WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mason of 229 East Fourteenth street, Davenport, are among the favored few to whom is given the opportunity of celebrating half a century of married life in which the family home has been located in but one place.

They will observe their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, Sept. 26, with a family dinner at the evening at the Outing club, where guests will be their children and grandchildren. The wedding of 50 years ago took place in Toronto, Canada, Sept. 26, 1866, and the wedding trip was to Davenport. Here Mr. Mason founded the Mason Carriage Works, gradually building up a business which was for years the most extensive of its kind in this vicinity. The original company, grown into the still larger corporation, handling motors as well as horse vehicles, and from this has been the outgrowth of the Mason Garage Co., of which Mr. Mason is also the president.

Mr. Mason has as his associates in the big business which he founded, his two sons, Charles F. and Webster Mason. The only daughter of the family is Mrs. Charles Grik, wife of one of Davenport's prominent attorneys. There are 10 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason lost their eldest son, Wesley, who died when but little over a year old.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason are both of English descent. Mrs. Mason was born in Portsmouth, England, her family having come from the Isle of Wight. She came to Canada with her parents when eight years old. Mr. Mason was born near Toronto, and he lived there until he came to Davenport to make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason have the past several years been spending their winters in the south and they will follow their usual custom this season, leaving when the cold weather sets in for the more inviting climate of Florida.

M. & K. Flooded With New Goods

Great Shipments Arrived Today From Eastern Markets to Be Added to the Already Enormous Stock of Women's Ready-to-wear Apparel.

New models in suits, dresses and coats literally poured into the receiving room of M. & K. this morning and as soon as they could be taken from their tissue paper wrappings they were rushed to the various departments and have been duly admired and snapped up by Monday shoppers.

Each and every garment is a stunning masterpiece of the designers and made of the exclusive models arranged in the original designs of Parisienne creators of fashion.

M. & K. now has a larger and more exclusive collection of women's apparel than they have ever before offered and consequently there are a great many styles to choose from and the range of prices is equally large with a particularly good collection of suits in all the favored materials at $25 and another lot of good-looking suits as low as $14.95, $19.95, $22.50, while there are some very distinctively smart models for $35, $45, $48 and up to $65, $75 and $95.

Creators have set the sign of approval on the long suit jacket for fall and winter and this criterion is being closely followed in suits at all prices. Wool velour in plain colors and novelty checks, men's serge, broadcloth, Polart twill, gabardine and the very new and elegant materials, Bolivia and kitten's ear cloth, are the fashionable fabrics employed in making the suits and each garment shows that touch of individuality for which the well-dressed woman seeks.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) We are two girls 14 years old. Are we too young to wear suits? We are large for our age.

(2) Are we too young to have boy friends?

(3) Do girls have to go to high school before they go to college? If not, which would be best?

(4) Are we too old to start to take piano lessons?

(5) Are we too old to have our hair hanging down in curls?

(6) What would be nice to make our sisters for Christmas? We can embroider and do tatting.

(7) Is a girl of 22 too young to get married?

(8) Do you think it is all right for us to have a hope box, and what should we put in it?

TWO BASHFUL GIRLS.

(1) You are rather too young to wear suits, but if you are large you would probably look all right in them.

(2) Yes.

(3) They have to go to high school before they can go to college.

(4) No.

(5) You are rather old.

(6) Embroider underwear, towels, or make handkerchiefs with tatting edges.

(7) No.

(8) You are too young to begin a hope box. When you are 18 or 20 there will be time enough to think of that.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are 19 years of age and have been troubled with a skin disease. Will you please tell us how to keep our skins fresh.

TWO GIRLS.

An occasional steam bath for the complexion will help keep it fresh, but by doing this regularly you open the pores and allow them to collect dust. This, with the oily secretions in the pores forms blackheads.

Instead of a steam bath, use a good soap and warm water to cleanse the face at night, or a cleansing cream. Afterward dash cold water on the face to close the pores. The following formula makes a good cleansing cream:

Two ounces of white wax, two ounces of spermaceti, 12 ounces of sweet almond oil, two ounces of distilled water, two ounces of glycerine and 29 grains of salicylic acid.

For a skin food the following is recommended: Four ounces of oil of sweet almonds, six drams of spermaceti, six drams of white wax, two drams of borax, one and one-half ounces of glycerine, 15 drops of orange flower water, two ounces of orange blossom water, 15 drops of oil of neroli, fifteen drops of bigarade (orange skin), and 15 drops of oil of pimento.

Melt the first three ingredients, add the glycerine to the orange flower water and dissolve the borax in the mixture; then pour slowly into the blend of fats, stirring continuously.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Several years ago I went with a young man who was a model young man in every way. I became engaged to him and was the happiest person in the world, but through a misunderstanding we broke the engagement. Soon after this happened I started to go with another young man and I thought a great deal of him and finally he asked me to be his wife. I told him I didn't love him enough to marry him and consequently we broke up. The first fellow is still unmarried, and furthermore, does not go with anyone. He has also said that he cares only for me and will never marry.

I admit I am to blame in a way for our quarrel and I beg to ask if you think it would be all right to drop him a line asking him to call. He is a young man any girl would be proud of and he is kind and considerate of everyone. He is 28 and I am 25.

DOROTHY.

It won't be necessary or advisable for you to drop him a line, but the next time you meet him you might invite him to call some evening. If he still loves you it won't be necessary for you to make any further advances.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

OYSTER DELIGHT.

Skin and slice three large tomatoes. Seed and slice three green peppers. Peel and slice three onions (medium size). Dice three slices of bacon and fry brown; add the onions, peppers and tomatoes and let fry slowly in the bacon grease, taking care not to burn. Take one pint of solid oysters and let stew in their liquor until the edges curl, then add to the cooked tomatoes, etc., adding salt to season. Serve very hot. Very delicious for lunch or dinner; in winter, canned tomatoes may be used.

OYSTER OMELET.

Allow one egg for six medium sized oysters. Place the oysters in a pan and let them simmer long enough to draw out the liquor, then drain and chop fine. Beat the eggs very light, yolks and whites separately. To the yolks add one tablespoon of the liquor for each egg, a little salt and the minced oysters. Beat together, stir in the whites lightly and turn into a hot buttered pan. As soon as the under side is brown roll up and turn out on a platter.

PEACH DISHES.

Peach Coffee Cake—When bread dough is light and ready for the tin, take enough dough to fill a pie tin when rolled out one inch thick. Work tablespoon of sugar into dough, roll out and put in greased tin; let rise; when light, slice peaches and stick into dough close together, sprinkle with sugar and a little cinnamon. Bake half hour.

Peach Cobbler—Make rich biscuit dough; have it one inch thick. Butter baking dish, put in dough, cover top thick with sliced peaches, sprinkle good with sugar, add a little cinnamon on top of sugar. Bake half hour. Serve warm.

MEXICAN PICKLES.

Select four quarts green tomatoes, six large peppers, three onions, all chopped fine. Put a layer of this mixture in an earthen jar, then a layer of salt, alternately, and let remain overnight. Then drain the water off, and add one tablespoon each of pepper-corns, mustard seed and whole cloves. Simmer the whole for 20 minutes in three pints of good vinegar, and set away in a cool place. After three weeks pour off the vinegar and add as much fresh. In another week the pickles will be ready for use.
