It is whispered in high eastern literary circles that Ella Wheeler Wilcox has charged Col. John A. Joyce with the authorship of "Tara ra Boom-de-ay."

A CONVENTION of fishermen is to honor the memory of Isak Walton in Chicago next year. The gathering should be classified under the head of "Works of Fiction," suggests the Chicago Post.

MARGARET MATHER was taken ill at Omaha and was unable to finish out her season, so the company disbanded. As the great Juliet was recently married and had proposed to soon retire, anyway, she will probably not return to the stage.

The Illinois Idea in Iowa.

The joint assembly to be elected in Iowa next year will choose the successor to Senator Wilson, whose official term will expire March 4, 1895. It is possible, too, that Senator Wilson's official life may close before that date, owing to his voluntary resignation on account of ill health.

A Prominent Doctor Accused of Murder! A gentleman recently made a startling accusation in the hearing of the writer. Said he, "I firmly believe that Dr. —, intentionally or unintentionally, killed my wife. He pronounced her complaint Consumption—incurable, she accepted the verdict, and died. Yet since then I have heard of at least a dozen cases, quite as far advanced as hers, that have been cured by Dr. Merco's Golden Medical Discovery. Her life might have been saved, for Consumption is not incurable." Of course it is not. The "Discovery" will remove every trace of it, if taken in time and used faithfully.

Well meant advice is sometimes depressing. It is wise to think twice before administering it. One of its less happy aspects is an unflattering opinion of us. A lady who had taken just and modest satisfaction in the fact that she was unflatteringly careful not to hurt any one's feelings, and not to err in matters of fact, was once dismayed by this piece of advice from a friend, "When you visit the Duncans do not ask for Mrs. Duncan."

"No," said the lady meekly, but wondering a little. "No, do not ask. She is in an insane asylum. It is a sad subject with the family of course. I thought I had better tell you for fear you would ask, and when they evaded it you would press the question."

Press the question! Had she ever been known to "press" a personal question? she asked herself in some disturbance of mind, but she felt less concerned after she heard the Duncans make this comment on her friend, "She is such a well meaning woman that no one lays it up against her that she is a little inquisitive."—Youth's Companion.

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Two years ago I had a severe attack of the Grip, which left me in a terribly weak and debilitated condition. Last winter I had another attack and was again very badly off, my health nearly wrecked. My appetite was all gone, I had no strength, felt tired all the time, had disagreeable roaring noises in my head, like a waterfall. I also had severe headaches and Severe Sinking Pains in my stomach. I took medicines without benefit, until having heard so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I concluded to try it, and the result is very gratifying. All the disagreeable effects of the Grip are gone, I am free from pains and aches and believe Hood's Sarsaparilla is surely curing my catarrh. I recommend it to all." GEO. W. COOK, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Nausea, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Biliousness. Sold by all druggists.

A PLEASANT TASTE. The French say when anything offends their taste that it leaves a bad taste in their mouths. This is the result of most medicines. People try to avoid the sensation by sugar coating pills and in this way to avoid the sensation of swallowing a bitter bolus, but the feeling is there and the lump still sticks in the throat. There is, however, a remedy that absolutely disguises all unpleasant taste. These are the Laxative Gum Drops. These gum drops appear in size, taste and flavor like the ordinary gum drop of the confectioners, but they are so skillfully medicated that they act with certainty, but mildly and without pain or griping.

For dyspepsia, for indigestion and all stomach troubles they have no equal. They are put up in boxes, the small size at 10 cents, the large size at 25 cents. The small size contain 12, the large size from 36 to 40 making them the cheapest laxative in the market. Get them of any dealer but if your druggist will not order them for you, write to us and we will send them to you by mail.

General Ambrose E. Burnside, who relieved McClellan as commander of the Army of Potomac, was at first colonel of the First Rhode Island, but when he came to the dignity of general he was titled "Rhody." Incidentally it may be stated that General Burnside also gave name to the particular cut of "sideburns" so much in vogue a few years since. "The general with his whiskers" was considered a very handsome figure.—Washington Star.

The formal custom of bidding guests to call again, whether man or woman, is now in disuse. It is understood that calls are expected after one invitation or permission, either verbal or by card, has been given.
