LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. E. Marcotte, who has been quite ill for two weeks past, suffering from an attack of sciatic rheumatism, is still confined to her bed. She is reported as slightly improved.

Reserved seats for "Mlle. Mischief" which have been engaged must be paid for by 6 o'clock tomorrow evening, or reservations will be cancelled and seats sold over again at the box office.

The last will and testament of the late, Maria de Jesus Archuleta de Gonzales, who died at Tremontina, this county, October 11th, has been filed in the probate court and will be admitted to probate, November 22nd. In the meantime, Melquides Tenorio has been appointed temporary executor.

A marriage license was recorded at the county clerk's office Saturday afternoon, permitting Jacobo Lopez and Lugarda Maes to wed their hearts together for time and eternity. The groom resides at La Lliendre and the bride has made her home in Las Vegas. The nuptial knot was tied at an early hour this morning and a wedding breakfast was served at Mrs. Kate Wright's Montezuma restaurant.

Letters of administration have been issued in the probate court to Lori G. Calhoun on the estate of Mary Schwaller, a former husband of the present Mrs. Charles Smith, who resides in Denver, Colo. Schwaller at one time was a bartender in this city for Vincent Truder and after leaving here, ostensibly for Albuquerque, was reported to have been killed, though nothing definite was ever learned of the killing.

Personal property belonging to Mrs. Rosario Lujan at Clayton, Union county, has been attached in the district court here to secure the payment of a promissory note for $250, together with the costs of judicial proceedings, at the instance of M. Herzstein & Co., of that place. The representation was made by this firm that the woman is about to remove out of the territory to the injury and detriment of her creditors.

Will Koogler is at home suffering from a broken nose, sustained in a friendly scuffle with his brother, John. The boys were out camping and in an endeavor to persuade his brother by sheer force to get out of his blankets and take to the tall timber in quest of such game as they could come across, Will raised himself too quickly and unexpectedly from a stooping posture, with the above result nasally.

INTERESTING MEETING AT LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

A large number of men went to the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon to attend the men's meeting.

The new general secretary, George Fitzsimmons, was the speaker. He spoke of the character of David and his desire to build the temple which Solomon built. He likened Solomon's Temple to the world-wide spiritual temple which God calls upon all christian men to help build. He closed with an earnest appeal for consecrated service.

The Rev. M. E. Dutt sang a solo and Rev. Bishop and Rev. Anderson also had a part in the service.

Next Sunday the Rev. J. I. Seder, of Albuquerque, will speak at the Y. M. C. A., and if the meeting is anything like yesterday's, it will be a good one.
