

SMALL TOWN DAILY AND WEEKLY

The story of the newspaper published in the country town or smaller city has significance for the student of American society. The influence of this class of newspapers is close, constant and pervasive.

When the paper appreciates its opportunities and is judiciously conducted, it becomes a member of every family within its field in a way that the great newspaper of the large city cannot rival.

The small town paper is never a product of wealth, its capital consisting of the editor's brains and its plant, of copy paper, paste, scissors, table and waste basket.

The success of such newspapers is owing chiefly to the courage and persistence of the proprietor and to the support of the editor and of the paper to the community is an asset to any town and deserves its friendship.

There is a strong bond of influence between country weekly and smaller cities dailies and their readers that can never exist in the relation of the metropolitan daily and the public.

NOTES OF "THE CACTUS CLUB"

(By the Juniors & Seniors)

The Juniors and Seniors held meetings last week on Tuesday and Wednesday At the Tuesday meeting, Conrad Evans was elected President over Herbert Hughes. No final decision was made about class colors.

At the Wednesday meeting, pink and green were chosen for class colors and pink sweet-peas with green ferns for the class flowers, "The Cactus Club" was the name adopted for the organization. For their motto, they chose "With the ropes of the past we will ring the bells of the future."

Cecile says that the best class at present in school is the Geometry Class.

We have finished American History almost through. New Mexico History and after Christmas we will be ready to take U. S. and New Mexico Civics.

At the shop

Mr. Potts; "Carrol, did you get that bucket of water that I told you to get?"

Carrol: "I did."

Mr. Potts: "I don't believe you."

Carrol: "Well, if you think I'm a liar, get it yourself."

In New Mexico History Class Miss Osmond—Cecile, tell me something of the manners and customs of the Navajo Indians in New Mexico.

Cecile—"They haven't any manners, and they don't wear costumes."

The other day a Senior found a Freshman sitting on the basket ball court writing a theme and inquired why he was sitting there and why he didn't go into the school room, his reply was—"I guess my teacher told me to write an expository theme on Our Basket Ball Court."

Grace—"It must be very nice to be wise and know-oh-everything!"

Muri—"It is."

A Vegetable Romance

If you carrat all for me Lettuce get married Please dear don't squash my hopes

As we cantelope.

For I love your turnip nose And radish cheeks.

Miss Spence—"Herbert are you chewing gum?" Here is the waste basket.

Herbert—"But I don't want to chew the wastebasket."

Herbert is quite fond of rhymes. Many saw the following on his desk last Friday:

"As sure as rats run on the raftersu, Nellie is the girl Herbert is after."

Now if you wish to know about the author of this cute little rhyme, ask Ivan Johnson.

The burning question of the day—Camels.

We are very busy taking examinations this week—The fact is, we are almost too busy to do much else but "cram".

L. W. Wilson and wife of Mosquero were trading with Roy merchants last Friday. Mr. Wilson is our newly elected assessor and we understand has appointed Mrs. Chas Casen as his deputy.
