Germany is a high protective tariff country and wages are much lower there than in free trade England.

The same is true of France, Austria, Italy, Russia and Spain.

all high tariff and low wage paying countries as compared with England.

Speaking generally, wages are from 20 to 40 per cent higher in free trade England than in the high tariff countries of continental Europe.

And English wages only began to grow higher as tariff taxation was reduced under free trade.—Chicago Tribune.

KEOKUK Constitution Democrat

Wayne Mac Veagh, a truthful and reputable gentleman, whose affiliations have been entirely republican, and who was in a position to hear things before he left the republican party a few days ago, says that a republican manufacturer of Philadelphia said to him: "The McKinley bill is ours; we bought it."

The Roll of Honor.

Never in the history of presidential campaigns has there come over to democracy such a number of men of distinction, learning, judgment, culture and prominence as are daily joining the party of reform.

Look at the list from the ranks of the ablest thinking men of the country. With such names as these the influence with the thoughtful among the masses is incalculable.

Here are some of the leading republicans who have come out for Cleveland:

HUGH McCULLOCH.

(Secretary of the treasury under Lincoln and Arthur)

WALTER Q. GRESHAM

(Postmaster general under Arthur)

CARL SCHURZ

(Secretary of the interior under Hayes)

WAYNE MAC VEAGH.

(Attorney-general under Garfield)

JUDGE COOLEY

(Of the inter-state commerce commission)

EX GOV. KELLOGG.

(Of Louisiana.)

PRESIDENT ANGELL

(Of Ann Arbor University)

JUDGE BARE.

(Republican elector-at-large in Oregon.)

SETH LOW.

(President of Columbia University.)

PRESIDENT HOYT.

(Of Cornell college)

MATTHEW HALE.

A regent of Cornell University.

J. D. COX.

(Secretary of the interior under Grant and twice republican governor of Ohio.)

BENJAMIN H. BRISTOW.

(Secretary of the treasury under Grant and prosecutor of the whisky ring thieves.)

PROF. ALBERT R. LEEDS.

(Of the Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken)

DANIEL BALDWIN

(Ex-attorney-general of Indiana)

JUDGE BAKER.

(Ex-attorney-general of Ohio)

COL. LUCIUS CRCKER

(Ex internal revenue collector of Illinois. A prominent Grand Army leader)

BISHOP BROWN

(Of the African Methodist Episcopal church.)

DISTRICT ATTORNEY GREEN

(Of New York, appointed by Harrison and a Grand Army man)

An Undesirable Condition.

Under the republican party the people are taught to look to the federal government for everything and to the local government for nothing.

The United States courts are the tribunals to which Republicans point the seeker after justice, and United States Deputy marshals exercise the functions of state constables.

The natural result is supineness on the part of the people in the enforcement of the laws of the states.—Athens (Ga.) Banner.

Democrats Made No Mistake.

The selection of Mr. Harry for the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee will doubtless give general satisfaction to the party, inasmuch as the new chairman is a strict party man, a shrewd organizer and an indefatigable worker.

The Republican managers should not delude themselves with the belief that the Democrats have made a mistake in the selection of a chairman.—Baltimore Herald (Ind.)

There is an impression abroad that the revolt against Fifer is mainly among German Americans.

This is hardly true. While Germans will generally vote the Democratic ticket this year they will be in company with thousands of native Americans who have heretofore voted the Republican ticket.

THE ADMINISTRATION BIRD-TRAP.

KNOWNOTHINGISM.

Republican Papers Trying to Revive the Issue in Illinois.

The Republican newspapers and orators, together with a corps of secret agents, members of oath-bound societies, are at work endeavoring to revive the know-nothing issue in Illinois.

Gov. Fifer has exhausted every effort in the way of promises of which he is capable—and that is saying a good deal—to recover the German Lutheran vote.

He has totally failed in doing so.

Convinced that he is not going to recover the German vote, he and his allies are at work endeavoring to persuade Democrats that they should not vote for Altgeld, because Altgeld is going to be supported by the Germans.

In other words, these Republicans are endeavoring to revive the know-nothing issue. They rely upon inciting the hatred of foreign born citizens.

They hope to create an issue, not on the lines of tariff reform, not on the lines of the administrative policies in the state, not on the lines of good government, but upon the question as to where men were born.

With them it makes little difference as to the character of the men who are thus assailed; all they are endeavoring to secure is Republican success.

They are willing to sacrifice the peaceful and harmonious conditions of society in Illinois, so far as it relates to nationalities, and race questions, in order to land Gov. Fifer once more in the executive chair.

The question is: Are the people of Illinois, Republicans or Democrats, ready to see a new issue raised which has absolutely nothing to do with state affairs?

Gov. Fifer has said that he desires the school law amended to meet the views of the German Lutherans; Judge Altgeld always held this view.

Both of them declare they are in favor of the compulsory school law. There is no occasion for any know-nothingism or prejudice to arise naturally out of the situation.

Democrats in Illinois, who allow newspapers, Republicans, and orators, aided by their secret society agents, to switch the issue upon the know-nothing track are being made fools of by the Republicans, who wish to use them to defeat themselves.

Think of It.

Third party men who complain that they have nothing to expect from the Democratic party should remember that at no time since the war has the Democratic party been in complete control of the government.

While it held the presidency four years, and the lower house of congress since 1875, with the exception of two terms, the Republican majority in the senate has invariably been sufficient at such times to prevent any legislation hostile to Republican interests.

The Republicans, however, have been in complete control several times, and every such occasion has been signalized by an increase of the burdens of the people.

Democrats who are thinking of voting the People's party ticket would do well to think of this, and give their old love a chance. This is the year to do it.

If the Democrats carry this election in the states where they ought to have a majority, the 4th of March next will see them in complete control of all branches of the government.

For Attorney General.

What we need in an attorney general for the state of Illinois is a good lawyer, and that we have in the person of Maurice T. Moloney, the Democratic nominee for that office.

Mr. Moloney is not only an able lawyer, but a man in every way worthy the respect of the people of the state.

His practice is extensive and successful, and as a lawyer and a citizen he takes high rank. He has been made a special mark for the attacks of the opposition, who, feeling that they have a weak candidate of their own, have resorted to slander in their attacks upon Mr. Moloney.

His record grows brighter under each attack, for his friends rushing to the rescue, present to the people a showing in his behalf that would otherwise probably have not become public.

Fooling a Bright Boy.

The mother of a family had taken great pains to instruct the children never to use the knife, but always the fork in conveying food to the mouth.

On one occasion the son of eight years suddenly exclaimed that he "saw papa eating with his knife."

Papa vehemently denied it rather than spoil the effect of mother's teaching, whereupon the boy exclaimed, "Why, papa, I saw you eating with your knife just now!"

The good man replied, "No, my dear son, you are mistaken; I always eat with my teeth!"

The hilarity which followed threw the boy off the scent and he did not press his charge.—Cor. Chicago News.

Worth a Thousand Dollars.

Every child born into a family is thought to be worth "a thousand dollars" to the parents.

Why then should they not be cared for from infancy to maturity? Keep the mouth and teeth right by SOZODONT, and you start them right.

HE SLOPS OVER.

Fifer's Reckless Statements and His Efforts to Extract Himself From His Own Quagmire.

The Chicago Tribune correspondent at Kewanee, in reporting Governor Fifer's speech on Wednesday, stated that the governor said: "I am for a compulsory educational law and every German is with me. Live or die, survive or perish, victory or defeat, governorship or no governorship, I am in favor of a law compelling every child, foreign born or American, to learn the English language."

Those who know Governor Fifer will recognize the language as being singularly like him.

Besides that, those who know the governor are aware that he has a tendency, when he gets started in any given direction, to keep on going without any regard to prudence or political consideration.

In other words, he slops over. He not only talks too much but he says too much.

The day after this publication in its columns the Tribune published an editorial in which it undertook to disclaim the truthfulness of its own correspondent's report.

"The governor, of course," it says, "made no such declaration as that quoted. He is not in favor of compulsory education in public schools alone."

The Tribune then went on to quote the Republican platform so far as it speaks of the school question.

It said that to say what Governor Fifer said, or meant to say, or at least what he believed when he made his Kewanee speech, it also said that the Tribune's correspondent at Kewanee asserts that he blundered in reporting Governor Fifer's speech and that other persons in Kewanee make the same statement.

In order to still further defend the governor from his own statements, as reported by the Tribune's own correspondent, the Tribune editorial writer quotes Governor Fifer's speech in Chicago on the Saturday preceding, and explains that the sentiments then uttered by him are the controlling sentiments of his mind, and that his sentiments are not the sentiments alleged to have been uttered by him at Kewanee.

The fact of the matter is that Governor Fifer said exactly what he was reported as saying at Kewanee and was not shrewd enough to detect the political effect of it, and the Tribune is now trying to square him with those Germans who have yet some faith in him.

Hinrichsen.

"If W. H. Hinrichsen is elected secretary of state you will see some important improvements in the management of that office," said a prominent Republican member of the legislature.

"He was clerk of the last house and I must say was the best clerk I ever saw. His books were perfection, and he adopted many new schemes in the management of his office that were of great convenience to the public, the press and the members. He is a natural accountant and had the complete run of all the business of the house. He was as ready to give information to one man as another and never lost his famous smile. He was always on hand, too, and it is said never was absent from his post one minute during the business hours of the session. He had the name of being a partisan when the legislature met, and us Republicans were afraid of him, but we soon learned that while he was, in matters political, ready to take every legal advantage for his party yet in all other matters he was fairness itself.

Before the close of the session he had gained the good will and confidence of nearly every Republican member, and we were ready to trust him in anything. Many of us joined in the purchase of the fine gold watch and chain given him on the last day of the session, for we felt that he deserved some token of our esteem and confidence. The Democrats swore by him, for in political matters he was a stand-by. He would hold the house for two hours on a roll-call in order to give an absent Democrat time to get in and vote for United States senator, or he would rattle the roll off in two minutes if there was a point to be made for his party. This used to make us mad sometimes, but we always did the same when we had control. I shall really be glad if Buck is elected, and I know he will make a popular official."

Miss Anna Anderson

A Lady of Moline, Illinois, who Visited a Davenport Institution.

An Interview with Her Regarding Her Treatment There—A Hearty and Enthusiastic Endorsement.

Miss Anna Anderson, of Moline, Ill., came to Davenport some two months ago and applied to the Scott Medical Institute for treatment. She said that she had suffered from Chronic Catarrh for some eight years.

A reporter who interviewed Miss Anderson a few days ago received cordially and given a pleasant interview, the substance of which is as follows:

MISS ANNA ANDERSON, 1801 S. 6th Avenue, Moline, Ill.

"Catarrh almost wrecked my whole system. I had lately I have been sick for the past six or eight years and took treatment from a number of physicians without relief. The disease had such a hold on my system that I had even gone through my pain, my nose would stop up, I had a heavy discharge of mucus into my throat, violent headache, roaring noises in my ears, weak eyes and my throat was sore and pained me when I swallowed. My stomach was out of order and food distressed me.

"I could not sleep at night and I became nervous. About two months ago I placed myself under treatment at the Scott Medical Institute. To-day I can truthfully say I am cured of all my troubles.

"My ears, nose and throat are all right. I am free from all my former symptoms. I eat well and my food agrees with me. I sleep soundly all night long."

TREATMENT BY MAIL.

TO THE PUBLIC: The system of mail treatment pursued by Scott Medical Institute guarantees the same effect we realize to those who desire to submit their cases through correspondence as to those who come in person. Their "question blank," if properly filled out, will diagnose your case in a thorough way, and as medicines are promptly shipped, those living out of the city have the same advantage as those who come to the office.

Write for the treatment by mail, medicine free, and rid your self of the most painful and annoying disease in the catalogue of human life.
