

'Where $ $ $ Do the Most'

If You Trade With Me
We Both Win
and vice-versa

A Square Deal
Is Best For us Both

Buy Your Groceries,
Canned Goods,
Drygoods, Clothing, Shoes, Coal,
Flour, and Feed.
Learn my Prices.

A. R. Davis, Roy, N.M.

PERSONALS

Miss Helen Alldredge is learning the printing trade in the office of the Springer Times with I. C. Floersheim as teacher. We always thought she was joking about wanting to learn the trade.

The finest line of Christmas Candy ever brought to Roy is now on Display at,
THE FAIRVIEW PHARMACY

Bob Alldredge came down from Springer Monday and is assisting with business of the F.M. Co. Store in which he is interested. He came on the train fearing to risk getting so far from home with an auto.

Notice Cream Shippers
Fred Brown Pays 29 cents
For Cream

Young Farr returned from Kansas City last week and went on to his home at Walsenburg Colorado Saturday. He doesn't recommend going with cattle to K. C. as a pleasure trip.

Christmas Toys, Candies, and Decorations. The finest line ever shown in Roy. See them and buy your presents early while the Stock is Complete.

FAIRVIEW PHARMACY.

Dan Laumbach was in town Monday and Tuesday. He had a lot of business and is the busiest man in the country just now.

Bob Grunig met with a serious and painful accident Monday. He was pulling a pump from a deep well and the pipe slipped catching his hand and crushing it. No bones were broken but it was badly crushed and lacerated and he will be unable to use it for some weeks.

Pete Laumbach shipped another lot of cattle to Kansas City market this week.

Pink Gunn has been wearing a disfigured face the past week the result of making a flying connection with the ground while trying to stop a runaway horse.

Misses Ethel Leatherman and Dorothy Gibbs visited at the Leatherman home at Solano last Sunday.

An epidemic of colds has attacked most of the people of Roy during the past two weeks. They are indeed lucky who escape

Mrs. Henson, wife of the E P & S-W. Agt. and little son visited at Tucumcari Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Dr. P. W. Cate was up from Solano Tuesday and too busy to stop and visit.

Reports indicate that a snow storm of unprecedented severity has swept over the New England States and that traffic is entirely suspended. Even telegraph operators here have received orders not to accept messages for any of the New England states as it was impossible to deliver them. Indications are that we will have a severe winter here as well and it is but prudence to prepare for it.

Mrs. Harry Woodward received a telegram Monday announcing the death of her father at her old home in Oklahoma, and left on the noon train to attend the funeral.

A party drove through Roy Tuesday with several horses among which was a French Percheron Stallion which, they claimed, weighed 2,200 lbs. and he looked it. There were two of his colts in the bunch and they were easily the best draft horses we have seen lately.

Mrs. Peter Wagner left for her home at Alva, Oklahoma Tuesday. She has been here for several weeks, having been called by the serious illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leo Wagner who is fully recovered. Mrs. Wagner orders the S-A. sent to her in future and thinks it likely they will come here to live some time.

100
Buckets of Christmas
CANDIES

An immense line of Holiday Goods
In Addition to our Regular Stock

We Deal In Everything You Want to Buy Or
Have to Sell

Do Your Christmas Shopping at Our Store.

Goodman
Merc. Co.