OUR NEW STATE.

OKLAHOMA, S. C., July 1st, 1890.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—We never see anything in your paper from our territory. We think for a new country just opened up we are getting along finely. We had some trouble with the natives in the first of the year, establishing claims; since then everything has been working splendidly, and our crops will compare with any around, but they are suffering for rain. Hogs, cattle, buffaloes and other wild animals gave us considerable trouble in the spring. The stock law is not as strictly observed here as it is in older settled sections of the country. Boodle Jake comes in the territory occasionally and liven up things for us. We all know something is up when we see Jake. A short time ago he had a horse stealing scrape, and it was not long before he got the wrong bull by the horns and carried him over the Great Pee Dee. Jake is a wise fellow, and will always come out all right if he has a chance to talk. He don't fear the law any more than Tillman does the d—l. Tillman, that reminds me of politics, and they tell us he is the fellow that is going to be Governor. Politics, Oh! my beautiful Oklahoma, the land of the free, and all that's lovely; has it come to this, that all our highways and hedges have got to be tramped and scouted by candidates and politicians? It is upon us, and we will do our duty, but had rather be attacked by all the tribes around us—Choctaws, Chickasaws, Cheyennes, Comanches and Cherokees.

We are a long way off from headquarters, and are amazingly in a mixed condition, and stand in need of some sparkling, brilliant light, and we come publicly into your private presence and ask that some refulgent rays be cast about us that we may usher out of darkness into light. Away back here, we are hemmed in, hedged out, and completely bewildered and lost in the fog. In fact, sir, we don't know where we are, where we have been, nor where we will be if we get there, and we hear there are some in your town in the same fix. They don't know whether they are democrats, demagogues, true blues, sore heads, scabs or what. Good authority says that man is wonderfully and fearfully made. According to other authority, we are wonderfully, fearfully and woefully mixed. The same authority gives out, that when we are right, we are wrong and when we are wrong we are right. Did you ever? Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved? Every two years the old Ship of State totters and almost sinks. A little March gust struck the old Ship in Columbia, and such a howl went up all over the land, Oh, we are lost, lost! John Peter is going to throw down the paddle next November, but three good men are wading out with outstretched arms, and all say they can save the old boat—Earle, Tillman and Bratton. Earle is a long fellow, and a good wader, but he is just two years too late. The "anti's" let him get too ripe before they pulled him. Two years ago Tillman and others wanted him to accept the nomination, but he didn't want to be in anybody's way. If the signs in my almanac are true, he is not in anybody's way now.

In olden times just before the children of Israel got there, one from each tribe was sent over to view the promised land. Now, the Benjaminites have selected Ben, and he has been over and looked around, and says he likes it, and wants to go to stay, and he is going. Now, all that wants to go, must join the tribe of Benjaminites. Ben is going to get the nomination, and I have heard some one say they would vote for a bull dog or devil if he was nominated. There is no use trying to nominate the old gentleman, Ben says he is not afraid of him. I don't think you could get him now, any way. Congress is in session you know, and he could not possibly come down. He may end down some help to assist the politicians and Ring as Ben calls it. I am sorry Ben. Bratton let the boys fool him so; he is brought out by the politicians only as wedge; the poor old fellow will be driven in and mashed to death; he will not make good wedge wood. My friends, if you want to "git there," join the band; fall in with the tribe of Benjaminites. Mark the prediction; a quart of coon skins to a pint of flea's eyes, before one month a sore throat will be the result of whooping up the farmers' move, and one-eyed Ben. Keep cool

Each delegate pledged his support for B. K. Tillman first, last, and all the time.
 The following delegates to the Congressional Convention were then elected: Chas. Crosland, J. P. Bunch, Willis Turlington, John Barrentine, Thos. Bennett, J. R. Pegues.
 The convention then adjourned.

BEN IN RED HILL.

EDITOR MARLBORO DEMOCRAT:—Red Hill Democratic Club met July 5, elected its old officers, a solid Tillman delegation to the County Convention, adopted the convention instead of the primary plan, which was followed by loud cheers for Tillman by every member of the Club. The anti's were in a very large minority.

We Tillman men are democrats, And are true as steel can be; Reform we want, reform we'll have, And have it free from "ringster's" salve.

We can't be bought, nor can't be sold, Neither the young, nor e'en the old; "Farmers are fools," the ring men said, But this is taffy, and is dead.

The anti's will be apt to see, That they'll run from "ring rule" have to flee; They can't elect their ringster men, But we'll elect dear Captain Ben.

Farmers all want that which is right, And for it they will always fight; They want some meat, and not all bone, That they may grow and get full grown.

We want free money—silver, gold; Ringsters oppose it, we are told; But we will have it our way, By working for it night and day.

We've got the inside track to-day, So ring men and ring papers say; If this new statement is a fact, It proves that there's no outside track.

'Tis strange, and we can't think it right, For those who're wrong to rule or spite, And rule for their own pockets too, And rob the Gentiles and the Jew.

If men who're sanctified should cling To the wrong, and to the ring, They should be named old Ben Paddy, Who'd tell more lies than his daddy.

"I promise you that I will do," And fail to do it, is so true, And such a course will trouble bring, In or out of any ring.

B. R. Tillman takes the lead, And will get the thing we need, When he sits on that big chair, In Columbia's braising air.

We must watch both State and Nation, And must work like all creation, And it must meet our approbation, To stick together in our relation.

RED HILL, S. C., July 5, 1890.

EUPERSY.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life, Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon, and yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and out the demon Dyspepsia and install into Eupepsy. We recommend ELECTRIC BITTERS for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c, and $1.00 per bottle, at Jennings' Pharmacy.

THE TONGUE.

"The boneless tongue, so small and weak, Can crush and kill," declared the Greek. "The tongue destroys a greater horse." The Turk asserts, "than doth the sword." The Persian proverb wisely saith,— "A lengthy tongue, and early death." Or sometimes takes this form instead: "Don't let your tongue cut off your head." "The tongue can speak a word whose sound," Says the Chinese, "outstrips your speed!"— While Arab saith thus impart: "The tongue's great storehouse is the heart." From Hebrew wit the maxim spring,— "Though feet should slip, ne'er the tongue." The sorer writer crowns the whole: "Who keeps his tongue doth keep his soul." —Woman's Journal.

ADAMSVILLE CLUB.

The Adamsville Democratic Club met on Saturday, July 5, and elected J. B. Green, President; J. P. Bunch, Vice-President, and J. D. Fletcher, Secretary.
 After the election of delegates to the County Convention the following preamble and resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1st. That we believe that the necessity for reform is great in the administration of the affairs of this State, that remedied by a change in our chief executive officer, therefore be it
 Resolved, 2nd. That we, the Adamsville Democratic Club, endorse the action of the March Convention, heartily believing in the platform of principles for reform, as set forth in said convention.
 Resolved, 3rd. That we will do all in our power to secure the nomination of Capt. B. K. Tillman for Governor in the September Convention.
 Resolved, 4th. That we pledge ourselves to support the regular Democratic nominee of the party, let it be whom it may.
 Resolved, 5th. That we will use our best efforts to secure to the candidates for State officers a fair and impartial hearing in our county at our coming campaign meeting.

The following resolution by Mr. H. C. Newton was offered and adopted:
 Resolved, That our delegates to the County Convention be instructed to advocate and support a change in the Rules for the government of Primary Elections so that section 12 of the same shall read, "I believe in the principles of true Democracy," instead of "I believe in the principles of the Democratic Party."

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be published in the county papers.
 J. B. GREEN, Chairman.
 J. D. FLETCHER, Secretary.

A Remarkable Case From Illinois.

"I suffered for five years with Mercurial Rheumatism, which was the result of putrid and mercurial treatment by physicians, for constitutional Blood Poison. They not only failed to cure me but made me a physical wreck and my life a burden. I then commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and after using a few bottles was entirely cured of the Rheumatism, which the doctors brought on by their remedies, and the Blood Poison which they failed to cure. I cheerfully commend S. S. S. to any one similarly afflicted."
 JOHN H. LYLES, So. City, Ill.

WEST POINT, MISS.

I used half dozen bottles of Dr. Westmoreland's Callaya Tonic with the happiest effect, having been an invalid for eight months, suffering most of the time from Chronic Malarial Toxemia. I would recommend it as one of the best Tonics that I have ever seen, and admirably adapted to the character of malarial troubles in this section.

Scorfula is an impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, causes painful running sores on the arms, legs or feet, which develop ulcers in the eyes, ears or nose, often causing blindness and deafness. Take P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium). It has proved itself the most remarkable of all blood purifiers.
