

Holtville Happenings

From Our Regular Correspondent.

B. Howard Whitcomb, of Terra Haute, Indiana, arrived at Holtville, last Saturday, to spend the winter in the sunny Imperial Valley.

George Speer, of Yuma, was doing business in Holtville last Saturday.

W. D. Garey, of the Imperial Land Co., was over from Imperial Tuesday, on business for his company.

After the first of January the Holton townsite company will employ a superintendent for the townsite who will also do the work of zanjero for the residents. The lease of M. P. Harris for the townsite expires at that time and he will take his herd of dairy cows to the ranch.

The directors of Imperial water companies No. 5 and No. 7 were at Imperial, Monday, in conference with the other directors of water companies in the valley.

A large number were out to the mass meeting of the citizens of the eastside on Monday and a resolution was passed asking aid from congress to relieve the serious situation caused by the recent floods of the Colorado river.

Edgar Bros. bought a fine team of draft horses of D. A. Wheeler & Co. last week.

A. B. Jones has bought the meat market from W. A. Henderson and will continue to run a first-class shop.

P. C. Curtis has purchased the A. A. Nalor ranch, east of Holtville, and will begin improving the same at once.

The change in the time of the Holtville trains is very much appreciated by the citizens of Holtville, as it is now possible to go to Imperial and return the same day.

The Holtville Sunday schools will give a Christmas program on Christmas eve in the school house.

John Skelton, who has been spending the past few months at Julian, is in Holtville this week on his way to Phoenix, Ariz.

COLONEL EPES RANDOLPH

Confident Colorado Will Soon Be Controlled

Colonel Randolph was entertained Wednesday by a representative of the Examiner and said, "Everything looks fine in the Colorado. The government will soon be in to help out there and the river will be put under control."
