The Green Front restaurant, lately closed for a few days, has been reopened by Messrs Rhodes & Bedows, and will be conducted by them in first-class style. The former gentleman is also proprietor of the well known and popular Rhodes Restaurant.

J. A. Morrison led a flock of lambs to Cameron lake, Saturday night and in the cooling waters they rinsed off much Imperial soil. The party report that they were in up to their necks—and didn't stand on their heads, either. There were 21 of them.

Harry Chandler, of the Times, and C. G. Hunt, also of Los Angeles, owners in the California & Mexico Land & Cattle Co. came down Sunday morning on a flying visit and were met at the station here by Superintendent Bowker of the ranch.

A petition has been circulated here this week, and generally signed, asking Sheriff Brodnax to appoint a deputy for Imperial. A deputy is needed here, especially now that Constable Taggart has resigned, and we hope the Sheriff will see his way clear to grant the request.

Hotel Imperial Opening

The opening dinner of the Hotel Imperial Sunday was a delightful affair and passed off happily for the large number of citizens attending.

The dining room was beautiful in its elegant new service—a point upon which the landlady has shown fine taste and spared no expense,—and the tables were further set off with rich and fragrant carnations imported from "inside" especially for the occasion.

Mrs. Waters was assisted in receiving by her daughter Miss Flora, and with the charming hospitality of these ladies the guests spent a happy hour. Among those present were:

City—Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Garey, Ed Snell, wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McCaulley, Dr. and Mrs. Paul S. Anderson Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Marek.
