CIVIC LEAGUE PARADE.

MANY PRETTY CHILDREN MARCH THE STREETS OF BATESBURG. GOOD WORK DONE BY THE LADIES.

It is particularly pleasing to every one to see that one and all, both ladies and men, are deeply interested in what the Civic League stands for, and to make their untiring efforts towards its success.

That such is the case has been very manifest for the last few weeks when all have bent their energies toward making the Floral Parade a success. And now they feel repaid for the money realized from the votion contest for the Queen of the Parade, from the lunches, and from the percentage of all sales at Dr. Gunter's Soda Fountain on Thursday which he so kindly gave the League. has made the Civic League Bank Book show up well, and the Parade too was pronounced a great success. By many "The prettiest thing ever had in Batesburg."

For some time before the march began from the Methodist church grounds, the streets were filled with people and especially, around Gunter's Drug Store, before which the Coronation of the Queen took place.

As the Queen's Chariot, Floats, Bicycle and Daisy Chain moved on from M. E. church their leader and Herald, U. X. Gunter Cullum blew his trumpet. In front of Gunter's he blew a long blast and then from the store came the coronation party all of whom, both boys and girls were dressed in white.

First came the eight boys of the Troop with green earlands—Frank Hite, Lester Pink, Clyde Bates, Robert Haltiwanger, W. F. Rhodes, Harry Rutland and W. D. Rikard—and the eight little maids each carrying arches of white and pink—Helen Edwards, Isabel Cantey, Mary Whitten, Sue Stokes, Virginia Cullum, Frances Cullum, Marie Rawl, Eunice Bayly—who took their places four of each on either side of the throne. Then as the two courtiers, F. B. Rawl and David Cartledge took their places waiting to crown the Queen the two little pages Lod Hartley and John Bell Towill, Jr., each with a garland of pink rose buds stood on either side of the throne. Then came tiny little Mary Reid carrying the crown on a dainty little pillow. With surprising self possession she ascended the step in front of the throne where the courtiers received the crown and placed it upon the head of the Queen—Alice Watson, who was beautiful in her lovely costume and veil, and with regal dignity ascended the throne, received the crown and rode away in her chariot drawn by four fine white horses—J. B. Hartley, Walter Gerland Edwards, Capers Alexander, and Callic Wright.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs, its most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

SOME NEW DANCES.

Paris society is reveling in several new dances that promise to be as popular as was the famous cakewalk in its day, says the London Daily Mail. They are the tango, an adapted Argentine dance, something like the once popular mateliche; the ferla, built on a Spanish dance, but essentially French, and the kenne, founded upon a Canadian step, and a Spanish polonaise.

IN THE WAKE OF THE MEASLES.

The little son of Mrs. O. B. Palmer, Little Rock, Ark., had the measles. The result was a severe cough which grew worse and he could not sleep. She says: "One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured him and he has never been bothered since." Croup, whooping cough, measles cough all yield to Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The genuine is in the yellow package always. Refuse substitutes. Gunter's Drug Store.

NICE EAT LEGISLATORS' STAMPS.

After all the wrangling that the members of the house experienced early in the session in getting through a resolution relative to supplies for the members, including stamps, it seems that all their trouble is not over yet.

It is not a question now of getting the stamps, but of keeping them after they do get them. The house is infested with mice, and they show a decided preference toward Uncle Sam's stamps. They have mutilated, eaten and carried away nearly the entire supply of stamps furnished several of the members.—Dover correspondence Wilmington Every Evening.

SPRINGS FROM FOUNTAIN.

One of the natural marvels of France has recently been made generally known. It is the fountain, or source, of the Coulomp, a small river in the department of the Basses-Alpes. Out of a mighty limestone wall about 4,600 feet high springs a fountain of water, yielding even in the driest times about 300 gallons a second, and forming a full-born river, which begins its career with a series of leaps aggregating 100 feet of descent. It is thought that the water must pass under the mountain by subterranean channels at least a mile in length.

A BURGLAR'S AWFUL DEED

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at all druggists.

THE EXPLANATION.

Experienced Parent—"I" guess, then, my dear, that the steak was tough.

UNFORTUNATE SIGN.

Two gentlemen were talking when a seedy individual came up and spoke to one of them. After he had gone, the gentleman said to his friend: "That's a brother of mine, and about the most unfortunate fellow in the world. I have set him up in business three times. The last time I bought a pork shop business for him in a place called Barking. After a few weeks he wrote and said the business had all dropped off. Would I come up? I went, and the first thing that caught my eye was a ticket in the window inviting the public to 'Try Our Barking Sausages.'"
