

THEATRE

In the Movies.
Spencer Square—Tonight, Alice Brady in "The Ordeal of Rosetta"; official war review; Mack Sennett comedy.

Majestic—Tonight, Sessue Hayakawa in "His Birthright"; Screen Telegram, Sunday and Monday, Fatty Arbuckle, Buster Keaton and Al St. John in "The Cook"; Vivian Martin in "Her Country First."

Fifth Avenue—Tonight, Vivian Martin in "Little Miss Optimist"; Sunday, Walker Whiteside in "The Belgian."

At the Fifth Avenue.

Harold Lockwood plays a dual role in "Lend Me Your Name," the Metro All-Star Series picture which will be featured on the program of the Fifth Avenue theatre Sunday. "Lend Me Your Name" is a farce comedy and the story begins when the Earl of Millington is advised of the coming from Europe of his domineering wife, Sophronia, and to escape her he arranges to trade identities with his double, Warren Ellis, a second story man. The complications start with the arrival of Sophronia and she is further delighted when the earl and his double meet the same girl, Rosalind, who is played by the star's leading lady, Pauline Curley. As the earl is married and Ellis is single, the matter of each towards the girl is widely contrasted and general confusion results.

At the Majestic.

There will be a great big double feature program at the Majestic on Sunday and Monday when a roaring comedy and a splendid drama are to be featured. The comedy will be the very latest effort of Fatty Arbuckle, Al St. John and Buster Keaton entitled "The Cook," and the drama will be Vivian Martin in "Her Country First." In "The Cook," the versatile Fatty has utilized his powers to the last degree to obtain laughs and there are so many side-splitting scenes that one wonders how it is possible for a comedian to think of so many different things. Al St. John and Buster Keaton, a pair of acrobatic comedy stars, are aiding for Fatty. Then there is Teddy the dog, who also makes the audiences laugh with his many antics. Teddy is the only bouncer who can clean up the obstreperous Al St. John when the latter comes into the cafe with a pair of revolvers and starts out on a cleanup job. In the dramatic end of the program Miss Martin will have a splendid role in "Her Country First," the part in fact, being the most important from a dramatic standpoint that she has had for a long time. Tuesday and Wednesday brings the initial effort of John Emerson and Anita Loose for themselves in the field of photoplay endeavor. Miss Loose will be remembered as the clever writer of the Douglas Fairbanks pictures. She is now acting as script writer for Fatty Arbuckle, who directed Fairbanks, is now directing for the Loose concern. The star is Shirley Mason, assisted by Ernest True, and the play is "Come On In," a fine title and a lively entertaining picture.

Tonight brings Sessue Hayakawa, the celebrated Japanese player, to the Majestic in "His Birthright," a powerful dramatic subject. Hayakawa is known for his ability in tense dramas.

At the Spencer.

The management of the Spencer has provided three especially strong and interesting bills for its patrons the coming week. Geraldine Farrar in "The Turn of a Wheel," comes tomorrow for three days and eastern critics pronounce her latest production an exceptional one for the display of her talents. Alice Brady follows Wednesday, and this popular star should play to crowded houses in "Find the Women." Douglas Fairbanks finishes the week's bookings in "He Comes Up Smiling." Fairbanks never fails to please his admirers and in this, his latest effort, he appears at his best.

At the Palace.

If variety is the spice of life then the new bill at the Palace theatre, Moline, opening tomorrow matinee, has all the qualifications for it. As the feature attraction Jonia and her Hawaiians will hold the top-notch position. Jonia, "the pearl of Hawaii" was Princess Lei Lolekani in the days when royalty held sway in the hands of the ukulele. In her company are five real

FATTY AT THE MAJESTIC

Hawaiians, who are pastmasters when singing Hawaiian songs and dancing are considered. Taken all in all Jonia should prove a decided hit with the Palace audiences.

Charles Kenna, who is known from coast to coast, will offer his clever monologue on a street fakir, which character is well known to every man, woman and child. Kenna has a line of talk that is exasperatingly funny and should prove to be the laugh producer of the bill.

Frear-Baggett and Frear, three clever chaps, who stand alone as comedy entertainers, will offer their comedy, baseball idiosyncrasies, which can be counted on as sure-fire entertainment.

Haddon and Norman in a comedy oddity and Neulusso and Herley in their original versatile novelty will complete the vaudeville program while the exclusive Palace feature, the allied war review, will again hold the picture portion of the bill. The war review is filled with the absolutely authentic events, showing the big scenes of the recent great drive.

Opening Thursday the Palace has booked Vitagraph's wonder serial, "The Fight for Millions," with William Duncan and Edith Johnson in the title roles. "The Fight for Millions" will be shown at the Palace every Thursday, Friday and Saturday as an extra added attraction.

At the Columbia.

A musical act of superb quality headlines the new bill at the Columbia theatre, Davenport, starting tomorrow afternoon. It is the Pereria sextet, with Paul Pereria, the famous Portuguese violinist. As a musical offering the attraction has hardly been surpassed this season.

Sid Lewis, the original "nut" in "Let Him Rave," should provide much opportunity for laughter. Sid is plumb loco, as they say out west, and his act is about the sanest cure for the blues that has yet been discovered.

In "Extravagance" Phyllis Gilmore—Victor Browne and company present a comedy playlet that is about as bright and breezy as they may get.

Possessed of personality and "pep" Kimball and Stuart, a man and woman duo, purvey 15 minutes of song and talk that is all up to the minute.

An original iron jaw wire sensation is the contribution of the new bill at the Columbia next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It all happens in Alaska and gives William Duncan, already a big favorite with local audiences the great opportunities of his career. "A Fight for Millions."

What is said to be the most romantic and thrilling serial picture of the day is "A Fight for Millions," the first chapter of which is to be seen at the Columbia next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It all happens in Alaska and gives William Duncan, already a big favorite with local audiences the great opportunities of his career. "A Fight for Millions."

Save gas and buy bonds! Every gasless Sunday saves the nation 7,000,000 gallons, worth $1,750,000 in cash. Seven gasless Sundays—from Sept. 1 to the end of the drive, if the rule holds good that long—will mean 49,000,000 gallons, or $12,500,000!

Every cent of money saved by motorists in Rock Island county must go into Liberty bonds. That is the announcement of Chairman Frank Mixer of the county executive committee. In this way the gasless Sunday rule will be a two-edged sword for the government—it will save gasoline and at the same time put added dollars into the nation's treasury.

For the entire country, seven days' saving of gas will put motorists in a position to buy Liberty bonds which will—
Clothe 122,500 soldiers or sailors.
Feed 122,500 fighting men for one year.
Buy 61,150 horses or mules.
Pay 408,000 privates a full month's wages.
Buy 40,800 depth bombs.
It's well worth thinking about, isn't it?

President in Special Appeal Urges All To Subscribe All Possible To New Loan.

(By Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States.)
Again the government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first until now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

Sabbath Drive Is Set Ahead a Week by Local Workers

While Oct. 6 is the official date of national Liberty loan Sunday, the Rock Island county organization has planned to have its Liberty loan Sunday one week earlier, on Sept. 29, and has requested all ministers in the county to cooperate in this patriotic movement.
This change in date is due to the fact that according to the plans of the county executive committee, the campaign here is expected to be over long before Oct. 6. As a consequence, the local managers wish to have the influence of the sermons preached on Liberty Sunday make its effect felt in the first days of the drive.
As this county, among many others in Illinois, is planning to have its full quota raised by Monday following the opening of the drive, the ministers in all the churches have been asked to preach special sermons of a patriotic character Sept. 29. Through this and other channels, every effort is being made to impress on the people the necessity of prompt action in putting the fourth Liberty loan over quickly.

COUPLE HELD TO FEDERAL GRAND JURY UNDER BOND

At a hearing Thursday afternoon before United States Commissioner C. L. Walker, Pearl Miller, notorious character of the underworld, and her husband, were bound over to the federal grand jury under $2,000 bonds each.
The woman was arrested by a special government operative at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, several days ago. She was brought to Rock Island where she has long been wanted for violating government vice zone regulations established about the arsenal.

Three of the Best Stars in Pictures in Their Latest Productions Will Be Shown This Week. A Real Treat
Sunday, Monday and Tuesday
GERALDINE FARRAR

"The Turn of a Wheel"

Critics Say It Is the Best Play in Which She Has Ever Appeared
Note What the Papers Say
New York Tribune—Geraldine Farrar made her first appearance as a Goldwyn star at the Strand yesterday in a picture called "The Turn of the Wheel." We like Miss Farrar in this better than in any of her previous pictures. . . . She (Miss Farrar) is particularly good in her big emotional moments, and she handles the scene with Hassard Short, when she is trying to wrest his secret from him, in a masterly way. The director, Reginald Barker, should be blessed, too, for his well-sustained scenes. Miss Farrar has an excellent cast and support. Violet Heming looked as beautiful as only Violet Heming can look, in Bertha Grey, the erring woman who is more sinned against than sinning. Herbert Rawlinson is the hero who is about to end it all after he has lost his fortune at Monte Carlo. Percy Mar mont is Violet Heming's husband and Hassard Short is her lover. . . . Among the visitors at Monte Carlo we discovered several well known actors.
