A. I. BURLESON ENTERS RACE IN DEMOCRATIC RANKS FOR ASSESSOR

Our old friend A. I. Burleson, more commonly known as "Shorty", has just handed us for publication an announcement of his intention to make the race for County Assessor in the approaching election.

Of course there is little need to state that he will run on the Democratic ticket. Shorty states that he will make a clean race and will ask the Democrats of the county to nominate him on his record alone without any political favors. He is of old Texas stock and a long time resident of New Mexico.

We know that Mr Burleson will make a fast race for the reason that he is well known over the new county and is liked extremely well by everyone. In the near future we shall secure a write-up about Mr Burleson and tell more of his history. But we shall say now that people of the county will not go wrong in supporting him.
