Colored People

Rev. S. G. Baker - - Editor

The colored People at Jolly's Still are proving themselves to be a thoughtful and thrifty set. Already they have employed a teacher to conduct a private school, and are paying her a good salary. This speaks well for them, for so few of the people who do that class of work ever care for anything but a happy-go-lucky time.

Mrs. S. L. King and Mary Smith and Eliza Richardson, and others, left Monday for the Grand Court of the Heroines of Jericho, which convenes at Orlando on Tuesday.

The Rev. J. D. Merritt, pastor at Jolly's Still passed through the city last Saturday en route for his charge.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Foster left this week for an extended trip. They will be gone until about October first.

Mrs. Ella Herring left for Miami last Monday to spend several weeks with her relatives. Poor brother Herring has already shown signs of loneliness and hopes that she will return soon.

The Rev. G. S. Crawford, who expected to attend his national convention at Huntsville, Ala., did not go as he expected on account of hindrances ever which he had no control.

At the meeting of Charity Lodge, K. of P., last week, it was decided to open a dispensary for 90 days. This presents an opportunity to worthy men to enter this fraternity for $3.00, which is $3.50 less than the regular price.

The Rev. J. A. Davis was in the city last week attending his regular services at Bethlehem Baptist church. He reports his church at Bartow in good condition.

The Rev. S. G. Baker, his wife and boy, together with Dr. J. W. Foster spent last Sunday at Jolly's Still. Rev. Baker held quarterly conference, while Dr. Foster attended to the sick and afflicted.

Judge Perkins is proving to be a fair and impartial judge, while Solicitor Fish is ransacking the country to locate the law breakers of the county. If the better class of our people are helped, encouraged and protected against the vicious ones among us and those from the other side, they will make better citizens and others will be constrained to emulate them.

Mr. Dozier, husband of Mrs. Marina Dozier, who has been away from home for about five years, returned home last week to the joy and satisfaction of the entire family.

Delegates to the Sunday school and League Convention will be elected at Bethel church next Sunday.

The cottage of Mrs. Nancy Walton on Adde avenue has been completed, and she will move in it in a very few days.

You and everybody around you will feel better for it.

FURREST CONDITIONS

IN FLORIDA

A preliminary investigation of the forest conditions of Florida was made during the past winter by the United States Forest Service in cooperation with the State. The report is now before the Board of Commissioners on the Institutions to purchase not less than 500 acres, suitable for a penitentiary and State prison farm. The commissioners were "directed to withhold from lease all females, the aged, diseased, crippled, deformed and all other prisoners who, in the discretion of said board, are not suited to perform manual labor." This will serve as a nucleus for the state penitentiary. The number of prisoners now handled in Florida range from 1700 to 1750. The death rate was 12.60 in 1907 and 11.03 in 1908 per thousand. In most cases the prisoners die from the effect of disease contracted prior to entering the State.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

A French scientist has discovered one secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. Its a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c. at all druggists.

tural development in certain parts of the State will make permanent use of immense areas of cut-over land, the bulk of lands now being cut over will not be needed for agricultural purposes for many years to come. In the meantime the timber producing possibilities of such lands are being destroyed by repeated fires, turpentine, and reckless lumbering. The opportunity to organize and adopt plans of forest management should not be delayed until the forest lands have all been cut over. Many States have temporarily developed at the expense of their forest interests and have realized too late the disastrous affects of wasting their forest resources.

The report of the Forest Service examiner in Florida lays particular stress on the importance of a strong forest policy for the State. There should be a Commission of Forestry to have general supervision of the forestry interests of the State and to appoint a State Forester. It should be the duty of the State Forester, under the direction of the Commission, to advise private owners in reference to forest management, to bring to public attention the damage done by forest fires, to formulate and put into execution a firewarden system to protect the forests from fires, to encourage more conservative systems of lumbering and turpentine, to investigate tax and grazing problems, and in general promote a healthy interest in forest preservation in the State.

The forest fire problem in Florida, as in other southern States, was found to be a most serious hindrance to the perpetuation of the forests. The practice of burning over the ground annually destroys all possibility of young growth of pine to take the place of the mature timber when it is cut. Moreover, fires injure the standing timber, especially where trees have been boxed, and destroys the vegetable covering of the soil. It has been demonstrated that repeated fires decrease the value of the forest for grazing purposes.

In order to check the annual fire evil, the report proposes a forest fire law for Florida, which shall make it unlawful and punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, for any individual or corporation to start fires on lands not their own. The proposed law also makes every owner liable for damages, resulting from the spread of fire from his own land to that of another. There are many other important features in the proposed law, such as the appointment of firewardens, the use of spark arresters on locomotives and engines, and posting of fire notices.

The report furthermore recommends the establishment of State forests from tax lands by purchase, as has already been done by many States in the country.

The forests of Florida have lasted longer than in many States, perhaps because the State has been more generously endowed with valuable growth. The need of forest preservation has not been so apparent in the past, but those who understand the present conditions in Florida and in other States should be alive to the necessity of taking some action to protect what forests remain, and provide for regeneration on lands that have already been denuded. The report explains the present situation in detail and points the way for a wiser consideration in the future.

SOLDIER BALKS DEATH PLOT.

It seemed to J. A. Stone, a civil war veteran of Kemp, Tex., that a plot existed between a desperate lung trouble and the grave to cause his death. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me, in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 120 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which restored my health completely. I now weigh 175 pounds." For severe Colds, obstinate Coughs, Hemorrhages, Asthma, and to prevent Pneumonia it's unrivaled. See and Buy. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

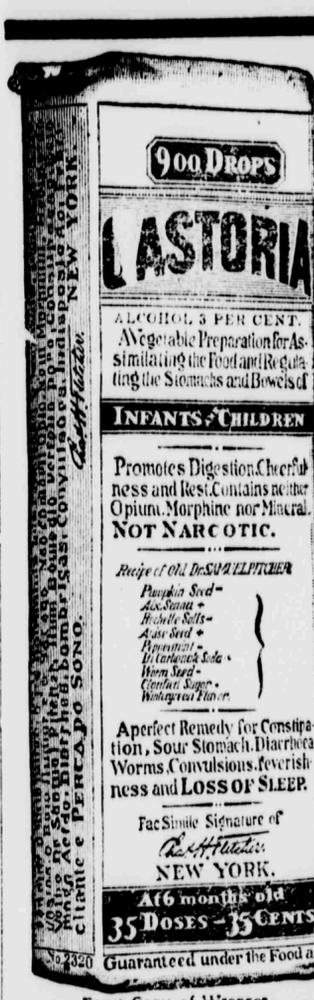

TAFT AND TALLAFERRO.

Congress has adjourned and the tariff bill has become law.

The president signed Payne's bill with Payne's pen and was in a jocular mood as he appended "signed five minutes after 5 o'clock, August 5, 1909."

Our own Tallafferro said, "surely, Mr. President, you are not going to sign the bill with that pineapple clause in it?" (The conference committee had killed his pineapple measure after they were through with his vote) and the president replied: "What would you have me do? Shall I strike out pineapples altogether? Willing to put them on the free list rather than protect them as agreed to in the senate."

Thus did the president remind the Florida senator that the tariff was not

DOOLEY'S PRINTER'S INK.

"Printer's ink! A drop of it on your little warted thumb," says Mr. Dooley, "will blacken the fairest name in Christendom or make a star to shine on the lowest brow. It will fine its way into millions of homes an' hearts an' memories; it will go thru stone walls, an' will carry some message that may turn th' current of ivy life it meets—from th' Emperor in China to th' baby in th' cradle in Harrognan's flat," he says.

"It may undo a thousand prayers or start a million. It can't be escaped. It could drag me out iv me parish house tomorrow, an' make me as well known in Pelin as I am in Halstead street, an' not as favorably. Today th' Pope may give me no more thought than he gives Kelly, th' rowling-mill man. Tomorrow he may be readin' about how great or bad I am in th' Daily Roman. It's got death beat a mile in lev-ty ranks."

"Yer, sir," says he, "th' hand that rocks th' fountain pen is th' han that rules th' warruid. Th' press is fr th' universe what Mulligan wuz fr his beat. He wuz the best poleeshman an' the worst I ever knew. He was a terror to evil doers when he wuz sober, an' a terror to ivybody when he wuz drunk."

BEWARE OF CONSTIPATION

It is the first or primal cause of many of our diseases. St. Joseph's Liver Regulator is an ideal treatment for constipation. It acts in a natural and easy manner, not by violent purging and gently loosens the bowels, thus forestalling the long train of evils which result from the clogging of the system with offensive refuse. This remedy is a wonderful stimulator of liver, stomach and bowels, inducing and maintaining healthy, natural action. Price, liquid 50 cents a bottle; powders, 25 cents a box, five boxes $1.00.

In a short time afterward, according to the tale they tell, a new well was begun, perhaps to provide extra "chasers."
