St. Paul Lodge 107, Knights of Pythias, at its meeting last evening, extended an unanimous vote of thanks to all who contributed to the success of the dedicatory ceremonies of the lodge's new castle hall recently held. The fire sale at the M. & K. will continue until the entire stock has been sold, when the store will be remodeled and restocked with an entirely new stock—to judge from the bundles leaving the store it won't take long to close out. The Moline city council last evening, by a vote of 7 to 6, refused to reconsider its action on the topographical map project, and thereby sustains its former position of opposition to municipal aid of the enterprise in that city. When in Davenport, get information free at the Boston Store, concerning the special offer for the "Ladies' Standard Magazine." Only a short time before the offer closes forever. 25c secures a subscription for one year (monthly). P. Pauson, an employee of the Rock Island round house, fell from an engine on which he was working yesterday afternoon and sustained a severe sprain of the back. He was attended by Dr. Sala and afterward taken to his home on Twenty-fifth street. He will probably be laid up some time. Reports from a down town factory where extensive improvements have recently been made are to the effect that there is danger of collapse of the building. An overstrain of the timbers is said to have cracked them so that the men are almost afraid to continue work under them. The Boston Store, Davenport, offers a rare treat to the ladies of the three cities in their dress goods, silk and wash goods departments. Such a varied collection of exquisite fabrics has never before been equalled in this valley; at least, this is the opinion of those who have had the privilege of viewing them. Mr. Carney's office will be in Chicago. Rudolph Oberlander, a Moline boarding house keeper, has had John Dougherty, a boarder, arrested for taking away a valise which he had formerly left as security for an unpaid bill. At the preliminary hearing in Moline yesterday, Squire Maspe bound Dougherty over to the circuit court. M. J. McEniry appeared for the defendant and W. A. Meese for the prosecution, and they made things pretty lively in a very heated discussion of certain law points before the close. The Weather Forecast. For the next 24 hours, clearing to night and warmer tomorrow.

Amusements. "A Railroad Ticket," one of the happiest bits in the comedy line, is to be seen at Harper's theatre tomorrow evening. A Pittsburgh exchange says of the play: "A Railroad Ticket," a new musical comedy farce, which was presented at the Grand opera house last night for the first time in Pittsburgh, was greeted by a large audience, which was also an appreciative one. As may naturally be supposed, the performance is lively, made up of sketches hung on a slender thread, but it answers the purpose for which it was intended and makes plenty of fun. It is snappy and lively from being to end and gives no opportunity for the auditor to become wearied, unless it be on account of too much of a good thing piling it on too heavy as it were. The stage settings and mechanism are of excellent character and aid materially in making the fun effective. One of the best bookings Harper's theatre has made for the present season is the Ramsay Morris' Comedy company from New York. This organization, like those of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall, Rosina Vokes and Charles Wyndham, is composed largely of English players. Mr. Morris has taken great pains in its composition, all the members having been selected with the greatest care for the perfect fitness for the parts. "Joseph," the comedy to be presented, is said to be funnier than "The Private Secretary" and enjoyed a run of over 700 nights at the Theatre Dejazet, Paris. It has met with wonderful success since its production in this country, critics everywhere pronouncing it one of the funniest comedies of the kind. Large audiences should greet "Joseph" on Friday evening.

The money derived from this entertainment will be used for a worthy cause, that of relief for the needy among the families of the old soldiers. The performance and supper will be worth more than the price charged. The G. A. R. hall ought to be filled Thursday evening.

A Sad Discovery. Mrs. Ann Crampton, widow of the late Robert Crampton and mother of R. Crampton of this city, was found dead in her home at Milan late this afternoon. The lady was in her eightieth year and was, when last seen, apparently in good health notwithstanding her advanced years. For a few days she had not been observed about the place, and neighbors today breaking in the doors made the sad discovery of her death. She had lived alone since her husband's death, through her own preferences. Coroner Hawes will hold an inquest.

Mulium in Parvo. Because a thing is small in size, Think not 'twill pay to scorn it; some insects have a larger waist, But lift less than the hornet. Some people may, perhaps, scorn, on account of their diminutiveness, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. But a trial of them convinces the most scornful skeptic, that they will cure constipation, dyspepsia, sick and bilious headaches, quicker than their larger waisted competitors, the old style pill.
