Now that the tariff bill has passed it is to be hoped that the ten dollar bills will soon begin to pass.

The week the price of gasoline was increased... the ten millions of dollars by Rockefeller to the General Educational Fund.

Every day brings some new victory in aeronautics. Within ten years the flying machine of today, as compared to the flying machine of 1900, will be as great a masterpiece as the old "ordinary" bicycle of 20 years ago.

IT IS TO LAUGH

It is ludicrous to read the articles published in regard to the pineapple shipments by the newspapers in the State whose controlling stock is owned by the Florida East Coast Railway.

The bill being taken from the last issue of the Florida Journal... THE NEW RAILROAD... The electric railway from Jacksonville to Miami would probably be a good thing for the people if not for the investors.

The present schedules are too high for passengers and freight. If the existing road will come down to fair rates there can then be no demand for a new road.

It is these things so easily remembered that annoy our people more than our present rates. We have become used to the latter, but from unsightly, unsanitary and unnecessary conditions may the good Lord deliver us.

Dayton ought to make an effort to get the elegant building at Deland Junction. Daytona people who are inclined to kick should see the elegant accommodations afforded Deland by the Atlantic Coast Line.

LAKE HELEN.

Rev. Mr. Kitchin of Orange City is supplying the pulpits here every two weeks alternating between the Congregational and Baptist churches, and is very well liked.

ten at Pine Ridge sanitarium, Atlanta, Ga. She reports that Mr. Felton is improving slowly but the doctors cannot set a time when he will be able to return.

At a meeting of the Congregational church and society held after Sunday school on Sunday, a letter was read from Rev. C. M. Krook of East Brantree, Vt., soliciting a pastorate.

Mrs. C. D. Abbot, who has made an extended visit with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. Willis Westlake, expects her husband on Saturday and will return with him to Jacksonville on Monday next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mace and daughter Marysue, have gone to Bethel, Ohio, for a few weeks' vacation.

A letter from R. L. Cross, a former station agent here, says he is doing well in Decatur, Ala., but would gladly come to Florida again, and especially to Lake Helen.

Mrs. Anne Warner is putting on quite an addition to her little cottage on New York avenue. W. J. Todd and Paul Long are doing the work.

A letter from Ken L. Martin of Rockford, Ill., who with Mrs. Martin and their daughter, Lois (Mrs. McCabe), spent the winter here, says he has not been well since they returned.

Though the single Hibiscus blossoms last only one day as a table decoration, they are never tiresome.

A large crop, as usual of Japan persimmons is promised and the earliest varieties will soon be ripe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Todd go to their beach cottage at Coronado this week to be gone until the first of October.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Weeks, the present manager of the Hadlan Hotel, have made arrangements with the owner, Mr. Hess of Philadelphia on a basis of a percentage of the receipts, and will stay there indefinitely.

Herbert Spencer and Jay Shelden, drove over to Daytona last week for a day and night's outing.

WOMEN IN SCHOOL AT ASIS.

Montgomery, Ala., August 1.—By a close vote in the committee, the bill authorizing women to attend the summer term of the school here in Alabama was reported favorably to the Senate today and went on the calendar.

THE YOUNG WOMEN

Havana, Fla., August 1.—While swimming in a mill pond near their homes here about noon today, Misses Rebecca Womack and Ella Freeman, each about 17 years of age, and daughters of prominent residents of this town, were drowned.

BEAUTIFUL GAL

Punta Gorda, August 1.—Miss Mary Sandlin, a beautiful girl of 18 years of age, died here this afternoon as a result of burns sustained this morning while attempting to use a patent flat-iron.

Miss Sandlin was attempting to operate a patent flat-iron. Some of the fluid spilled on the piece of cloth she was attempting to iron, and over the ironing board. The fumes generated were of sufficient density to cause an explosion when she struck a match, and in a moment her entire body was enveloped in flame.

Miss Sandlin was one of the prettiest and most lovable young girls in Punta Gorda and the city was cast in gloom when the sad tidings were carried around the town.

A ONE-ARMED OBSERVATION

A one-armed man entered a restaurant at noon and seated himself next to a little other-people's business man, says Reardon's. The latter at once noticed his neighbor's left sleeve hanging loose, and kept eyeing it in a how-did-it-happen sort of a way.

his one-hand. Finally the inquisitive one could stand it no longer. He changed his position a little, cleared his throat, and said:

"I beg pardon, sir, but I see you have lost an arm."

The one-armed man picked up his sleeve with the right hand, and peered anxiously into it.

"Bless my soul!" he exclaimed, looking up with great surprise. "I do believe you're right."

CHAIRMAN MCLENDON STANIS SUSPENDED

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 1.—The House of Representatives has affirmed the suspension of former Railroad Commissioner McLendon by the overwhelming vote of 120 to 20. The suspension of Mr. McLendon now stands affirmed under the law.

MORRIS PARDON DENIED.

On August 6 a meeting of the State Pardoning Board was held in Tallahassee. Applications for pardons were asked by 21 persons now sentenced. Five conditional pardons were granted and several other requests referred for additional information.

An application was submitted in writing for the pardon of S. E. Morris from a conviction for illegally selling liquors and sentence of four months' imprisonment in the county jail by the criminal court of record for Volusia county in June, 1906.

Listen, people, this is from Vermont, which was a hot-bed of abolition before and during the war, and which has time in and time out professed a belief in the equality of the black man with the white, politically and otherwise.

Fort Ethan Allen is situated in Vermont, three miles from Burlington and a short distance from Winooski. The War Department has determined to quarter 100 negro cavalrymen there, in addition to a few hundred negro soldiers who are there already.

The whites are refusing to ride in the street cars or to eat in restaurants with negroes. Says the Burlington Free Press: "This is the first time negro troops have been quartered in New England—the first time, in fact, that soldiers of color have been sent to any part east of the Mississippi."

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.
