Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson and two boys arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on a several weeks' stay for both business and pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson now reside in Denver. Johnny Pugh, who has been visiting the city from Wagon Mound, reports that he has 45 acres planted to oats on his ranch near that town, also 75 acres to beans. Both crops are looking fine.
Mrs. Wm. Curtiss Bailey of this city and Buell McKeever of Chicago, will continue their horseback trip from Santa Fe, to which place they rode from Las Vegas, to Mora, instead of to Taos as originally planned. At Mora they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. McKeever, and Mrs. Chas. A. Spless, should the health of the latter permit. The party will remain about two weeks in Mora.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENT DIES AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Toryeir T. Eckholdt died last night at 9:30 o'clock at the Las Vegas hospital, after a residence at that institution of about four months.
The deceased came to this city some eight months ago, from St. James, Minn., where he had been attending college, preparatory to entering the ministry. He was twenty-five years of age, and a native of Norway. He is survived by a brother, J. T. Eckholdt, who has recently been making his home with T. H. Moen, on the Mora road.
The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the undertaking parlors of J. C. Johnson & Son, the Rev. H. Van Valkenburgh officiating. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

LIGHTNING CAUSES $500 DAMAGE TO LIGHT PLANT

The electrical storm yesterday afternoon played general havoc at the Las Vegas Light & Power company's plant, doing damage estimated in the neighborhood of $500. However, the trouble was promptly remedied and patrons experienced no inconvenience as a result of the damage.

FINED FOR FIGHTING ON CITY STREETS

Yesterday morning, Judge D. R. Murray in police court, fined Encarnacion Gutierrez and E. Romero each five dollars and costs for fighting on the streets. Romero paid his fine, but Gutierrez did not, and as a consequence he is now working for a term of ten days on the streets.

STRIKERS AND POLICE FIGHT; MANY INJURED

Pittsburg, July 14.—Serious trouble occurred between the strikers and police at the steel car plant of the McKees near here this morning. Several shots were fired and a number are reported injured.

The little son of Dr. Mueller is to give a birthday party tomorrow, to which about thirty of his little friends have been invited. The young man will be seven years old.

The Friend—Your son graduates from college this term, I believe?
The Father—Yes.
The Friend—Going to set him up in business, I suppose?
The Father—Not right away, I'm going to send him to school a while first.—Chicago News.

If you read it in The Optic it's so.
