ROOMS WANTED.

Property holders in Deland who have rooms to let during the spring term, March 31 to June 1, should notify Prof. A. L. Suhrie at once at the university. The attendance in the Normal School, during the spring term, will be large and Mr. Suhrie will have to find places in private homes for some of the students. Students will furnish their own towels and bedding. Same will be laundered each week at the university laundry. The university is providing free room rent to all teachers who come in for the review courses and it is hoped that the people in Deland, especially in the north end of town, will cooperate with the university in the good work that is being done for the teachers of the State. If you have rooms to let, notify Mr. Suhrie at once, giving full information as to location, and, by all means, fix the price of rental at the lowest possible figures.

Maude at the gate, waiting for the most precious fellow in the world, pinned a rose in her hair. She strained her eyes to see the first turn in the lane. It was getting dark. Someone passed from the other end of the road, and snapped the rose from her dark hair. She gave a little shriek, and a rough, but kind voice, behind her said: "I thought it was a rosebush, that I did."

OSTEEN

Osteen, March 24—Miss Bertha Brooke is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. M. Sheppard, at Kingston, and remained until after the automobile races this week.

We have noticed a great increase in motor-car traffic for several days between St. Johns Ferry and the Ormond-Daytona race course. Owing to dry weather and recent repairs of the shell road, travel is far pleasanter across country.
