TOWN CRIER.

Sales-day passed off quite quietly. We are having genuine March weather.

B. G. Frederick and T. Summers have been appointed notaries public.

Edward Argo has been appointed trial justice for Brown's poll.

Judge Reed has appointed C. K. Miles as legal adviser to the grand jury of Charleston.

Col C. C. Puffer of Charleston, has been appointed United States Minister to Brussels.

Rev. D. W. Cutfin will deliver a temperance lecture in this place on the 23d inst.

We learn that Mr. Danis's loss by the recent fire in Branchville, was between $5,000 and $6,000.

Mr. J. Earkins has been reappointed Jury Commissioner for our county.

There will be an extra session of the court held the first Monday in May.

The County Commissioners propose to have a Court House that will cost from $20,000 to $30,000.

Trial Justice Meyers has been crowded with business during the week.

A Washington dispatch announces the appointment and confirmation by the Senate of A. Webster as postmaster of Orangeburg.

President Andrew D. White, of Cornell University, New York, has been spending a day or two in Columbia, while on a tour farther southward.

We learn that the town council intend increasing the liquor license.—No action they could take would contribute more to the peace and prosperity of our town.

Judge Reed, at the close of the criminal Court in Charleston, on the 23d, sentenced four colored men to death for murder.—Dennis R. Bunel and George, Hoyte and Jordan Hardee, brothers.

Our word for it, there is no better place to stop in Columbia than Rose's Hotel. A free omnibus from the depot, and good accommodation at the hotel are always found in store for visitors to the city.

T. Kohn & Brothers are doing a thriving business. It is a matter of congratulation with us that while our local advertisements are limited in number they are also select. We have no scruples in recommending Kohn, Kortjohn and Dukes. The public soon learn in whom to place confidence.

The passenger trains on the S. C. R. R. will pass through Orangeburg as follows:

Day, from Charleston, 10.48 a. m. " from Columbia, 7.30 p. m. Night, from Columbia, 11.53 p. m. " from Charleston, 2.20 a. m.

We learn that a petition has been presented to the Governor, signed by many of our citizens, and all the prominent members of the bar, urging the commutation of the sentence of Gowan Reed, to imprisonment for life. Such action by the Governor would not be regarded so much an exhibition of Executive clemency as a mitigation of a harsh sentence.

C. D. Kortjohn proposes to discontinue the retail liquor business after the 16th inst. We would call attention to his advertisement, found in another column. We take pleasure in recommending Mr. Kortjohn to the public. Those who give him a call need no advice where to procure first-class articles at the lowest rates.

On the 19th of this month the people of Orangeburg are to witness a terrible sight. Two young men, Gowan Reed and William Auld, neither of them over twenty-one years of age, are to be publicly executed. Circumstances seem to indicate that neither is guilty of a premeditated, cold-blooded murder. It is to be hoped that this fearful spectacle will have an influence to deter others from the commission of similar crimes.

We notice that Mr. Mellichamp retires from the editorial management of the Orangeburg Times. This we regret, as he is evidently a gentleman of culture and integrity, and with all of liberal and conservative views. We are glad, for his sake, he has other and, we trust, more profitable business. A man who edits a newspaper ought to have leisure to relish this literary recreation, and must expect kicks instead of coppers for his compensation. The following is Mr. Mellichamp's valedictory:

"Finding that my increasing duties as teacher and surveyor demand my undivided attention, I feel called upon to resign my position in the Times with this issue.

"In my editorial control of the paper I have endeavored, in my feeble way, to advance those principles of pure and liberal democracy, which, in the language of Jefferson, mean, 'equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever state or persuasion.'

"As to the present popularity of these views, I have never given any serious thought, being thoroughly satisfied with their soundness and ultimate triumph.

"Of course, after this issue I will have no influence in the conduct of the paper, but I can at least indulge the hope that the chair which I now vacate may be more worthily filled."

We gladly give place in our columns to the card of our postmaster, published in the last issue of the News. We presume these "complaints" will soon cease under the new arrangements made by our postmaster, but we do hope he will listen to the wishes of the people by opening the office on Saturday night, so that the Columbia mail can be delivered before the following Monday:

A CARD.

Numerous complaints with regard to the postoffice under my control, having come to my ears, it is due to the public and to myself that an explanation be made.

On account of bad health, which disabled me, and on account of the loss of the valuable services of Mr. J. S. Bull, whose system and ability insured my respect and confidence in the entire management of the office, I was obliged to obtain a deputy familiar with the routine of business, and securing Mr. Ezekiel, removed the office to his store, that he might give the more undivided attention to it. Had Mr. Bull not received a better offer than I could afford to make I would still have had his valued help. And had he remained with me, I would not have removed the office. Had my own health been better, I might have seen less occasion to move the office.

W. E. WILLIAMS, P. M.

Bishop Haven.

Bishop Haven has just made us one of his welcome visits. He preached at Charleston Centenary Church on Tuesday night of last week, to a large and deeply-interested congregation. On the following day he visited the Cladin University, giving words of cheer to the students, who always anticipate his visits with more than ordinary pleasure. The Bishop endures the peculiar phases of this Southern life and labor with remarkable physical vigor, and an exhaustless fund of cheerful good nature, which seemingly renders it pleasant for himself as well as others. He is bound to win in spite of Southern prejudices. We only wish his means in all respects were equal to his interest in our work. None of our young preachers would lack for books or the means of improvement, and our churches and educational institutions would be above all pecuniary embarrassments.

STATE ITEMS.

There was quite a large fire in Florence on the 27th ult. The house and store of Mr. A. W. Lyons were destroyed. Loss, $31,000.

The grand jury of Lexington County have increased the retail liquor license from fifty to two hundred dollars.

The Town Council of Rock Hill, for the present year, has fixed the retail liquor license at $300, and the quart license at $150.

Colonel L. C. Northrop has been employed, by the Attorney General, to assist the solicitor in disposing of the heavy criminal docket in Edgefield.

Hardy Solomon's store, in Columbia, was broken into on Monday, and a small sum of money and a detached coupon were stolen.

Mr. E. A. Scott, who for several years has been the postmaster at Newberry C. H., has been removed. Mr. Scott has given general satisfaction in his conduct of the office, especially among the business men.

A young miss, of fourteen, of Columbia, S. C., who is good at twistification, has compounded 307 words from the letters composing the word "Charleston." How is that for a variety?

The Phoenix says: "The all-important question now is, who will step into the Comptroller General's shoes? The names of the candidates are legion—General Stolbrand, Colonel Fillebrown, Lieutenant Colonel Dann, Major Jones and Captain Little. The names of the privates are omitted.

Jack Lee, who was under the suspicion of being implicated in the murder of the old colored man, Frank Bickley, at the seven-mile post, near Columbia, surrendered himself, and is safely lodged in jail. Lee denies having anything to do with the matter, and says he can prove an alibi.

The Two Newsboys.

While passing along Washington street one evening, my attention was arrested by a little newsboy, who said to his companion:

"Say, Charlie, how much money have you made to-day?"

"Twenty-five cents."

"Jolly! is that so? Don't tell your mother how much you have made; keep part of it yourself."

The little fellow straightened up, and, with great earnestness, exclaimed:

"Do you think I would tell my mother a lie?"

Turning to the little fellow with an approving smile, I said, "That is right, my little boy; always tell the truth."

Noble little fellow! if he abides by that principle of truth, he may rise from his humble position to one of usefulness and honor.

Honest boys make honest men, and honest men make happy homes, good citizens, fair dealers, true Christians, and just legislators; while dishonesty fills the land with suffering and wickedness, and peoples jails and prisons with both young and old. Could granite walls and iron bars speak to us, they would tell us the sad fate of thousands who began their downward career by deceiving and lying. This is a wicked and perverse generation, and honest men are hard to find. Children, if you wish to shun the downward ruin; if you wish to be successful and respected; if you wish to make glad the heart of your parents; and, above all, if you wish to please your Heavenly Father, tell the truth, for "Lying lips are an abomination to the Lord; but they that deal truly are His delight."

HEALTH SEEKERS. It is said that Jacksonville, Florida, is overrun with Northern visitors, so that hotels and boarding-houses are uncomfortably crowded. Those who seek health in that section have to pay a dear price for it. The people will learn in time, that other sections of the South are more favorable for health.

Notices of the Press.

The BAZAR is edited with a contribution of time and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The BAZAR commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by the droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the mother by its tasteful designs for children's slippers and luxurious dress gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the festive enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

THE SOUTHEASTERN

ADVOCATE.

There is soon to be a paper entitled as above, issued from this office, and published in the interests of the M. E. Church in this portion of our work.

Since the unwise removal of the Charleston Advocate, our work has been enlarging and extending in this section and demands multiplying for a local organ. The Charleston Advocate was for two years published in Charleston. It was during this eventful period in the history of our cause in the South, one of the most important auxiliaries of our work. Its removal left a vacant place here which has not since been filled. It is an old saying, "that blessings brighten as they take their flight." This was emphatically true in reference to our paper for this coast. Many were taken by surprise at its sudden removal and were anxious for its return. If we had been as fully advertised of the wants and wishes of the people in this section, before the transfer of that paper to Atlanta, Ga., as we were after it was done, it would never have gone from us. The Methodist Advocate is a good paper and ably conducted, but it is too distant from the Atlantic coast to meet our local wants in this section. Our work on this coast differs in some particulars from our work in the section of Atlanta, or the valley of the Mississippi. Its peculiar phases cannot be met by those who live at a distance from us, and are not conversant with the exigencies and demands of this section. The people will have greater interest for their own paper,

that lives and sympathizes with them than can be awakened for one coming to them from a distance, and managed by comparative strangers.

It will be larger than the FREE CITIZEN, will be Issued Bi-weekly, at the low price of

ONE DOLLAR a YEAR Payment in advance.

Some of the ablest writers of our church in this section will contribute to its columns. Methodist Ministers of the M. E. Church, traveling and local are agents for this paper. Let those who read this notice act at once in getting up a list of subscribers.

All communications for the Advocate should be directed to us, at this place, A. WEBSTER, Orangeburg, S. C. Aug. 1874.

Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this MAGAZINE possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should entice its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
