N. J. Metz, the photographer, with his wife and daughter, left on Wednesday for Long Beach, where they have a summer home. Mr. Metz expects to return to El Centro in the fall to reopen his photographic studio.

John M. Eshleman has gone to Los Angeles to look after some of the details of his campaign for the Republican nomination for Railroad Commissioner. No formidable opposition to him has developed, and his hosts of friends throughout the district are confident of his success.

LAUNDRY MANAGEMENT CHANGES
 P. Audereau has taken the interests of his former partners in the lease of the Imperial Valley Laundry, and has engaged Mrs. C. B. Baird, former manager, to take charge of the work. Mrs. Baird has had wide experience in this line.

SEVEN CARLOADS OF ONIONS
 Seven carloads of onions have been snipped from Keystone this season. The low prices now prevailing have stopped shipments. The greater part of the onion crop in that vicinity has been raised by Japanese.
