Executor's Notice. Estate of Hans Jensen, deceased. The undersigned having been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of Hans Jensen, late of the county of Rock Island, state of Illinois, deceased, hereby gives notice that she will appear before the Hon. Benjamin Bell, judge of the probate court of Rock Island county, at the probate court room, in the City of Rock Island, at the February term, on the first Monday in February next, at which time all persons having claims against said estate are notified and requested to attend for the purpose of having the same adjusted.

All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the undersigned.

Dated third day of December, A. D. 1915.

MARIA HELENA JENSON, Executrix.

Natural Life.

The legal phrase "natural life" is a sort of a puzzle to some people, who wonder if the law recognizes any "unnatural life." It does not, but the old common law did recognize an unnatural death as well as a natural one. When a man or woman takes the monastic vow people still speak of it as "leaving the world." In medieval times that was considered a form of death, and the phrase "natural life" came into use to describe an existence terminated by the grave, not by the convent or the abbey.—New York Mail.

Home Duties.

"Be it ever so humble, there is no place like home." When you want consolation go home. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with unusual brilliancy go home and light up the whole household.
