Surgeon General Wyman's Comments on the Situation—Views of Some Eminent Physicians—Mr. Blaine's Condition Improved—A Rumor Denied—Springer's New Scheme for Electing President—A Treated Death of Postoffice to Give Out—Financial Legislation Mooted—Capital City Cleanings.

Washington, Dec. 24.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the marine hospital service, yesterday in answer to questions as to the danger of reappearance of the cholera in the coming spring and summer, said: "There are at the present time two factors which render the situation with regard to cholera serious."

Cuba a Point of Danger. "There is danger," Dr. Wyman continued in response to further questions, "of cholera reaching the United States from the island of Cuba, because of the close commercial intercourse between Cuba and Spain and other European ports."

STATESMEN AFTER INFORMATION. Prominent Doctors Give Their Views—Dr. Lee's Opinion. The joint committee of the two houses of congress charged with the subject of the investigation of immigration, and incidentally the possibility of a cholera infection next summer...

What the Physicians Say. Drs. Winters, Wilson and Ewing, of New York answer the first question yes, and say the danger is very great. Immigration is responsible therefore to a great degree. They vary in regard to regulations, but decline to recommend suspension of immigration.

The Germ Travels Incognito. He says that the methods of transmission of the disease are unknown. Therefore he feels it to be our duty to surround ourselves with every protection, while not working hardship to the people or disturbing domestic prosperity and foreign relations.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE A FRAUD, And a Miserable One at That, Says Representative Springer. WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—"The electoral college as it now stands is a miserable fraud," said Representative Springer yesterday.

WORLD PREVENT GERRYMANDERING. "This will prevent the vicious practice of gerrymandering and gives each candidate weight to the popular vote which each candidate receives in the state. It will nationalize the presidential election and render contests for the succession next to impossible. Politically it would give effect to the popular will, limited only by the just representation to which each state is entitled in the electoral college and would not spread large majorities in one locality beyond the limits of the state.
