LOCAL WOMAN IS STRUCK BY AUTO

A Mrs. Huntington, 1614 Twelfth street, was struck and hurled to the pavement by a machine driven by a Mrs. Neustadt of Davenport at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The accident occurred on Second avenue between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. With a companion she attempted to cross the avenue when the machine struck her. She was carried into the Hayes clothing store and a doctor summoned. Her injuries were said to be slight. She was removed to her home by Mrs. Neustadt.

ICE STATEMENTS ARE SUBMITTED

According to local ice dealers information as to prevailing ice prices will not be submitted to the city officials unless requested. Statements from individual dealers have already been presented to Dr. W. E. Taylor, county food administrator. Dr. Taylor will conduct an investigation following which he will submit a detailed report on existing conditions to the food administration authorities at Washington. Dealers asserted today all rumors and statements to the effect that they had been approached by the city officials in this connection and that they would offer cost statements to the city are false.

ARGUS CARRIER SHOWS BRAVERY

Mack Ward Endavors To Stop Runaway Horse and Has Narrow Escape From Death.

SAYS HE WILL GET BETTER

Although No Wounds Are Visible Doctors Fear Skull of Lad May Be Injured.

Mack Ward, aged 11, an Argus carrier, son of Mrs. Frances Ward, 1607 Fourteenth-and-a-half street, narrowly escaped death yesterday afternoon when a horse which he was holding shied and threw him to the pavement causing serious injuries to his head.

He had succeeded in stopping the horse which was traveling at a rapid rate west on Thirteenth avenue. While he was holding the horse a dog snapped at the horse's rear hoofs. The horse made a lunge at the same time throwing Ward to the pavement.

He was removed to his home and it was necessary to call two physicians to attend him. Although there are no visible wounds it is feared by the doctors that the fall caused injury to his skull. However, he will fully recover the doctors say.

Hitched to Hazy. The horse was hitched to a buggy and belonged to a Rock Island woman. Mrs. Ward said today that the woman was attempting to tie the horse when it broke loose and ran away. The lad had then succeeded in stopping it.

ALLEGED KEEPER GETS SENTENCE

Mrs. F. O. Fee, 606 Sixth street, was arrested last night by Patrolman Libman, charged with keeping a disorderly house. Her daughter was arrested also.

At the hearing in police court, witnesses failed to prove the charge. Two roomers at the Fee house testified, one claiming that at the request of a stranger at the carnival grounds in Moline, he purchased a pint bottle of whisky from Mrs. Fee for $2.50. This charge was denied by the woman.

According to the police, the woman is a police character, having been arrested several times before. She was given 30 days in the county jail by Magistrate Smith this morning on a vagrancy charge. Her daughter, in charge of Police Matron Mrs. Anna Kirkman, was taken to county court, where she probably will be declared delinquent.
