

WESTERN LIBERAL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1889.

Engineer Gregg is enjoying a vacation. S. R. Donagan is shearing his sheep this week.

Dr. H. R. King is in the city, en route to Carlsle.

The dance Saturday night was highly enjoyed.

Meeting of the fire department this evening.

T. J. Kurts has removed to Lincoln Pennsylvania.

Dr. J. H. Lacey of Clifton was in the city Monday.

Robert Howland returned to San Francisco Saturday.

Ed Hand has returned from Montana and is now down in Mexico.

The Chieftains and Amintas mountains had a covering of snow Sunday.

A. H. Nichol from the Gila has been in the city this week, watching the round up.

The first carload of west bound chickens this season passed through town this week.

C. W. Hopkins made a trip to Tucson Saturday. He expects his family here next week.

Miss Margaret Whitehill and Mr. Obed Fools, two popular young Silver Citizens, were married last week.

Mrs. L. A. Snyder left yesterday for a protracted visit with friends and relatives in St. Louis.—Enterprise.

The Southern Pacific pay wagon was in the city Monday and thirty-five white men and two Chinamen walked in the back door.

Henry Grey went to Tucson Saturday on the invitation of deputy Marshal Will Smith to tell the grand jury what he knew.

W. R. Muir, of Muir & Campbell of Clifton, was in the city Monday on the way back, after visiting his family at Windsor, Missouri.

Joseph Mason leaves to-day or tomorrow for Silver City. Mr. Mason is the lay delegate from Clifton to the Methodist conference at Silver City next week.

While working on the round up south of town Monday Frank Shriver's horse stumbled and fell. Frank's face was somewhat jammed up, and his leg came near being broken.

Sheriff Whitehill is again in his office after a tax collecting tour through the southern part of the county. He regards Lordsburg as the best town of the territory, and Don; H. Kedzie as the model postmaster.—Enterprise.

Thos. Foster writes from the Astor House, New York, that he will be in Great county again about the 10th. He says he succeeded in organizing a fine lodge of Spiders and sent a picture of the Astor House with the Spiders grouped on the front steps.

The Methodist conference meets in Silver City next week. There is no place in the territory that stands in as much need of earnest work by about two hundred Methodist preachers as this same Silver City. It is to be hoped they will leave their mark there.

Last Tuesday there was a $500,000 fire in the residence portion of Grand Haven, Michigan, destroying a fine hotel, three churches and about forty houses. Among the houses burned was one owned and occupied by A. S. Kedzie, father of the editor of the LIBERAL.

An associated press dispatch dated Nogales the 30th says: J. K. Tallier, leader of the gang who robbed a train on the Sonora road, a year ago last May, and killed Conductor Atkinson and Fireman Forbes, and who was subsequently convicted of the crime and sentenced to death was shot this morning by Mexican authorities at Guaymas.

Our readers may remember that the material of the Clifton Clarion was recently sold by the constable to satisfy a printer's bill of some forty odd dollars. The printer, Rice Jones, got his money and deposited it with John Hovey over night so he would have enough money to get out of town with. When he went to draw his money Hovey told him he had a bill some six or seven years old of a little over $50, and he would give Jones credit for the amount paid on the bill. The impression prevails that Mr. Hovey is pretty smooth and that a long money in a handy thing to have around.

Last week's LIBERAL told of the sickness of John B. Malone, and at the time the paper was printed it was supposed he was recovering, but within an hour after the papers were delivered he was dead. He had never been sick in his life and it was an entirely new experience to him, the fever had been broken for two days, but he thought he was dangerously sick and died because he gave up and did not make a fight for life. He was buried Saturday. John B. Malone was a man of about forty-five, a native of Tennessee. He had been in the west for many years, engaged in mining and prospecting. He discovered and developed the mines at the Malone camp, which was named after him. He sold out at Malone some years ago at a handsome figure and made a trip back to his old home. He had no relatives in this part of the country. John B. Malone was a man of sterling character, temperate, honest, hardworking and always a true friend. He was a man whose death would be a loss to any community.

MEMORI MORTI.

This morning was cold for September, the wind in fitful gusts swept through the almost deserted streets of Lordsburg, whistling around corners and through alleys, then dying away it seemed to mourn a requiem.

Here and there small knots of men would gather and their sorrowful faces would have told a stranger that some calamity had fallen on the community.

James B. Malone of Tennessee, an old time miner and prospector, was dead, and to-day we were to perform the last and rites consigning him to mother earth.

Recently we bent him to the grave followed by his many friends who in subdued voices tell of the many virtues of the deceased.

slowly he is lowered to his final resting place! Listen!

"Man that is born of a woman is but a few days and full of trouble.

"He cometh forth like a flower and is cut down.

"He fleeth like a shadow and never cometh in one stay.

"Yea, man dies and giveth up the ghost and where is he?"

Where are you, our friend?

Have we looked upon you for the last time or shall we in the fullness of time when the earth and sea shall give up the dead that are in them, see you and know you in the great beyond? And a voice says:

"I am the resurrection and the life who soever believeth in me, though he were dead yet shall he live, and whosoever loveth and believeth in me shall not die."

"Earth to earth. Dust to dust. Ashes to ashes."

"Fare thee well, though not forever, still, forever fare thee well."

Kings can bestow no greater honor, princes and potentates cannot raise you higher in the estimation of mankind than we your friends as we heap the earth upon your grave, speaking to each other say:

"He was an honest man."

"Life's fitful fever o'er he sleeps well."

"Here rests his head upon the lap of earth, a youth to fortune and to fame unknown; Fair silence fell on his humble birth, and melancholy marked him for her own."

"Large was his bounty and his soul sincere; Heaven did a recompense as largely send; He gave to misery (all he had) a fear, He gained from Heaven (twas all he wished) a friend."

"No further seek his merits to disclose, Or draw his talents from their tomb; So here he lies, till we do him repose (The bosom of his father, and his God."

Misadventure.

Special dispatch to the Liberal.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 3.—It is a blank lie. HARRY CLARKEN.

THE OWNERSHOUSE.

The Owens house, under the management of Chas. W. Hopkins, sets the best table in town and on it are found all the luxuries which can be procured in western New Mexico. The rooms are neat and clean and have no bad odors. Patrons are called for any train day or night free of charge. No China washing, either sheets or table cloths, in the house.

The United States court at Tucson has been having a monkey and a parrot of a time over the train robbers. The grand jury, which is composed of some of the best and ablest men in Arizona and represent over $5,000,000 of active capital, brought in several indictments for the robbery. Among the indictments was one against Gilbert Webb, who was out on $10,000 bail. The district attorney wanted his bail raised, but Judge Barnes refused to raise it, claiming $10,000 was large enough. Thereupon the grand jury telegraphed the attorney general expressing their opinion of the judge and asking that another judge be assigned to try the case. The attorney general telegraphed Judge Barnes and asked him what was the matter. On Monday morning the judge called the grand jury before him and questioned them about the telegram. They all acknowledged signing it except one man and he was absent when the telegram was written, whereupon the judge discharged the jury. The proceedings caused considerable excitement in Tucson and the belief is strong that the judge has been "seen." In his remarks he said: "So far as this judge is concerned, his days upon the bench are few, and it is a matter of small import to him whether they are few or many." On Tuesday he inpanelled a new jury.

At Silver, the chief of scouts at San Carlos, reports the Apaches as being very restless, and he would not be surprised at any time if there was an outbreak. He attributes the restlessness of the Indians to their association with the negro soldiers. The average buffalo will sell whiskey and ammunition to any Indian who has money and makes love to the squaws, all of which is highly demoralizing to the Indians. You can't demoralize a buffalo.

MINING MATTERS.

Reports from Various Camps—Items of General Interest to Miners.

The latest quotations are: Silver 93; copper 10.50; lead 3.00.

The season of the assessment work is approaching.

Col. Hulings has gone east on business connected with the Standard Mutual company.

A letter to the Prospector from Stein's Pass reports a new and big strike in the Volcano. A cross cut at the 200-foot level shows 14 feet of solid ore between two good walls and the ore averages $40 per ton.

Last Saturday John Gano of Deepwater, Wm. Vineyard and Geo. of Kansas City, and E. Allison of Clinton, Missouri, were in the city on their way to Clifton. These gentlemen are all interested as stockholders in the Gold Mountain company and are on an inspection trip. The probability is that they will put the company on its feet and set it to work.

W. C. Tonkin, accompanied by Wm. Harris of Kingstons, was in the city this week en route to Clifton where Mr. Harris will survey the gold properties up the San Francisco which Mr. Tonkin recently acquired. Mr. Tonkin calculates to make matters lively at the other end of the narrow gauge this winter. He tells the LIBERAL that he will put a steam hoist on the Ruby Silver and go to taking out ore in the near future.

A big gold excitement in New York state is the latest fall. Sixty-dollar rock is the value placed on the new find. The peculiar way they have of expressing themselves in that country is exemplified by the following startling announcement: "To judge by samples taken from the ground the whole country is one vast gold mine worth $60 per ton. The stone is being padded up and will be analyzed by a surveyor."—Prospector.

The weather cleared up Sunday and this week it has been very comfortable for every one except the folks who put on winter underclothing.

Ed and Riley Hudson, who were tried at Las Cruces for a killing committed near Silver City, were acquitted.

People in general should know what's best to do in any case of a sudden complaint. It is a well established fact that prompt relief may be had in any case of cholera morbus, dysentery or diarrhoea by giving a few doses of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. It acts quickly, can always be depended upon and pleasant to take. For sale at Eagle drug store.
