THE "FLY COP'S" BLUNDER.

He Caught the Pickpocket Who Gave Him the Chills.

He was just in from the wilds of the "Umteent" ward, and the "pull" his alderman had with the chief had secured his promotion to the dignity of a central "fly cop."

The importance of his new position weighed heavily upon him, and he struggled bravely to uphold it.

One day the new man, with the unfortunate who had been told off as his partner, were sent down to watch for pickpockets on the State street cable line.

Then his partner walked around the corner whistling in a subdued tone and muttering something about "fools having to take their medicine," although there wasn't a doctor or sick man in sight.

The man from the Umteent boarded the car and flashed his star on the conductor, who, of course, pulled the bell at once.

The gentleman turned and said: "I guess you've made a mistake, my friend. You don't know me."

"But I do, my boy, and that's the trouble. Come along with me. I've been looking out for you for the last two weeks."

The people in the car were staring, and a couple of men began looking for their pocketbooks. Then the tall man said: "Well, you'd better take me to the station."

He looked for his partner, but he was not around. So much the better—he alone would get the credit for the arrest.

As they walked over toward the city hall the patrolman on the corners saluted, and the Umteent man was in the seventh heaven. His bravery was recognized.

He looked around in amazement. Then the tall man said: "Now, my man, I'm much obliged for your company. I hope you'll know me the next time. Here's my card."

It read, "George W. Hubbard, Assistant Superintendent of Police."

Then the man from the Umteent wrote out a request to be transferred back to his beat on the corner of West Forty-eighth and One Hundred and Fourth streets, and he is there.—Chicago News.

It Was Soup or Nothing. Since an unpleasant experience at a hotel in a little town up in Iowa a short time ago I have made it a rule to always take soup.

A Mark of Vulgarity. Vulgarity marks the man or woman who is given to general backbiting and unreflecting slander—to the glad propagation of scandalous stories respecting people of whom he or she can know nothing.

Increased Sound at Night. I would like to ask if you have ever noticed the acoustic phenomenon of greater audibility of sounds after night-fall?

Home Seekers' Excursions. The Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railway will run three (3) grand harvest excursions to all points on its line, west of and including Iowa Falls.

Yes! I'll tell you what to do, my friend, if you'll lend me your ear a minute. Go down to the drug store and buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and take it according to directions given, and you'll soon find that this miserable headache is a thing of the past.

Yes! The Rock Island route gives low rates for three excursions this fall. August 23d is the first one and the rate is low.

A Deluded Bear. The story is told of a bear that mistook the humming noise of the telegraph wires on high poles as coming from a nest of bees and clawed at the pole and tore away the stones at its base in the hope of finding the much coveted honey.

PORT BYRON.

PORT BYRON, Aug. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gillespie, of Philadelphia, Pa., are visiting with their father, John Gillespie.

Thomas Tilbrook, mayor of McKeesport, Pa., visited over Sunday with his brother, William Tilbrook.

Rev. H. Brink was suddenly called to Kansas on Friday last on account of the dangerous illness of his father.

The union excursion on Thursday last was a success. There were over 900 people made the trip, and all were delighted.

Port Byron is furnishing numerous visitors to the White City this week. There were 28 took the train from here on Monday for Chicago.

Rev. N. T. Blakeslee, formerly of the Congregational church here, but now pastor of a church in Milwaukee, is in town arranging to ship his household goods to his new home.

Several farmers from Coe township are hauling gravel from the quarries in town to repair roads. The commissioners, of Coe, are doing their best to improve the highways.

Frank McMahon and Miss Jennie Coole, of Chicago, who have been visiting here with Miss Coole's aunt, Mrs. Normoyle, were united in marriage on Monday afternoon by Rev. Father Garvin, of Rapids City.

Our former townsman, W. T. Barrett, now with McCabe Bros., of Rock Island, is shaking hands with old friends. He has a two-week's vacation, a part of which he and his family will spend at the World's fair.

A. D. Bailey, who was taken sick at Clinton, where he was employed in a printing office, was brought down on the Verne Swain last Friday and taken to the home of Mrs. O'Brien. He is still very sick, although better than when he arrived here.

Things were lively here around the stock yards on Monday. Pearsall Bros., shipped one car of horses and two of hogs; Sam Wilson, of LeClaire, shipped one car of cattle and three of hogs, and Sam Kyler one car of hogs, making eight cars of stock, which is a pretty good shipment for this time of year.

Among those who are visiting the World's fair this week are: John Schaffer, Jr., and wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grant, Mrs. A. Ellis, Miss Jesse Ellis, Miss Susan Sheppard, Miss Lizzie Hobart, Miss Clara Zollinger, Mrs. W. Tilbrook, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stone, W. W. Pearsall and son, Mrs. Jennie Wainwright and Miss Victoria Torpin.

New Game Birds.

In view of the certain disappearance of prairie chickens and quail, sportsmen are taking much interest in the chukor partridge from India and the Chinese pheasant. The latter have been introduced in two places in Illinois, McDonough county, and near Alexis, Warren county.

A citizen of the latter place procured two wing-shot hens in the spring of last year. He liberated one pair in April and a dozen more escaped during the fall. He kept a trio in a small park to test breeding in confinement, a mooted question heretofore. He found the first egg April 20, and 75 eggs in 79 days. They were placed under domestic hens. The first two clutches of 20 eggs each hatched out 38 birds. The latter setting did poorly, owing to extreme hot weather, and the hens being affected with cholera; only 30 per cent incubating and a few of those lived. The winged hen never mated and of her 30 eggs none incubated. With his limited knowledge he succeeded, however, in raising 36 young birds from one hen.

O, 'th's dull, depressing headache, 'th'at won't wear off; This hawking and this spitting, And this hacking cough, I've lost my sense of smelling, And taste's go'ng, too. I know catarrh's what ails me. But—what shall I do? My hacking and my hawking Keeps up a steady din; I'm haunted by the fear that Consumption may set in. I feel supremely wretched; No wonder I'm blue. I know my health's fading, But—what can I do? Do! I'll tell you what to do, my friend, if you'll lend me your ear a minute. Go down to the drug store and buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and take it according to directions given, and you'll soon find that this miserable headache is a thing of the past; the hacking and spitting, so disagreeable to others as well as to yourself; will come to an end, and in a short time you will feel like a new man. A new man—think of that and a dollar fifty cents, which is now the price of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the unfailing cure for this terrible disease.
