

KAISER NOT THE MAN TO BE BLAMED

ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL SAYS EMPEROR IS NOT GLORY MAD

Washington, Aug. 20.—In a long editorial under the caption, "The Kaiser Glory Mad?" the Army and Navy Journal, in its issue of Saturday, points out the absurdity of the contention, frequently heard that Emperor William deliberately started the greatest war of all history in order to achieve fame as a great soldier. The Journal says, in part:

"It is well to call attention to a few facts which lie close to the surface in this titanic European upheaval, and which should be especially instructive to all military men. First, one hears on all sides in the United States that the German kaiser is glory-hungry and that, in a mad desire to achieve a name like Frederick the Great or Napoleon, he has flung his great army in the face of Europe. When the Boulanger excitement was at its height in France, one of Boulanger's partisans arose in the house of deputies and shouted to the opposition: 'How do you know that General Boulanger will not punish you all with a coup d'etat?' 'Because,' hissed back an opponent, 'he is too old.' Boulanger was then 54. So it may be said of the German kaiser. Born in 1859, he is now 55 years of age. A gray-haired grandfather does not seek military glory at an age three years greater than that at which Napoleon died and when 22 years older than was Frederick the Great, when by the treaty of Dresden, in 1745, he obtained possession of Silesia, for the second time, and by his military genius had raised himself to a great position in Europe

"The kaiser has so well kept the peace of Europe during the 26 years of his reign that Carnegie, only a few months ago, presented to him a tribute as an expression of the admiration of peace lovers the world over for the magnificent work he had done to prevent war in Europe during his years of power. Now to say that he has plunged nations into war for a mere freak is to misjudge entirely those racial currents which for centuries, like some deeply hidden stream that undermines mountains and brings the loftiest peak level with the plain, have torn through all conventions and diplomatic agreements, and made their way in blood to the attainment of their ultimate object. There has been more than one occasion when the mad could have thrown his sword into the balance with far more chance of achieving success than at the present time.

"Americans not having been placed in an environment where they could feel the pressure of rival races, naturally form the opinion that the great military establishment of the German emperor is responsible for this war, and they can not understand how a thing that appears so small to them as the Austro-Serbian dispute should result in this Pan-European conflagration. This attitude on their part is due to their ignorance of conditions that have obtained in their own country. Only a few months ago the United States invaded territory of Mexico and seized her greatest port because a certain salute was not given to the American flag. Doubtless the American people would have been much aggrieved if Europe had mocked them for entering upon hostilities for such a trivial cause.

"Americans are inclined to condemn the strenuous methods adopted by Austria to punish Serbia for the assassination of the heir to the Austrian throne, yet our own government refused to recognize the authority of Huerta on the ground he was implicated in the assassination of Madero, a Mexican—a refusal that resulted eventually in the invasion of Mexican territory.

"We who watch over the Monroe doctrine with nervous care are scarcely in a position to shout militarism at the Germans or Austrians when they risk the arbitrament of war for a principle of racial homogeneity, that may have just as solid a basis in the needs of the people as had that doctrine."

MONUMENT TO INDIANS

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 20.—A party of state officials and members of the Minnesota Historical society visited Fort Ridgely today to attend the dedication of a monument to the friendly Chippewas and their chief Moo-zoom-un-lee, who are said to have rendered assistance by giving warning of the movements of the hostiles and conducting the whites to safety at the time of the Sioux massacre in 1862. The monument was erected by the state of Minnesota. The dedication was accompanied by a program of interesting exercises. The principal addresses were delivered by George F. Authier, private secretary to Governor Eberhart, and Theodore H. Beaulieu of White Earth.

OPPOSES GIVING AWAY INDIAN LANDS

FATHER WEBBER OF SANTA FE ADDRESSES BROCHURE TO CONGRESS

Santa Fe, Aug. 20.—Remarkable both in a literary and in a historical way is a pamphlet or brochure just published by Father Anselm Weber, the devoted and venerable Franciscan missionary to the Navajos, stationed at St. Michaels and well known throughout New Mexico for his learning and piety. It is entitled "The Navajo Indians, a Statement of Facts," and is an argument against the proposed allotting of lands to the Navajos and the throwing open of the Navajo reservation to the homesteader. His indictment is:

"The Indian has no representation unless congress as a whole espouses his cause. Too often, however, congress as a body relies implicitly upon the delegation from such states for information, guidance and action, and such delegations are, at times, misinformed by interested constituents. I am stating the case as mildly as possible."

Father Weber then takes up some of the misstatements and cites facts and figures which are perhaps, as complete a summing up of the conditions on the Navajo reservation, as has ever found its way into print. Of course, the writer is an authority having lived with the Navajos on their reservation for many, many years, knows their language and their customs, has their confidence and is much beloved by them.

He defends the Navajos against the charge of lawlessness, and quotes statistics showing that the Navajo has not any too much land on his reservations. It is an intensely interesting review of the situation, and the 30 pages of the pamphlet will no doubt be welcomed by congress, for which it was written.

It is Just Natural To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the cooing infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is ever before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the real helpful things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known so many grandmothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommended it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicates. They have used it for its direct influence upon the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the strain and pain so often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy.

Every woman should mention "Mother's Friend" when the stock is the subject of conversation. An interesting little book is mailed free upon application to Bradford Regulator Co., 405 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It refers to many things that women like to read about.

Get or recommend a bottle of "Mother's Friend" to-day and write for the book.

Use "Gets-It," Corns Shriveled, Vanish!

It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns

"2 drops put on in 2 seconds, corn shrivels, comes clean off!" That's the marvelous story of "GETS-IT," the new-plan corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their fussy plasters, stick tape, toe-eating salves, and "wrapping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it to pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply it in two seconds. No more knives, razors, scissors or files, with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or burn.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. —Adv.

NO BOOZE; MURDER

Tariffville, Conn., Aug. 20.—Because she hid a bottle of whiskey to prevent her husband from drinking a highball before starting for church this afternoon, Mrs. Eva Kavalest, twenty-eight was murdered by William Kavalest, thirty-three. He fired five bullets into her as she ran about the room.

Then, reloading the pistol he put three bullets into his own breast and died. All the while their seven-year-old boy crouched in a corner. Constable Hovey of Tariffville Center, found the little fellow so frightened he could scarcely tell about the sad scene he had witnessed.

The murder and suicide took place about 9:30. Kavalest, who was a tobacco worker had been out with a party Saturday night. When he said he was going to have a drink Mrs. Kavalest said he was not going to church smelling of liquor. She seized the bottle of whiskey Kavalest had brought home and fled with it. On her return he demanded to know where she had hidden it. She refused to reply and threw herself upon the bed in her room weeping.

The little boy says he saw his mother turn and open her eyes just in time to see her husband aiming his revolver at her.

SELIGMAN LIKES NEW MEXICO MEN

SAYS JONES, CATRON AND FALL ARE DOING EXCELLENT WORK

Santa Fe, Aug. 20.—Ex-Mayor Arthur Seligman, who has returned from a several months' visit in the east, had an interesting hour's conference on New Mexico affairs with President Wilson. He returns a warm admirer of the president, not only as a statesman but as a genial and earnest man who has the welfare of the nation at heart. Mr. Seligman also had conferences with Postmaster General Burleson, Secretary of Treasury McAdoo and other cabinet officers. He cannot speak too highly of the work of Assistant Secretary of the Interior A. A. Jones and though a democrat, he also gives due credit to the high standing in Washington of United States Senators Thomas B. Catron and Albert B. Fall. Mr. Seligman was in touch with some of the leading financiers of the east and throws many a sidelight on world events that are as interesting as they are illuminating.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Favorite Remedy for Diarrhoea "About three years ago I had a serious attack of summer complaint. The doctor's medicine failed to benefit me, so I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy upon the recommendation of one of my neighbors. One dose of it did me more good than all the other medicine I had used. I improved rapidly and in a short time I was well." writes Mrs. May Higgins, Peru, Ind. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

SUNDAY LID LIFTING WORRIES SANTA FE

ANONYMOUS LETTERS ARE SENT OFFICERS BY PEOPLE OF THE CITY

Santa Fe, Aug. 20.—Santa Fe is stirred by anonymous letters addressed to Judge John R. McFie, president of the Law and Order league, and to officials in which the charge is made that the saloons do not observe the Sunday closing law, making specific reference to prominent Santa Feans and one Albuquerquean who were seen going into saloons on Sunday to quench their thirst. The communication makes the demand that "the arch violator of the Sunday closing law and disregarder of the saloon men's agreement should be made an example of and a warrant should be issued and he be bound over to await the action of the Santa Fe county grand jury so that he may get what properly awaits him. Play ball, Mr. City Marshal to the bat and Mr. Sheriff on deck. Get me?"

One saloonkeeper has been arrested for opening his saloon on Monday morning at 1 o'clock instead of 5, as the ordinance provides and was fined $50. Mayor W. G. Sargent gave assurance today that the saloons would be kept tightly closed Sundays as heretofore and three aldermen who had signed a petition that saloons be permitted to keep open until Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, withdrew their names from the petition which had been signed by all the aldermen except Dr. J. A. Rolla, who was out of town and now the saloons close at midnight instead of 2 o'clock.

District Judge E. C. Abbott at the last term of court kept the grand jury in session several days longer at an expense of several hundred dollars to hear evidence of law violations by saloons, but no witness appeared although several anonymous letters had been received and caused the judge to hold the jury. District Attorney Alexander Read and his assistant said today that they would do everything in their power to assist in enforcing the law against saloons or against any one else.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly troubles, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
