a warm place in the hearts of newspaper reporters, because she is always so approachable, so glad to help, although ever modest when it comes to her telling of her own achievements, and particularly appreciative when one has done his best with the facts available."

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am going with a young man and I like him very much. For the past two weeks he has not called on me. I have many other gentlemen friends who would like to call on me.

(1) Do you think I should give him another chance or should I receive other callers?

(2) Is it proper to correspond with a young man you never saw?

MAMMA'S DARLING.

Two weeks isn't long for him to stay away. Why not let him call if he wants to and let other boys who like you call too? It is all right to have more than one boy friend, you know.

(2) No.

In reply to "Thank You": Yes, she is his common-law wife since he has let himself pass as her husband. You ought to forget him, because he is not the kind of a man you should let yourself care for.

If F. M. will send a stamped and addressed envelope I will reply to her personally.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Is it wrong to accept jewelry as a present from a boy? I had known him for about three months. He is a very gentlemanly boy about my age.

(2) What is most desirable to give a boy as a present?

(3) Is it wrong to carry on a correspondence with boy friends?

(4) How old should a girl be before she goes with fellows?

R. D.

(1) Yes, it is, wrong unless you are engaged.

(2) Nothing.

(3) No.

(4) Seventeen or 18. It is all right for a girl to have boy playfellows at any age.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) What should I eat to get fat? I weigh 109 pounds and am 5 feet 6 inches tall.

(2) How can I get rid of a few freckles?

(3) I have dark brown hair and eyes. What colors can I wear best?

L. C. S.

(1) Drink three pints of milk a day and take a tablespoonful of olive oil after each meal. Sleep nine hours a night with your windows wide open, and don't worry.

(2) Two drams oxide of zinc, one-quarter dram suboxide of bismuth, one and a half drams of glycerine. Spread the paste on the freckles at night, before going to bed. In the morning remove what remains with a little powdered borax and almond oil.

(3) Red, dark blue and green, yellow, and perhaps pink and light blue.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have been going with a fellow for nearly five months. Two girls, who live near, are very jealous of me and they tell lots of untruths about us. These tales are gradually becoming more serious. Do you think they will be dangerous to my friend's and my own reputation?

(2) Should I ask them to stop or just ignore them, as I have not

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no yawning, snuffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils. Let it penetrate through every air passage of the head, soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuff-up and miserable.
