Sea Island cotton is advancing in Liverpool and prices are firm at extreme rates.

A wood train on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad ran off the track near Savannah last Friday damaging two of the cars and delaying the regular trains several hours.

A night train has been put on the Port Royal Railroad, leaving Beaufort at 11.55 p. m., and arriving at 4.52 a. m.

The British bark Sarah M. Smith arrived at the Atlantic Saw Mills on Saturday last and will lead with lumber for England.

The Republicans intend calling meetings to counteract the effect of the Hampton gatherings, and pledge their support to Mr. Chamberlain.

Jas. W. Moore Esq., chairman of the Democratic executive committee has called a meeting of the citizens of Beaufort County favorable to Gen. Hampton to be held at Early Branch to-morrow.

Dr. Hanks arrived at the Sea Island Hotel yesterday. The doctor's skill as a dentist is too well known in Beaufort for us to say anything in his praise. As he will remain but a few days those in need of his services should apply to him without delay.

We are under obligations to Hon. Robert Smalls for file of the Congressional Record and other public documents.

The county commissioners meet next Monday and will open bids for feeding and furnishing medical attendance and medicines to the poor, and medicines and attendance on prisoners.

Charles B. Thompson, once well known in Beaufort, a brother of Jas. G. Thompson Esq., has been appointed a second lieutenant in the fifth U. S. infantry.

On account of the delay in collecting the taxes the interest in the State debt will not be paid until April 1st, if then.

Messrs. D. C. Wilson and Co. cleared on Saturday last the schooner Mattie Holmes for Boston, with 155,000 feet of re-sawed lumber.

The School Commissioner's office was delivered to Mr. Wheeler by Mr. Gilbert on Tuesday last. Mr. Judd still declines to surrender the Clerk's office to Mr. Bamfield the only office now in dispute in this county.

Mrs. S. M. Millett, has purchased of French & Co. 66 Broadway, New York, a granite monument which will be erected over the remains of her late husband in the yard of the Episcopal Church in Beaufort.

Rooms were engaged at the Sea Island Hotel on Tuesday for the Russian Minister and suite, who are expected to be here yesterday. Later dispatches indicate that the Grand Duke has altered his plans and will go direct to Hampton Roads. "Tis ever thus!

Mr. J. H. Croft has a number of deeds, for lands purchased at the recent government land sale, and the holders of certificates can get the deeds on application, without expense.

The Democratic executive committee last week while in session here agreed to recommend to Gen. Hampton for County treasurer, Mr. W. J. Gooding, and Dr. J. A. Johnson, for county Auditor.

It is important that purchasers at the recent sales of lands by the government should record their deeds. At the burning of the house at Laurel Bay one of these deeds was destroyed that had not been recorded and the owner sent to Washington to get a duplicate but was informed by the Secretary of the Treasury that no duplicates could be issued.

A number of colored men were arrested last week and brought before U. S. Commissioner C. H. Wright charged with cutting wood on government land on the Gray's Hill school farm, where, it is claimed, several hundred cords have been cut and sold to the phosphate company. Four of the prisoners were bound over to appear at the United States court in Charleston.

The colored people still continue to come in from the up-country, twelve families having arrived in one lot one day last week and have been put on one of the school farms. There are eighteen of these school farms, located on Port Royal, St. Helena and Ladies Islands, each of one hundred and sixty acres with but few tenants, the people heretofore living on them having purchased small tracts of land of their own. If these almost abandoned places could be populated by a thirty set of laborers it would be desirable to add to the trade and wealth of our county. These people say they have been driven off for political reasons.

The Ship Harvey Mills was insured as follows: Boston Marine, $15,000; Salem Marine, $500; Shoe and Leather, $10,000; India Mutual, $10,000; New England Mutual, $5,000; Union Insurance Company of Bangor, $5,000; Merchant's Marine of Bangor, $5,000. The cargo was insured, some of the leading insurance companies being the Manufacturers, Fire and Marine, $2,000; Boylston, $15,000; Washington, Neptune and American $10 each, Providence Washington of Providence, $10,000; Equitable of Providence, $6700.

PORT ROYAL.

Port Royal sports a billy goat. The steamships hereafter stop at Brunswick on their way to and from Fernandina.

Mr. J. A. Torrent has the contract for unloading the Harvey Mills and has a force at work.

300,000 feet of lumber was received last week over the Port Royal Railroad for shipment, and still the captains complain, that it comes too slow.

During the past week 1,015 bales of cotton were received at Port Royal. Peter Papin's last strike, the particulars of which will be given hereafter, has furnished a theme of conversation for the men who loaf around the bar-rooms and spit tobacco juice on the stoves.

The Howard Drake arrived last Tuesday and discharged her freight on the deck of the bark Kate as she could not get to the wharf.

Mr. Wilkins has secured the building of Mr. McFall and will be open again in a few days. He is directly opposite the pile of ashes that was once his handsome store.

The small boys spend their time fighting the goat, and the goat makes a fool of himself by giving first-class entertainments to the citizens free of charge.

The shipping is increasing, all the wharf room being occupied by vessels two deep and several laying in the stream waiting a chance to unload their fragrant cargoes of fertilizers.

The Russian Squadron is anxiously looked for and the citizens are in glee over the expected shower of Russian gold.

One of the best things that resulted from the burning of Wilkin's store was the balancing of the town books, all having perished together with the ordinances.

The city was in a great state of excitement yesterday as the annual charter election took place for Mayor and Aldermen. Almost every one of the citizens from the Rev. Joseph Dupong down was a candidate for some position, and Dr. Brisbane reaped a harvest printing tickets, a job that we had been gloating over. The Town Goat was in the field all day and like some of the other good citizens was trying to get even with his adversaries.

The Mayor of Savannah gets $3,000. Turkey is putting on shut winter, this is. Old Prob. has changed his name to 'Indications.'

Ladies' muffs this season are made so as to get three hands in at a squeeze. A penniless Chicago girl has opened a barber shop as a last resort.

An Indianapolis couple celebrated their golden wedding by procuring a divorce. Bishop Simpson's daughter has just been anchored to Rev. Mr. Bay of Philadelphia.

Zach. Chandler didn't get anything in his stocking because he 'put his foot in it.'

A Belgian murderer had his sentence commuted because he had a wooden leg. That's a lame defence.

The Main building at the Centennial has been 'knocked down,' though it's still standing.

Try to bury as many of your faults as you can in the grave of the old year, and cremate all you can't bury.

Ben Hill puts the number of fools in this county at only 10,000. This shows the importance of having a new census.

The extradition treaty between the United States and Spain has been signed.

A Pennsylvania woman placed five eggs in her bosom, where incubation took place, and five hardy chicks were hatched. The woman and the birds are doing well.

Northern Democrats express disapprobation of the attitude assumed by Gen. Hampton in his letter to Gov. Hayes as being unwise under the circumstances.

Mr. Isaac J. Tomkins of Augusta of the firm of Tomkins and Brewer committed suicide by taking laudanum.

The New Orleans Times says: 'The Emperor William has studied the science of war more than the science of oatin. He does not know a roast pheasant from roast veal, and has no use for French cooks.'

STATE NEWS.

Gen. Hampton spoke in Lexington last Monday.

Abbeville county is fortunate. She has $34,877 in the treasury. We don't encumber ourselves down this way with such a load.

Sheriff Ward refuses to give up the office to the newly-elected man.

The campaign is re-opened in several of the up-country counties—Darlington, Abbeville, Lancaster, etc.—meetings are being held for the support of Gen. Hampton.

Accidental discharges of guns, with fatal effect, are very frequent throughout the state, one of the evil effects of almost every one going armed.

The prisoners in the Kingstree jail concluded to go home to enjoy the holidays. The Star says: Two of them were in jail for the murder of Mr. Levi Brown, last month, and the others for burglary and larceny. It seems that it is no more use to put prisoners in jail in Kingstree. If any don't get away it is because they don't want to go.

Several colored men are reported frozen to death during the late cold weather, among others Aaron Tilman, a barber in Newberry and Bill Pilgrim in Spartanburg.

Judge Cooke enjoined the sheriffs in his circuit from making any sales this month on account of the unsettled state of the country and the hard times.

The citizens ticket was elected in Waterboro on New Years day in opposition to the Republican ticket headed by W. A. Driffler.

Dr. B. R. Wyse, of Lexington, caught fourteen wild geese in a pen New Years day.

Gun houses still continue to burn but the incendiary is giving way to the match in the cotton.

Mr. O. F. Cheatham has taken charge of the office of the clerk of court in Edgefield county under a commission from Gen. Hampton.

On Friday, December 29th, when the jailor at Spartanburg went to the cells to feed the prisoners he was knocked down and seven of them escaped. Five of them were afterward re-captured.

Esau Wannamaker, colored, was convicted in the United States Court in Charleston of repeating and sentenced to ten days imprisonment in Columbia jail.

A farmer in Greenville county lost sixteen hogs and goats, during the cold snap.

The weather in Anderson was the coldest for twenty-one years—Broad and Sulphur rivers are frozen hard to within a few feet of the middle current—All the oats in the ground and the growing barley in Edgefield county is lost.

Last Thursday night, another attempt was made to burn down the town of Darlington. Fire was simultaneously set to the town in three places. The building occupied by the So. A. Turner and Marco's stables were destroyed.

This was the fourth attempt made to destroy the town since the election, and only six months before the election a fire broke out, which caused the loss of $70,000.

W. N. Craig the newly elected sheriff of Pickens county died last week.

A man by the name of Levi Smith was killed near Bivingsville, Spartanburg county, one day last week.

A meeting of the republicans of Charleston was held on Wednesday night to pledge support to Governor Chamberlain and his government.

The auditor's office in Walterboro was broken into last week and the returns and some old duplicates carried off.

People in Columbia are cooling off by skating on Fishers Mill Pond.

THE HAMPTON WILL STORY—A story is going the rounds of the papers to the effect that when Wade Hampton was made heir to his father's vast estate, except an allowance of $100,000 to his two sisters, he refused to assert his rights, and insisted upon an equal division of the property. Another version of the story says it was not Governor Hampton but his father who destroyed the will. Gen. John S. Preston, alluding to these statements writes: "The whole story is a fiction. Neither Col. Wade Hampton or his father left a will. Of course neither Col. Wade Hampton or his son, Governor Wade Hampton the father of Governor Hampton, was admitted to an equal share of his father's estate by the consent of his step-mother and her daughters, who under the law of Louisiana, inherited three-fourths of estate. I do trust this statement will stop the reiteration of this silly fiction, which is unjust to the descendants of Gen. Wade Hampton through his daughters, Mrs. Governor Manning and Mrs. Preston.

The trial of the five Hausmann-Portman murderers in Aiken commenced on last Wednesday and was concluded on Thursday. The three counsel for the prisoners did their best for them, but their confessions, made in jail, was used on the stand and decided four of them to get up in the court and confess again. They narrated the stories of their crimes with painful particularity, sending a thrill of horror through the courtroom. The jury men were entirely colored several of them from the Rouse's Bridge section and brought in a verdict of guilty, saying that the confessions of the prisoners and the law clearly stated by the court left them no room for doubt.

One prisoner, Steve Anderson, they recommended to mercy, he being the youngest, and the confessions of the others showing that he did not know of the murderous intent before starting, and took the least part in the crimes committed.
