"Gabs" Sleighting Party.
Augustana's live male organization known as the "Gabs," last night invited the fair sex to participate with them in the delights of a college sleighting party. The bunch left the corner of Thirty-eighth street and Seventh avenue at 8:15 and filled the atmosphere of the twin-cities with merriment until about 10 o'clock when the sleigh stopped at the home of Robert Olmsted, 812 Thirtieth street, one of the members. Here refreshments and a general good time closed the evening and the band broke up with a rousing yell for the "Gabs."

Pre-nuptial Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Ahlene, 3119 Fifteenth street C. Moline, entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. M. Ahlene, 1832 Sixteenth avenue, in honor of Mrs. Lillian B. Lee of Moline and Paul Barlow of Rock Island, who are to be married today. Five hundred was played at four tables and high score trophies were won by Mrs. C. Keiner and Alfred J. Comber, consolation favors going to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Allen. After the games refreshments were served.

Royal Daddum Orchestra Soloist.
Royal Daddum of New York City, baritone soloist with the New York Philharmonic, Minneapolis and Cincinnati orchestras, will be the soloist with the Tri-City Symphony orchestra next Monday evening at the Curtis opera house in Davenport. This is the fifth in the series of concerts given by the orchestra this season under the direction of Ludwig Becker. The orchestra numbers include:
Overture "Freischutz" (Weber).
Symphony No. 4 (Tschaiakowsky).
"Dance Macabre" (Saint-Saens).
Ballet music from "The Queen of Sheba" (Goldmark). Cello solo by A. Peterson.
Largo (Handel). Violin. Will Paarmann. Harp. Mrs. R. C. Lyons.
"Funeral March of the Marionettes" (Gounod).
Serenade (Burgmeier).
"Arabesque Printiers" (Lacome).
"Marche Militaire" (Schubert).
Mr. Daddum is an American trained baritone and his reputation for coast to coast is entirely due to the great success that he has achieved in many recitals. Musical critics speak of his voice as of "remarkable sweetness, ample power and sonority." The program as a whole promises to be one of the very best of the series so far given.

FASHION HINT

This dress may look a bit "doty," but it's smart just the same. It has what they call a tunic and it will be all the cry this summer. Blue and white polka dot voile is the material and the tunic part is in white with blue dots while the rest has white dots on a field of blue. The sleeves are completely white and there is a very attractive belt of white satin.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a mother 45 years old and I have such interesting experiences that I think I ought to write them and see if I can get them in the newspaper. I never go anywhere that something doesn't happen to me. My experiences are not big, but they are simple and human. I thought I might call my articles "Mother's Meanderings."

What do you think of the idea? I think that I have a literary sense and would be good in newspaper work. Of course I have my husband and little girl to take care of and I could not give all my time to writing. What shall I do?
MARRY M.
Write a few of your stories and submit them to the editor of the newspaper. He will be frank with you and tell you whether they are suited to magazine work. Perhaps you could write stories that would be accepted. It would certainly pay you to try. It is difficult to get into newspaper or magazine writing, however.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 19 years.
(1) I am well formed except my ankles, which are too large in proportion to my size. Is there any way in which I can reduce them?
(2) I have light hair and blue eyes and am fair skinned. Would taupe be becoming to me?

THANK YOU.
(1) You cannot reduce your ankles to any great extent. It may help some to exercise your feet. Point your toe and roll your foot from the ankle. Do this frequently, but not so long that it will strain or tire your foot.
(2) Taupe is usually becoming to blondes or brunettes, but it is usually more becoming to brunettes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 19.
(1) I have very stingy hair. What can I do to make it get thicker, longer and curly?

(2) Will cream take off freckles and liver spots? How long will it take?
(3) What can I do to take roughness and redness out of my hands?
(4) Are patent leather belts stylish this winter?
(5) What will take lint off a black plush coat?
MARIE

(1) A good hair tonic is made of 20 grains of eucosol, three drams of sesame oil and one-half ounce of white refined wool fat. Apply it in small portions to the roots of the hair and massage the scalp thoroughly with the finger tips. There is nothing that will make the hair curl naturally.
(2) It is not the policy of my column to advertise or investigate patent medicines. If people claim to remove freckles and liver spots it would do no harm to try—I am sure of that. I cannot say how long it will take to remove them, probably a long time, because freckles are very stubborn and in some cases can never be removed.
(3) Make a hand lotion of 20 drops of carbolic acid, one ounce of glycerine, two ounces of bayrum and enough perfume to give it an agreeable fragrance. Apply after washing when the hands are moist.
(4) They are worn some, but they are not as fashionable as they have been in other years.
(5) You will have to brush it with a stiff whisk broom and pick off what remains.

The United States Food Administration says

EAT MORE CORN—The surplus of corn the past year is greater than was the entire year's wheat crop. Corn cannot be economically shipped to Europe. We Must Eat More Corn Here.

Corn is more than food to us; it is a symbol. Staying right at home, it plays a colossal part in the war, for it sends the wheat abroad. Corn is the home guard among food products. Wheat is the soldier of the line.

Corn isn't one food, it is a dozen, cereal, bread, vegetable and dessert. It has more food value in it dollar for dollar, than meat or eggs. It is plentiful and its use is a patriotic service.

EAT MORE CORN.
